

1966 No. 1595

SOUTHERN RHODESIA
The Southern Rhodesia (Prohibited Trade and Dealings) Order 1966

Made - - - - - 21st December 1966
Laid before Parliament 22nd December 1966
Coming into Operation 23rd December 1966

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 21st day of December 1966

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers conferred on Her by section 2 of the Southern Rhodesia Act 1965(a), is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

Importation of certain goods into the United Kingdom

1.—(1) All goods to which this Article applies that are exported from Southern Rhodesia after the commencement of this Order are prohibited to be imported into the United Kingdom.

(2) This Article shall have effect for the purposes of the Customs and Excise Act 1952(b) as an enactment relating to customs and as an enactment with respect to the importation of goods, and the provisions of that Act shall apply accordingly.

(3) The goods to which this Article applies are the goods specified in Schedule 1 to this Order.

(4) Nothing in this Article shall be construed so as to prejudice any other provision of law prohibiting or restricting the importation of goods into the United Kingdom.

Exportation of certain goods from Southern Rhodesia

2.—(1) No person shall export from Southern Rhodesia any goods to which Article 1 of this Order applies.

(2) No person shall—

(a) make or carry out any contract for the exportation from Southern Rhodesia after the commencement of this Order of any goods to which Article 1 of this Order applies ; or

(b) make or carry out any contract for the sale of any such goods which he intends or has reason to believe that another person intends to export from Southern Rhodesia after the commencement of this Order ; or

(c) do any act calculated to promote the exportation from Southern Rhodesia of any such goods.

(a) 1965 c. 76.

(b) 1952 c. 44.

(3) No person shall deal in any goods to which Article 1 of this Order applies that have been exported from Southern Rhodesia in contravention of paragraph (1) of this Article, that is to say, shall, by way of trade or otherwise for gain, acquire or dispose of such goods or of any property or interest in them or any right to or charge upon them or process them or do any act calculated to promote any such acquisition, disposal or processing by himself or any other person.

(4) Without prejudice to any other provision of this Order—

(a) any such contract as is referred to in sub-paragraph (a) or sub-paragraph (b) of paragraph (2) of this Article, whether made before or after the commencement of this Order ; and

(b) any transfer made, after the commencement of this Order and in pursuance of any such contract, of any property or interest in or any right to or charge upon any goods to which Article 1 of this Order applies

shall be absolutely void :

Provided that no money paid after the commencement of this Order in pursuance of any such contract shall be recoverable in any court of law.

(5) No person shall carry out any of the following transactions, that is to say :—

(a) make any payment to or for the credit of a person resident in Southern Rhodesia ; or

(b) make any payment to or for the credit of a person resident outside Southern Rhodesia by order of or on behalf of a person resident in Southern Rhodesia ; or

(c) place any sum to the credit of a person resident in Southern Rhodesia ; or

(d) make any payment to or for the credit of a person resident outside Southern Rhodesia as consideration for or in association with—

(i) the receipt by any person of a payment made in Southern Rhodesia or the acquisition by any person of any property or thing which is in Southern Rhodesia ; or

(ii) the transfer to any person, or the creation in favour of any person, of a right (whether present or future and whether vested or contingent) to receive a payment in Southern Rhodesia or to acquire any property or thing which is in Southern Rhodesia, if that transaction is carried out for the purposes of any act that is forbidden by any of the provisions of this Article.

(6) Any person who contravenes the foregoing provisions of this Article shall be guilty of an offence against this Order and, in the case of a person who—

(a) is a citizen of the United Kingdom and Colonies or a British subject without citizenship or a British protected person and is ordinarily resident in the United Kingdom ; or

(b) is a citizen of Southern Rhodesia ; or

(c) is a body incorporated or constituted under the law of the United Kingdom or the law of Southern Rhodesia,

shall be guilty of such an offence wherever the contravention takes place.

