

SCHEDULE

PART II

Compensation for loss of office

9. For the purpose of determining whether any compensation under this Part of this Schedule should be awarded to a claimant for loss of office and, if so, the amount of the compensation, the determining authority shall have regard to—

- (a) the conditions upon which he held his office, including in particular its security of tenure, whether by law or by practice;
- (b) the conditions, including security of tenure whether by law or by practice, of any other office to which he may have been appointed in place of the office he has lost; and
- (c) all the other circumstances of his case.
