

Inland Revenue Act 1880

1880 CHAPTER 20

PART II

As to Brewers for Sale

23 Provisions as to operations in course of brewing

- (1) All grains in a mash tun must be kept untouched for the space of one hour after the time entered in the book as the time for the worts to be drawn off, unless the officer has attended and taken an account of such grains.
- (2) All worts shall be removed successively, and in the customary order of brewing, to the underback, coppers, coolers, and collecting and fermenting vessels, and shall not be removed from the last-mentioned vessels until an account has been taken by the officer, or until after the expiration of twelve hours from the time at which the worts are collected in such vessels.
- (3) When worts shall have commenced running into a collecting or fermenting vessel, the whole of the produce of the brewing shall be collected within twelve hours.
- (4) For any contravention of this section the brewer shall incur a fine of fifty pounds.