(7) Nothing in this Article shall be construed so as to prejudice any other provision of law prohibiting or restricting the exportation of goods from Southern Rhodesia or acts incidental or related thereto or prohibiting or restricting payments to or for the credit of or connected with persons resident in Southern Rhodesia.

Exportation of certain goods from the United Kingdom

3.—(1) All goods to which this Article applies are prohibited to be exported to Southern Rhodesia.

(2) This Article shall have effect for the purposes of the Customs and Excise Act 1952 as an enactment relating to customs and as an enactment with respect to the exportation of goods, and the provisions of that Act shall apply accordingly.

(3) The goods to which this Article applies are the goods specified in Schedule 2 to this Order.

(4) Nothing in this Article shall be construed so as to prejudice any other provision of law prohibiting or restricting the exportation of goods from the United Kingdom.

Supply of certain goods to Southern Rhodesia

4.—(1) No person shall—

- (a) supply or deliver or agree to supply or deliver to or to the order of any person in Southern Rhodesia any goods to which this Article applies that are not in that country ;
- (b) supply or deliver or agree to supply or deliver any such goods to any person knowing or having reasonable cause to believe that they will be supplied or delivered to or to the order of a person in Southern Rhodesia ; or
- (c) do any act calculated to promote the supply or delivery of any such goods in contravention of the foregoing provisions of this paragraph.

(2) Any person who contravenes the foregoing provisions of this Article shall be guilty of an offence against this Order and, in the case of a person who—

- (a) is a citizen of the United Kingdom and Colonies or a British subject without citizenship or a British protected person and is ordinarily resident in the United Kingdom ; or
- (b) is a citizen of Southern Rhodesia ; or
- (c) is a body incorporated or constituted under the law of the United Kingdom or the law of Southern Rhodesia shall be guilty of an offence wherever the contravention takes place.

(3) The goods to which this Article applies are the goods specified in Schedule 2 to this Order.

Importation of certain goods into Southern Rhodesia

5.—(1) No person shall import into Southern Rhodesia any goods to which this Article applies.

- (2) No citizen of Southern Rhodesia or person in Southern Rhodesia shall—
 - (a) accept delivery outside Southern Rhodesia of any such goods which he intends to import or has reason to believe that another person intends to import into Southern Rhodesia ; or
 - (b) make or carry out any contract providing for such importation or delivery.

(3) Any person who contravenes the foregoing provisions of this Article shall be guilty of an offence against this Order.

(4) The goods to which this Article applies are the goods specified in Schedule 2 to this Order.

Manufacture or assembly in Southern Rhodesia of aircraft or motor vehicles6.—(1) No person shall—

- (a) operate or use any undertaking in Southern Rhodesia, whether established before or after the commencement of this Order, as an undertaking to which this Article applies ; or
- (b) authorise any undertaking in Southern Rhodesia to be operated or used by any other person as an undertaking to which this Article applies or give his consent to or connive in or by his neglect contribute to such operation or use.

(2) No person shall—

- (a) establish in Southern Rhodesia any undertaking to which this Article applies ; or
- (b) convert any undertaking in Southern Rhodesia into an undertaking to which this Article applies ; or
- (c) dispose (whether absolutely or for any lesser interest) of any undertaking in Southern Rhodesia to any other person if he knows or has reasonable cause to believe that that other person intends to use it as an undertaking to which this Article applies ; or
- (d) acquire (whether absolutely or for any lesser interest) any undertaking in Southern Rhodesia with the intention of using it as an undertaking to which this Article applies ; or
- (e) except with the consent of the Secretary of State, dispose (whether absolutely or for any lesser interest) of any property or assets of or forming part of any undertaking in Southern Rhodesia to which this Article applies to any other person otherwise than in the ordinary course of the business of that undertaking or acquire any such property or assets disposed of as aforesaid.

