F9 Ss. 3, 4, 8, 9 repealed by Statute Law Revision Act 1963 (c. 30)

10 Accountant in certain cases to apply for appointment of successor to factor deceased.

In the event of its being found that any factor or other person referred to in section six hereof has died undischarged or has ceased to discharge the duties of his office without anyone having been appointed in succession to him, unless the purposes of his appointment have, in the opinion of the accountant, been exhausted, it shall be the duty of the accountant, unless the persons interested in such factory or any of them shall make the application on his requisition, to apply to the court for the appointment of a factor in place of such factor or other person, and it shall be the duty of the factor so appointed to investigate the accounts of the former factor or other person aforesaid and to receive any balance due from his representatives or his cautioner or cautioners.

11 Factors loco tutoris to pupils to become curators on pupil attaining minority.

It shall not be necessary to apply for the appointment of a curator bonis to a minor whose estate has, up to the date of his becoming a minor, been administered by a duly appointed factor loco tutoris, and the said factor shall, ipso facto, become curator bonis to the said minor, and shall continue the administration of the estate until the majority of the said minor, or until he has himself chosen curators in the manner directed by law.

[^{F10}11A Application for judicial factor on estate of person deceased.

- (1) It shall be competent to one or more creditors of parties deceased, or to persons having an interest in the succession of such parties, in the event of the deceased having left no settlement appointing trustees or other parties having power to manage his estate or part thereof, or in the event of such parties not accepting or acting, to apply by summary petition to the Court of Session or to the sheriff of the sheriffdom within which the deceased resided or carried on business during the year immediately preceding the date of the petition, or within which heritage belonging to the deceased at the time of his death is situated, for the appointment of a judicial factor.
- (2) After such intimation of the petition to the creditors of the deceased, and other persons interested, as may be considered necessary, and after hearing parties, the Court or sheriff may appoint such factor, who shall administer the estate subject to the supervision of the accountant in accordance with this Act and the Judicial Factors (Scotland) Act 1880 and relative acts of sederunt; and, if the deceased's estate is absolutely insolvent within the meaning of section 73(2) of the Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act 1985, section 51 of, and Schedule 1 to, that Act shall apply as if for references to—
 - (a) the interim trustee or permanent trustee there were substituted references to the judicial factor; and
 - (b) the date of sequestration there were substituted references to the date of the judicial factor's appointment.]
