

Wills Act 1837

1837 CHAPTER 26

XVII Executor to be admitted a Witness.

And be it further enacted, That no Person shall, on account of his being an Executor of a Will, be incompetent to be admitted a Witness to prove the Execution of such Will, or a Witness to prove the Validity or Invalidity thereof.