(3) No person shall—

- (a) make or carry out any contract for any of the following transactions, that is to say:—
 - (i) the use or operation of any undertaking or the authorisation of, or the giving of consent to, the use or operation of any undertaking ; or
 - (ii) the establishment, conversion, disposal or acquisition of any undertaking ; or
 - (iii) the disposal or acquisition of the property or assets of or forming part of any undertaking,if that transaction would be in contravention of the foregoing provisions of this Article ; or

- (b) do any other act calculated to promote any such transaction.

(4) Without prejudice to any other provision of this Order—

- (a) any such contract as is referred to in sub-paragraph (a) of paragraph (3) of this Article, whether made before or after the commencement of this Order ; and

- (b) any transfer made, after the commencement of this Order and in pursuance of any such contract, of any property or interest in or any right to or charge upon any undertaking to which this Article applies or any property or assets of or forming part of any such undertaking

shall be absolutely void:

Provided that no money paid after the commencement of this Order in pursuance of any such contract shall be recoverable in any court of law.

(5) The undertakings to which this Article applies are undertakings for the manufacture or assembly of aircraft or motor vehicles.

(6) Any person who contravenes the foregoing provisions of this Article shall be guilty of an offence against this Order and, in the case of a person who—

(a) is a citizen of the United Kingdom and Colonies or a British subject without citizenship or a British protected person and is ordinarily resident in the United Kingdom ; or

(b) is a citizen of Southern Rhodesia ; or

(c) is a body incorporated or constituted under the law of the United Kingdom or the law of Southern Rhodesia,

shall be guilty of such an offence wherever the contravention takes place.

Carriage of certain goods exported from or destined for Southern Rhodesia

7.—(1) Without prejudice to the generality of Article 2 of this Order, no British ship and no aircraft, being a ship or aircraft to which this Article applies, shall be used for the carriage of any goods to which Article 1 of this Order applies if those goods are being or have been exported from Southern Rhodesia in contravention of Article 2(1) of this Order.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of Articles 3, 4 and 5 of this Order, no British ship and no aircraft, being a ship or aircraft to which this Article applies, shall be used for the carriage of any goods to which Article 3 or Article 4 or Article 5 of this Order applies if the carriage is, or forms part of, carriage from any place outside Southern Rhodesia to any destination therein.

(3) If any ship or aircraft is used in contravention of paragraph (1) of this Article—

(a) the owner and the master of the ship ; or

(b) the operator and the commander of the aircraft,

as the case may be, shall be guilty of an offence against this Order unless he proves that he did not know and had no reason to suppose that the goods were being or had been exported from Southern Rhodesia in contravention of Article 2(1) of this Order.

(4) If any ship or aircraft is used in contravention of paragraph (2) of this Article—

(a) the owner and the master of the ship ; or

(b) the operator and the commander of the aircraft,

as the case may be, shall be guilty of an offence against this Order unless he proves that he did not know and had no reason to suppose—

(i) that the carriage of the goods in question was, or formed part of, carriage from any place outside Southern Rhodesia to any destination therein ; or

(ii) that the goods in question were goods to which Article 3 or Article 4 or Article 5 of this Order applies.

(5) This Article applies to British ships registered in the United Kingdom or any other country or place to which the Southern Rhodesia Act 1965 extends and to aircraft so registered.

(6) Nothing in this Article shall be construed so as to prejudice any other provision of law prohibiting or restricting the use of ships or aircraft.

