

Merchant Shipping Act 1894

1894 CHAPTER 60

PART I

REGISTRY.

Certificate of Registry.

18 Provision for loss of certificate.

- (1) In the event of the certificate of registry of a ship being mislaid, lost, or destroyed, the registrar of her port of registry shall grant a new certificate of registry in lieu of her original certificate.
- (2) If the port (having a British registrar or consular officer) at which the ship is at the time of the event, or first arrives after the event—
  - (a) is not in the United Kingdom, where the ship is registered in the United Kingdom ; or,
  - (b) is not in the British possession in which the ship is registered; or,
  - (c) where the ship is registered at a port of registry established by Order in Council under this Act, is not that port;

then the master of the ship, or some other person having knowledge of the facts of the case, shall make a declaration stating the facts of the case, and the names and descriptions of the registered owners of such ship to the best of the declarant's knowledge and belief, and the registrar or consular officer, as the case may be, shall thereupon grant a provisional certificate, containing a statement of the circumstances under which it is granted.

- (3) The provisional certificate shall within ten days after the first subsequent arrival of the ship at her port of discharge in the United Kingdom, where she is registered in the United Kingdom, or in the British possession in which she is registered, or where she is registered at a port of registry established by Order in Council under this Act at that port, be delivered up to the registrar of her port of registry, and the registrar shall thereupon grant the new certificate of registry; and if the master without reasonable
