

Witnesses (Public Inquiries) Protection Act 1892

1892 CHAPTER 64

1 Definition.

In this Act the word " inquiry " shall mean any inquiry held under the authority of any Royal Commission or by any committee of either House of Parliament, or pursuant to any statutory authority, whether the evidence at such inquiry is or is not given on oath, but shall not include any inquiry by any court of justice.