cannot be precisely ascertained, but it is estimated to be about Four thousand Pounds a Year: And whereas it is expedient and just to the Persons who have so built on the Holdings or have succeeded by Purchase or otherwise to the same in the Expectation of not being so disturbed, and it would be for the Benefit of Sir John William Ramsden and the Persons entitled in remainder to the Estates now subject to the recited Limitations of Sir John Ramsden's Will and the late Settlement respectively, that Provision should be made for the granting of Leases of the Holdings, or some of them or Parts thereof, on long Terms of Years, on proper Terms and Conditions, having regard to the Circumstances of the Cases: And whereas the Objects of this Act cannot be attained without the Authority of Parliament: Wherefore Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subject, Sir John William Ramsden Baronet, doth most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows; (that is to say,)

I. This Act may for all Purposes be cited as "Ramsden's Estate (Leasing) Act, 1859." Short Title.

II. The Powers of this Act shall be exerciseable by the Person and Persons who from Time to Time is and are by Sir John Ramsden's Will empowered to grant Building, Improving, or Repairing Leases of any of the Hereditaments thereby devised, and which Person and Persons is and are respectively, primarily, comprised in the Expression "the Lessor" in this Act, and that Expression extends to and includes, secondarily, the Persons from Time to Time entitled to the Reversion immediately expectant on the Terms created by Leases granted under this Act. "Lessor" for exercising Powers of Act.

III. The Lessor from Time to Time, if and when he thinks fit, may grant Leases according to this Act of any Parts of the Messuages, Lands, and Hereditaments specified in the First Schedule to any Persons who before the passing of this Act have built thereon at their own Expense, without being Lessees thereof, or to such other Persons as the Lessor, in his uncontrolled Judgment and entire Discretion, considers the Persons justly entitled to such Lease in respect of any of the Buildings specified in the First Schedule, whether the Buildings were made at their Expense or not, or, if those Persons be by reason of any Incapacity unable to accept the Lease, then to any other Persons on their Behalf. Power to lease Hereditaments specified in First Schedule.

IV. The Words "Lessee" and "Lessees," wherever occurring in this Act, mean and include "Lessee, his Executors, Administrators, and Interpretation of certain Terms.

and Assigns," and "Lessees, their Executors, Administrators, and Assigns."

Terms and Conditions of Leases.

V. The following Terms and Conditions apply to the Leases under this Act; (to wit,)

First, the Lease may comprise such of the Hereditaments within the Power of leasing as the Lessor thinks fit:

Secondly, the Lease shall be for a Term to be fixed by the Lessor, but not exceeding Ninety-nine Years, at a yearly Rent, without Fine:

Thirdly, the Lease shall take effect in possession immediately or within Twelve Months after the granting thereof, and not otherwise, in reversion or by way of future Interest, save only that a Lease subject only to a Tenancy from Year to Year, or for a less Interest, shall not be deemed a Lease in reversion:

Fourthly, the yearly Rent shall not, where a distinct and separate Rent for the Land comprised in the Lease can be ascertained, be less than what has been hitherto paid, and may, if the Lessor thinks fit, be of such an Amount as the Land comprised in the Lease would be worth if it were bare of Buildings, and were then to be let for Building Purposes; and the Lessor may, if he think fit, require from the Lessee a Fee not exceeding Ten Shillings towards the Expenses of and incident to the applying for and obtaining of this Act:

Fifthly, the Lease shall be granted with and subject to such Covenants and Powers as are by this Act required, and may be granted with or subject to any Liberties, Easements, Reservations, or Provisions by this Act authorized.

Easements authorized to be granted to Lessees.

VI. The Lessor, if he think fit, may grant to the Lessee all or any of the following Liberties and Easements; to wit,

First, Liberty to make, lay, and use any Sewers, Drains, Watercourses, and other Conveniences:

Secondly, Liberty to take down or remove all or any Part of the Buildings or Erections on the demised Premises, and to apply and dispose of the Materials thereof to any Purposes agreed on:

Thirdly, Liberty to alter any Building or Erection comprised in the Lease, but with the Privity and to the Satisfaction of the Lessor or the Reversioner, or their respective Surveyors or Agents.

