1 Short title.

This Act may be cited for all purposes as “The Judicial Statistics (Scotland) Act 1869.”

2 Schedules to be returned by clerks of courts and other public officers.

The following persons, viz.,—first, the clerks of the several courts of law, and of all courts administering civil or criminal justice, and second, keepers of records and other persons receiving remuneration for performing public duties in the civil service of Her Majesty, shall and are hereby required to fill up and transmit to the department for the collection of judicial statistics, before the end of the month of March in each year, such schedules relative to the business transacted in their respective offices during the preceding year as, subject to the following conditions and regulations, they shall from time to time receive from the superintendent of the said department.

3 Forms of schedules to be certified.

Each such schedule shall be in a form which has been certified under the signature of Her Majesty’s Advocate for Scotland as having been approved of by him, and each such form, with his signature attached thereto, shall be preserved in the chambers of the department for the collection of judicial statistics, where the same shall be patent to any clerk or other person who is bound to make a return under such form.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.
