The Evidence (New Zealand) Order 1959

3. Subject to any requirements of rules of court, a document which purports to be issued in New Zealand as an official copy of an entry in any such register as aforesaid and which purports to be authenticated in the manner specified in the Schedule to this Order shall, without evidence as to the custody of the register or of inability to produce it and without any further or other proof, be received as evidence that the register contains such an entry.
