(2) These Rules shall not have effect so as to authorise an increase in an annual superannuation allowance or pension so far as the allowance or pension is payable in respect of a period before the twenty-first day of November, nineteen hundred and fifty-seven.

2. The Interpretation Act, 1889(c), shall apply for the interpretation of these Rules as it applies for the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Rules, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Rules relate to members of the staff of certain hostels provided for workers at Government establishments. The hostels were formerly administered, and the staff were employed, by certain bodies which received grants out of monies provided by Parliament. On certain dates in 1954 and 1955 the administration of the hostels was taken over by the Ministry of Supply, and members of the staff were taken into the Civil Service as officers of that Ministry.

The Rules provide for these persons' service (after the age of 18) with the bodies which formerly administered the hostels to be reckoned as unestablished service for the purposes of the Superannuation Acts.
