naird, as the Trustees of the said Will and Codicils, are now in possession or receipt of the Rents and Profits of the said Savile York Estates: And whereas no Settlement has yet been made of the Estates devised by the said Will and Codicils, or any Part thereof: And whereas, subject to the Trusts remaining to be performed under the said Will and Codicils as to the said Savile York Estates, and the Rents and Profits thereof, the said Henry Savile is entitled to the Possession or Receipt of the Rents and Profits of the said Savile York Estates: And whereas the Particulars of the said Savile York Estates, including such Acquisitions thereto as aforesaid, are specified in the Schedule to this Act annexed: And whereas the said Estates called the Savile York Estates are situate in the West Riding of the County of York, and in the great Manufacturing Districts thereof, and the same comprise extensive Moors and Wastes contiguous to Manufacturing Towns and Villages, where the Demand for Building Land is very considerable, and abound in Mines and Seams of Coal and Iron and other Mineral Products, and Quarries of Stone, and also comprise Land and Streams of Water well calculated for the Sites and working of Mills and Factories, and Land well calculated for the Sites of Dwelling Houses and other Buildings, very considerable Part of which Lands are eligible, or may become eligible, to be built upon by reason of the great Increase of the Trade and Manufacture of those Parts of the Country, and the consequent Increase of the Population: And whereas the said Savile York Estates would be greatly improved in Value if suitable Parts thereof were let for the Sites of Buildings or other Improvements: And whereas Portions of the said Estates are situate in that Part of the said County of York where it is the Custom to let for long Terms, such as Nine hundred and ninety-nine Years and upwards, and in that Part of the County Tenants cannot be found who will take Land for Building or Improving Purposes for so short a Term as Ninety-nine Years: And whereas some of the Messuages and Buildings specified in the said Schedule have been built by Persons being Tenants from Year to Year at their own Expense, without their having any Lease or Agreement for a Lease thereof, but in the just Expectation of not being disturbed in their Possession, and such Persons or some of them so being Tenants from Year to Year have paid and now pay Ground Rents in respect of such their Holdings, and it is expedient and just that Provision should be made for the granting of Leases of the Holdings, or some of them, or Parts thereof, on long Terms of Years, and on proper Terms and Conditions, having regard to the Circumstances of the Case: And whereas the Power of granting Building Leases contained in the Testator's said Will, being limited to such Term of Ninety-nine Years, such Power cannot be acted on with respect to a large Portion of the said Estates: And whereas the said Savile York Estates are of great Extent, and differently circumstanced as to different Parts thereof, and such Parts thereof as are or
