

SCHEDULE

PART VI

Resettlement payments for loss of office

34. The amount of the resettlement payment to a whole-time officer to whom this Part of this Schedule applies shall be a sum which when added to—

- (a) two-thirds of any remuneration the officer is receiving for any office during the period in respect of which resettlement payments are payable; together with
- (b) where he is, or would if he made a claim thereto be, entitled to draw unemployment or sickness benefits under the National Insurance Acts, 1946 to 1953, the sum which would be so payable in respect of a person having no dependants, is equal to two-thirds of the net emoluments of the office he has lost.
