The Agricultural Wages Committees Regulations 1949

PART I

Constitution and Proceedings of Agricultural Wages Committees

10. Every member of a Committee or sub-committee shall have one vote. If at any meeting of a Committee or sub-committee the number of representative members present representing employers and workers respectively is unequal, the chairman or other person presiding shall require the side which is in the majority to arrange that one or more of their members shall refrain from voting, so as to preserve equality.