Reservations
for Leases.

VII. The Lessor, if he think fit, may make by the Lease all or any of the following Reservations; (to wit,)

First, Reservation of Right or Power to make, lay, or use in the demised Premises any Sewers, Drains, Watercourses, or other Conveniences, subject to such Compensation (if any) as shall be agreed on:

Secondly,

Ramsden's Estate (Leasing) Act, 1859.

Secondly, Reservation of Easements of Ways, Waters, Drainage, Lights, and Support and other Easements affecting the demised Premises :

Thirdly, Reservation of Timber or other Trees, and of Rights with respect to the same :

Fourthly, Reservation of Mines, Minerals, Stone, Earths, and other Substances, and of Liberties, Easements, and Privileges with respect to the same, subject to such Compensation (if any) as shall be agreed on :

Fifthly, any other Reservations which the Lessor thinks reasonable :

Sixthly, Easements of Ways, Waters, Drainage, Lights, and Support and other Easements :

Seventhly, Any other Liberties and Easements which the Lessor thinks reasonable.

VIII. The Lease shall be granted with such of the following Covenants as are applicable to the Case ; (to wit,) Covenants required for Leases.

First, a Covenant for Payment of the Rent :

Secondly, a Covenant for Payment of all Landlord's and Tenant's Taxes, Rates, Assessments, and Impositions whatsoever affecting or to affect the demised Premises (Landlord's Property Tax only excepted) :

Thirdly, a Covenant to make and finish within a Time therein specified, and to keep in repair during the Term, the Building or Erection, if any, agreed to be made :

Fourthly, a Covenant to improve within a Time therein specified, and to keep in repair during the Term, the Building or Erection, if any, agreed to be improved :

Fifthly, a Covenant to make within a Time therein specified any other Improvement, if any, agreed on :

Sixthly, a Covenant to keep the Buildings or Erections on the demised Premises in repair :

Seventhly, where Three Fourths of the insurable Value of the Buildings or Erections on the demised Premises is One hundred Pounds or upwards, a Covenant to keep the insurable Buildings or Erections thereon insured against Damage by Fire, to the Amount of Three Fourths at least of the insurable Value thereof, in some respectable Insurance Office from Time to Time approved by the Lessor or the Reversioner, and to produce, on Demand, the Policy of the Insurance and Evidence of Payment of the Premium and Duty (if any) thereon :

Eighthly, a Covenant to lay out the Money received on the Insurance, and any other Money requisite, in substantially restoring the Buildings or Erections destroyed or damaged by Fire :

[Private.]

Ninthly,

Ramsden's Estate (Leasing) Act, 1859.

Ninthly, a Covenant to yield up on the Expiration or sooner Determination of the Term the Possession of the demised Premises, with the Buildings, Erections, and Improvements thereon, in good Repair and Condition.

Powers required for Leases.

IX. The Lease shall be granted subject to Powers for the following Purposes; (to wit,)

First, for the Lessor or the Reversioner, or their respective Surveyors or Agents, to enter at least twice in every Year on the demised Premises, and to inspect the Condition thereof, and of all Buildings, Erections, and Improvements thereon :

Secondly, for the Lessor or the Reversioner to enter and receive Rents and Profits, or to re-enter absolutely for Nonpayment of the Rent reserved, or for Breach of all or such as are agreed on of the Covenants by the Lessee.

Provisions authorized
for Leases.

X. The Lease may, if the Lessor think fit, be granted with Provisions for the following Purposes; (to wit,)

First, that Breach of any Covenant by the Lessee (except the Covenant for Payment of the Rent and such other Covenants, if any, as the Parties agree to except,) shall not give any such Right of Re-entry unless and until Judgment in an Action for Breach of the Covenant be obtained, and the Damages be assessed, and the Damages and Costs recovered thereon remain for Three Months after the assessing of the Costs unpaid :

Secondly, that in case of Breach of any Covenant by the Lessee to insure against Damage by Fire, or to produce the Policy of Insurance and Evidence of Payment of the Premium thereon, or to restore any Building or Erection destroyed or damaged by Fire, the Lessor or the Reversioner may insure or restore the Buildings or Erections according to the Terms of the Covenant, and may recover all Expenses of and incident to the insuring and restoring by Entry on the demised Premises, and Distress or Entry and Perception of Rents and Profits, or by Action or other Proceeding against the Lessee or his Representatives :

Thirdly, any other Provisions which the Lessor thinks reasonable.

