

Metropolitan Police Courts Act 1897

1897 CHAPTER 26

7 Provisions as to fees and fines

- (1) The Public Offices Fees Act, 1879, shall apply to, all fees payable at the metropolitan police courts or at any court of the Chatham and Sheerness stipendiary magistrate.
- (2) The account of fees, penalties, and forfeitures, required by section forty-six of the Metropolitan Police Courts Act, 1839, shall be delivered at such times as the Secretary of State may by order direct.
- (3) Notwithstanding anything in this Act, or any repeal enacted by this Act, any tines which at the passing of this Act are payable by the receiver into the Exchequer, and which, by the Act imposing them, are directed to be paid to the Crown, or to the Exchequer, shall continue to be paid by the receiver into the Exchequer.