Investigation, etc. of suspected British ships and aircraft

8.—(1) Where any authorised officer, that is to say, any such officer as is referred to in section 692(1) of the Merchant Shipping Act 1894(a), has reason to suspect that any British ship registered in the United Kingdom or any other country or place to which the Southern Rhodesia Act 1965 extends has been or is being or is about to be used in contravention of paragraph (1) or paragraph (2) of Article 7 of this Order or in contravention of Article 2(1) of the Southern Rhodesia (Petroleum) Order 1965(b), he may (either alone or accompanied and assisted by persons under his authority) board the ship and search her and, for that purpose, may use or authorise the use of reasonable force, and he may request the master of the ship to furnish such information relating to the ship and her cargo and produce for his inspection such documents so relating and such cargo as he may specify; and an authorised officer (either there and then or upon consideration of any information furnished or document or cargo produced in pursuance of such a request) may, in the case of a ship that is reasonably suspected of being or of being about to be used in contravention of Article 7(2) of this Order or in contravention of Article 2(1) of the Southern Rhodesia (Petroleum) Order 1965, exercise the following further powers with a view to the prevention of the commission (or the continued commission) of any such contravention or in order that enquiries into the matter may be pursued, that is to say, he may either direct the master to refrain, except with the consent of an authorised officer, from landing at any port specified by the officer any part of the ship's cargo that is so specified or request the master to take any one or more of the following steps:—

- (a) to cause the ship not to proceed with the voyage on which she is then engaged or about to engage until the master is notified by any authorised officer that the ship may so proceed;
- (b) if the ship is then in a port in the United Kingdom or any other country or place to which the Southern Rhodesia Act 1965 extends, to cause her to remain there until the master is notified by any authorised officer that the ship may depart;
- (c) if the ship is then in any other place, to take her to any such port specified by the officer and to cause her to remain there until the master is notified as mentioned in sub-paragraph (b) of this paragraph; and
- (d) to take her to any other destination that may be specified by the officer in agreement with the master; and the master shall comply with any such request or direction.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions of paragraph (8) of this Article, where a master refuses or fails to comply with a request made under this Article that his ship shall or shall not proceed to or from any place or where an authorised officer otherwise has reason to suspect that such a request that has been so made may not be complied with, any such officer may take such steps as appear to him to be necessary to secure compliance with that request and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, may for that purpose enter upon, or authorise entry upon, that ship and use, or authorise the use of, reasonable force.

(3) Where the Board of Trade or any person authorised by them for that purpose either generally or in a particular case or any officer of customs and excise has reason to suspect that any aircraft registered in the United Kingdom

(a) 1894 c. 60.

(b) S.I. 1965/2140 (1965 III, p. 6287).

or any other country or place to which the Southern Rhodesia Act 1965 extends has been or is being or is about to be used in contravention of paragraph (1) or paragraph (2) of Article 7 of this Order or in contravention of Article 2(1) of the Southern Rhodesia (Petroleum) Order 1965, the Board or that authorised person or that officer may request the operator and the commander of the aircraft or either of them to furnish such information relating to the aircraft and its cargo and produce for their or his inspection such documents so relating and such cargo as they or he may specify, and that authorised person or that officer may (either alone or accompanied and assisted by persons under his authority) board the aircraft and search it and, for that purpose, may use or authorise the use of reasonable force; and, if the aircraft is then in the United Kingdom, the Board or any such authorised person or any such officer (either there and then or upon consideration of any information furnished or document or cargo produced in pursuance of such a request) may further request the operator and the commander or either of them to cause the aircraft to remain in the United Kingdom until notified that the aircraft may depart; and the operator and the commander shall comply with any such request.

(4) Without prejudice to the provisions of paragraph (8) of this Article, where the Board of Trade or any person authorised by them as aforesaid or any such officer as aforesaid has reason to suspect that any request that an aircraft should remain in the United Kingdom that has been made under paragraph (3) of this Article may not be complied with, the Board or that authorised person or that officer may take such steps as appear to them or him to be necessary to secure compliance with that request and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, may for that purpose—

- (a) enter, or authorise entry, upon any land and upon that aircraft;
- (b) detain, or authorise the detention of, that aircraft; and
- (c) use, or authorise the use of, reasonable force.

(5) A person authorised by or under the authority of the Board of Trade to exercise any power for the purposes of paragraph (3) or paragraph (4) of this Article shall, if requested to do so, produce evidence of his authority before exercising that power.

