

London Hackney Carriage Act 1831

1831 CHAPTER 22

LXI Duties and Penalties how recoverable.

And be it enacted, That all the Duties granted by this Act, and all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures imposed by or which may be incurred under any of the Provisions of this Act, relating in any Manner to the Licences required to be obtained for Hackney Carriages, or to the Stamp Office. Plate to be fixed thereon, shall and may be sued for and recovered by all such Ways and Means, summary or otherwise, and in such Manner and Form, as are and is or at any Time hereafter shall be provided by Law for the Recovery of any Duties, Penalties, or Forfeitures granted or imposed by any Act relating to Stamp Duties, as well as by the particular Ways and Means provided and directed by this Act.