1951 No. 2145

The Superannuation (Local Government Staffs)
(National Service) (Amendment) Rules 1951

2. In rule 1, in paragraph 2 thereof—

(a) in the definition of “national service” there shall be inserted after the words “the Superannuation (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1948” the words “as amended by section 41 of the Reserve and Auxiliary Forces (Protection of Civil Interests) Act, 1951, or service of a description specified in the First Schedule to that Act other than compulsory national service as in that Act defined”, and the word “compulsory” where it last occurs shall be deleted; and

(b) the following definition shall be added:—

“‘national service pay’, in relation to the remuneration to which any person would have been entitled if he had continued in any former employment during the period of his national service, means his pay (including marriage, family and other similar allowances) in respect of his national service or, in the case of a person who immediately before he entered upon national service was employed not only in that employment but also in any other employment or employments in relation to which it is necessary to ascertain his pay in respect of his national service, an amount which bears the same proportion to his pay (including marriage, family and other similar allowances) in respect of his national service as the remuneration to which he would have been entitled if he had continued in the first mentioned employment bears to the total remuneration to which he would have been entitled if he had continued in both or all such employments as aforesaid.”
