

Bills of Exchange Act 1882

1882 CHAPTER 61 45 and 46 Vict

PART III U.K.

CHEQUES ON A BANKER

73 Cheque defined. U.K.

A cheque is a bill of exchange drawn on a banker payable on demand.

Except as otherwise provided in this Part, the provisions of this Act applicable to a bill of exchange payable on demand apply to a cheque.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C1 S. 73 extended by Finance Act 1939 \(c. 41\), s. 35\(2\), S.I. 1957/2228 (1957 I, p. 801) and National Loans Act 1968 \(c. 13\), s. 14\(7\)

74 Presentment of cheque for payment. U.K.

Subject to the provisions of this Act—

- (1) Where a cheque is not presented for payment within a reasonable time of its issue, and the drawer or the person on whose account it is drawn had the right at the time of such presentment as between him and the banker to have the cheque paid and suffers actual damage through the delay, he is discharged to the extent of such damage, that is to say, to the extent to which such drawer or person is a creditor of such banker to a larger amount than he would have been had such cheque been paid.
- (2) In determining what is a reasonable time regard shall be had to the nature of the instrument, the usage of trade and of bankers, and the facts of the particular case.
- (3) The holder of such cheque as to which such drawer or person is discharged shall be a creditor, in lieu of such drawer or person, of such banker to the extent of such discharge, and entitled to recover the amount from him.

[^{F2}74B Presentment of cheque for payment: alternative means of presentment by banker U.K.]

- (1) A banker may present a cheque for payment to the banker on whom it is drawn by notifying him of its essential features by electronic means or otherwise, instead of by presenting the cheque itself.
- (2) If a cheque is presented for payment under this section, presentment need not be made at the proper place or at a reasonable hour on a business day.
- (3) If, before the close of business on the next business day following presentment of a cheque under this section, the banker on whom the cheque is drawn requests the banker by whom the cheque was presented to present the cheque itself—
 - (a) the presentment under this section shall be disregarded, and
 - (b) this section shall not apply in relation to the subsequent presentment of the cheque.
- (4) A request under subsection (3) above for the presentment of a cheque shall not constitute dishonour of the cheque by non-payment.
- (5) Where presentment of a cheque is made under this section, the banker who presented the cheque and the banker on whom it is drawn shall be subject to the same duties in relation to the collection and payment of the cheque as if the cheque itself had been presented for payment.
- (6) For the purposes of this section, the essential features of a cheque are—
 - (a) the serial number of the cheque,
 - (b) the code which identifies the banker on whom the cheque is drawn,
 - (c) the account number of the drawer of the cheque, and
 - (d) the amount of the cheque is entered by the drawer of the cheque.]

79 Duties of banker as to crossed cheques. U.K.

- (1) Where a cheque is crossed specially to more than one banker except when crossed to an agent for collection being a banker, the banker on whom it is drawn shall refuse payment thereof.
- (2) Where the banker on whom a cheque is drawn which is so crossed nevertheless pays the same, or pays a cheque crossed generally otherwise than to a banker, or if crossed specially otherwise than to the banker to whom it is crossed, or his agent for collection being a banker, he is liable to the true owner of the cheque for any loss he may sustain owing to the cheque having been so paid.
Provided that where a cheque is presented for payment which does not at the time of presentment appear to be crossed, or to have had a crossing which has been obliterated, or to have been added to or altered otherwise than as authorised by this Act, the banker paying the cheque in good faith and without negligence shall not be responsible or incur any liability, nor shall the payment be questioned by reason of the cheque having been crossed, or of the crossing having been obliterated or having been added to or altered otherwise than as authorised by this Act, and of payment having been made otherwise than to a banker or to the banker to whom the cheque is or was crossed, or to his agent for collection being a banker, as the case may be.