Power to confirm Leases.

XI. Where any Lease purporting to be granted under this Act is for some technical Error, Informality, Irregularity, or Defect in the making or executing of it thought to be void or voidable, the Lessor, if he think fit, may confirm it, or may make instead thereof a Lease in accordance with this Act, but only for the same Term, and at the same Rent, and on the same Terms and Conditions, as were or were intended to be respectively granted, reserved, and contained, or according to this Act referred to, in and by the Lease so thought to be void or voidable.

XII. Pro-

Ramsden's Estate (Leasing) Act, 1859.

- XII. Provided always, That no Fine shall be taken for making any such Confirmation of a Lease so thought to be void or voidable, or for granting any such Lease instead thereof. No Fine to be taken for Confirmation.
- XIII. A Counterpart of every Lease granted under this Act shall be executed by the Lessee and be delivered to the Lessor, and a Memorandum under the Hand of the Lessor of the Receipt of any such Counterpart shall be prima facie Evidence that the Counterpart was duly executed and delivered as by this Act is required. Counterparts of Leases.
- XIV. When the Possession of any Part of the Hereditaments leased or contracted to be leased under this Act is resumed or recovered, the same shall thereupon become subject to be from Time to Time thereafter leased or otherwise dealt with or disposed of under this Act. Provisions of Act to apply to Premises leased when again in possession.
- XV. In order to secure Uniformity and to avoid Expense, the Lessor may, if he think fit, from Time to Time by Deed, to be enrolled in the High Court of Chancery within Six Months after the Day of the Date thereof, declare all or any of the Liberties, Easements, Reservations, Covenants, Powers, and Provisions with or subject to which all or any of the Leases shall according to this Act be granted; and any such Deed may be according to the Form in the Second Schedule to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect, with such Variations, if any, not repugnant to the Provisions of this Act, as the Lessor thinks fit. Power by Deed enrolled to declare Terms and Conditions of Leases.
- XVI. Where any such enrolled Deed is referred to by a Lease, the Lease may be according to the Form in the Third Schedule to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect, with such Variations, if any, not repugnant to the Provisions of this Act, as the Lessor thinks fit. Form of Leases referring to Deed enrolled.
- XVII. Where any such Lease so referring to any such Deed enrolled is granted, the Lease shall be construed and have the same Effect as if such of the Liberties, Easements, Reservations, Covenants, Powers, or Provisions expressed in the Deed enrolled as are referred to by the Lease were contained in the Lease. Effect of Leases referring to Deed enrolled.
- XVIII. Provided always, That this Act shall not prejudice any of the Powers of leasing now affecting the Hereditaments subject to the recited Limitations of Sir John Ramsden's Will and the late Settlement respectively, or any Parts thereof. Saving existing Powers.
- XIX. Saving always to the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, and to every other Person and Body Politic and Corporate, General Saving.

Corporate,

Ramsden's Estate (Leasing) Act, 1859.

Corporate, and their respective Heirs, Successors, Executors, and Administrators, (other than and except the several Persons who are by this Act expressly excepted out of this General Saving,) all such Estate, Right, Title, Interest, Claim, and Demand whatsoever of, in, to, or out of the Huddersfield Estate, or any Part thereof, as they or any of them had before the passing of this Act, or would, could, or might have or enjoy if this Act were not passed.

Persons excepted from General Saving and accordingly bound by this Act.

