

Secretary for Scotland Act 1885

1885 CHAPTER 61

8 Secretary to be Keeper of the Great Seal.

The Secretary shall have the place, trust, and office of Keeper of Her Majesty's Seal, appointed by the Treaty of Union to be kept and made use of in Scotland in place of the Great Seal of Scotland, with all such powers, privileges, and liberties as do by law and custom belong to the same.