5 Grant of certificate.

The following regulations shall be made with respect to the grant of pedlar certificates:

- (1) Subject as in this Act mentioned, a pedlar's certificate shall be granted to any person by the chief officer of police of the police district in which the person applying for a certificate has, during one month previous to such application, resided, on such officer being satisfied that the applicant is above seventeen years of age, is a person of good character, and in good faith intends to carry on the trade of a pedlar:

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Pedlars Act 1871. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) An application for a pedlar's certificate shall be in the form specified in schedule two to this Act, or as near thereto as circumstances admit:
- (3) There shall be paid for a pedlar's certificate previously to the delivery thereof to the applicant a fee of [^{F6}twelve pounds twenty five pence][^{F7}£12.25]
- (4) A pedlar's certificate shall be in the form specified in schedule two to this Act, or as near thereto as circumstances admit:
- (5) A pedlar's certificate shall remain in force for one year from the date of issue thereof, and no longer:
- (6) On the delivery up of the old certificate, or on sufficient evidence being produced to the satisfaction of the chief officer of police that the old certificate has been lost, that officer may, either at the expiration of the current year, or during the currency of any year, grant a new certificate in the same manner as upon a first application for a pedlar's certificate. In Great Britain one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and in Ireland the Lord Lieutenant may from time to time provide for the expiration of all pedlars certificates at the same period of each year, and in doing so shall provide for the apportionment of the fees payable in respect of any such certificate.
