

THIRD SCHEDULE

FURTHER PROVISIONS AFFECTING TRANSFERS MADE BY VIRTUE OF, OR IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THESE RULES

3.—(1) Without prejudice to the generality of the provisions of Rules 12 and 13, every transferor, and every person who is responsible for keeping any register or book in which there is registered or inscribed any asset transferred by virtue of, or in accordance with, these Rules, shall do all such things as are necessary, or as the transferee may direct, to be done for the purpose of securing the due registration or inscription of the title of the transferee to that asset and the delivery to the transferee of any document constituting evidence of the said registration or inscription.

(2) The duty imposed on any transferor or other person by the preceding sub-paragraph of this paragraph in relation to any asset shall include a duty to do all such things as are within his power to secure that any dividend or interest payable in respect of that asset on or after the appointed day will be paid to the transferee.

(3) A certificate that any specified asset is an asset which has been transferred to the transferee by virtue of, or in accordance with, these Rules shall, if it is signed by the Minister or on behalf of the Minister by any person authorised for that purpose by him, be treated by any person responsible or concerned as aforesaid as evidence that that asset has been so transferred.