XX. Provided always, That the following Persons are expressly excepted out of the General Saving in this Act contained, and they accordingly are the only Persons bound by this Act; to wit, the Honourable Isabella Ramsden, and William Thomas Spencer Earl Fitzwilliam, and George Wentworth Fitzwilliam, and George John Serjeantson, and Edward William Harvey Lord Hawke, and George Lane Fox the Son, and Sir John William Ramsden, and the First and other Sons of Sir John William Ramsden and the Heirs Male of their respective Bodies, and Henry James Ramsden, and John Charles Francis Ramsden, and the First and other Sons of John Charles Francis Ramsden and the Heirs Male of their respective Bodies, and Henry James Ramsden the younger, and the First and other Sons of Henry James Ramsden the younger and the Heirs Male of their respective Bodies, and William John Freschville Ramsden and the Heirs Male of his Body, and the Fourth and every other younger Son of Henry James Ramsden and the Heirs Male of their respective Bodies, and Charles Ramsden, and the First and other Sons of Charles Ramsden and the Heirs Male of their respective Bodies, and Louisa Mary Isabella the Wife of Lord George Quin, and the First and other Sons of Louisa Mary Isabella Quin and the Heirs Male of their respective Bodies, and Charles William Paulet, and the First and other Sons of Charles William Paulet and the Heirs Male of their respective Bodies, and Cecil Henry Paulet and the Heirs Male of his Body, and Gamel Augustus Lord Muncaster, and the First and other Sons of Gamel Augustus Lord Muncaster and the Heirs Male of their respective Bodies, and Josslyn Francis de Pennington, and the First and other Sons of Josslyn Francis de Pennington and the Heirs Male of their respective Bodies, and Alan Joseph de Pennington, and the First and other Sons of Alan Joseph de Pennington and the Heirs Male of their respective Bodies, and Sir John William Ramsden and the Heirs of his Body, and all and every other Person and Persons claiming or to claim at Law or in Equity under or by virtue of Sir John Ramsden's Will and the late Settlement and the recited Acts, or any of them respectively, subsequently to the Estate limited to Sir John William Ramsden and the Heirs of his Body, and all and every other Persons and Person on or to whom any Estate, Right, Title, Interest, Claim, or Demand at Law or in Equity of, in, to, or out of the Huddersfield Estate, or any Part thereof, hath been devised or limited, or hath descended or devolved, or shall descend or devolve, under or by virtue of Sir John Ramsden's Will and the

the late Settlement, and the recited Acts respectively, and the respective Heirs, Executors, and Administrators of the several Persons so respectively bound by this Act.

XXI. And whereas the said Charles William Paulet is at present abroad, and his Consent to this Act hath not been proved: Therefore this Act, or anything therein contained, shall not be of any Effect as against the said Charles William Paulet, or his First or other Sons, or the Heirs Males of their respective Bodies, unless and until the Consent of the said Charles William Paulet on behalf of himself and also (if any such he shall have at the Time of giving such Consent) of his Infant Sons, or, in case of his Death leaving Infant Sons without having given such Consent, the Consent of their Guardian for the Time being on their Behalf, shall be signified in Writing under his Hand, and attested by at least One Witness, and shall be enrolled in Her Majesty's High Court of Chancery within Three Years from the passing of this Act; and every such Consent, when enrolled, shall be deemed Part of this Act, and shall be as binding and conclusive upon the Person or Persons by whom and on whose Behalf the same shall be given, and all Persons claiming or to claim by, from, through, or under him or them respectively, as if such Consent had been obtained and proved before the passing of this Act; and every such Consent may be in the Form or to the Effect following; (to wit,)

‘ I [here insert the Names of the consenting Party], on behalf of [here state whether the consenting Party consents only on his own Behalf, or only on behalf of others, or both on his own Behalf and on behalf of others,] do hereby consent to “Ramsden's Estate (Leasing) Act, 1859.”’

XXII. This Act shall not be a Public Act, but shall be printed by the several Printers to the Queen's most Excellent Majesty duly authorized to print the Statutes of the United Kingdom, and a Copy thereof so printed by any of them shall be admitted as Evidence thereof by all Judges, Justices, and others.

Provision for future Consent of C.W. Paulet.

Act as printed by Queen's Printers to be Evidence.
