

Inclosure Act 1846

1846 CHAPTER 70

III If Orders do not take effect, Commissioners may suspend Proceedings.

And be it enacted, That in case any Supplemental Provisional Order so issued shall not take effect by reason of Dissents having been signified as aforesaid, the Commissioners may, at their Discretion, proceed as if such Supplemental Provisional Order had not been issued, or may suspend all Proceedings in the Inclosure.