9 Computation and publication of averages by Board of Trade.

The Board of Trade shall cause the average prices of each sort of British corn to be computed from [<sup>F10</sup>the returns made] in pursuance of this Act, as follows:

<sup>F11</sup>

- (1) In each week the average price during the next preceding week of each sort of British corn shall be computed, and shall be published in the London Gazette:
- (2) After each of the quarter days, the twenty-fifth day of March, the twenty-fourth day of June, the twenty-ninth day of September, and the twenty-fifth day of December, the average price of each sort of British corn during the quarter ending on that quarter day shall be forthwith computed and published in the London Gazette:
- (3) After the twenty-fifth day of December in every year the average price of each sort of British corn shall be computed for the year, and the seven years ending on that day, and shall be published in the London Gazette in the month of January next following:
- (4) The average price of any sort of British corn for any week shall be ascertained by adding together the total quantities of that sort of British corn appearing from [<sup>F10</sup>the returns made in pursuance of this Act] to have been bought during such week, and the total prices for those quantities as appearing from [<sup>F10</sup>the said returns] and by dividing the total prices by the total quantities as so ascertained. The quarterly or yearly average prices shall be ascertained by adding together the weekly averages of the weeks included in such quarter or year, and dividing the total by the number of weeks in such quarter or year respectively.
- (5) The septennial average price shall be ascertained by adding together the average annual prices for the seven years, and dividing the total by seven:
- (6) The annual and septennial average shall state the average for the [<sup>F12</sup>hundred-weight of one hundred and twelve imperial standard pounds].