(6) No information furnished or document produced by any person in pursuance of a request made under this Article shall be disclosed except—

- (a) with the consent of the person by whom the information was furnished or the document was produced:

Provided that a person who has obtained information or is in possession of a document only in his capacity as servant or agent of another person may not give consent for the purposes of this subparagraph but such consent may instead be given by any person who is entitled to that information or to the possession of that document in his own right; or

- (b) to any person who would have been empowered under this Article to request that it be furnished or produced or to any person holding or acting in any office under or in the service of the Crown in respect of the Government of the United Kingdom or under or in the service of the Government of any other country or place to which the Southern Rhodesia Act 1965 extends; or
- (c) with a view to the institution of, or otherwise for the purposes of, any proceedings for an offence against this Order or for a contravention of Article 2(1) of the Southern Rhodesia (Petroleum) Order 1965 or, with respect to any of the matters regulated by this Order, for an offence against any enactment relating to customs or for an offence against any provision of law with respect to similar matters that is for the time being in force in any country or place to which the Southern Rhodesia Act 1965 extends.

(7) Any power conferred by this Article to request the furnishing of information or the production of a document or of cargo for inspection shall include a power to specify whether the information should be furnished orally or in writing and in what form and to specify the time by which and the place in which the information should be furnished or the document or cargo produced for inspection.

(8) The following persons shall be guilty of an offence against this Order, that is to say:—

- (a) a master of a ship who disobeys any direction given under paragraph (1) of this Article with respect to the landing of any cargo ; or
- (b) a master of a ship or an operator or a commander of an aircraft who, without reasonable excuse, refuses or fails within a reasonable time to comply with any request made under this Article by any person empowered to make it or who wilfully furnishes false information or produces false documents to such a person in response to such a request ; or
- (c) a master or a member of the crew of a ship or an operator or a commander or a member of the crew of an aircraft who wilfully obstructs any such person (or any person acting under the authority of any such person) in the exercise of his powers under this Article.

(9) Nothing in this Article shall be construed so as to prejudice any other provision of law conferring powers or imposing restrictions or enabling restrictions to be imposed with respect to ships or aircraft.

Obtaining of evidence and information

9. The provisions of Schedule 3 to this Order shall have effect in order to facilitate the obtaining, by or on behalf of the Treasury or the Board of Trade or the Commissioners of Customs and Excise, of evidence and information for the purpose of securing compliance with or detecting evasion of this Order or Article 2(1) of the Southern Rhodesia (Petroleum) Order 1965 and in order to facilitate the obtaining, by or on behalf of the Treasury or the Board of Trade or the Commissioners of Customs and Excise, of evidence of the commission of an offence against this Order or of a contravention of the said Article 2(1) or, with respect to any of the matters regulated by this Order, of an offence relating to customs.

Penalties and proceedings

10.—(1) Any person guilty of an offence against this Order shall be liable—

- (a) on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to a fine or to both ; or
- (b) on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding £500 or to both.

(2) Where any body corporate is guilty of an offence under this Order and that offence is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body corporate or any person who was purporting to act in any such capacity, he, as well as the body corporate, shall be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(3) Summary proceedings for an offence against this Order, being an offence alleged to have been committed outside the United Kingdom, may be commenced at any time not later than twelve months from the date on which the person charged first enters the United Kingdom after committing the offence.

(4) Proceedings for an offence against this Order may be taken, and the offence may for all incidental purposes be treated as having been committed, in any place in the United Kingdom where any person charged with that offence is for the time being.

(5) Proceedings for an offence against this Order shall not be instituted except by, or with the consent of, the Treasury or the Board of Trade or, in England or Wales, the Director of Public Prosecutions or, in Northern Ireland, the Attorney-General for Northern Ireland:

Provided that this paragraph shall not prevent the arrest, or the issue or execution of a warrant for the arrest, of any person in respect of such an offence, or the remanding, in custody or on bail, of any person charged with such an offence, notwithstanding that the necessary consent to the institution of proceedings for the offence has not been obtained.

Exercise of powers of Treasury and Board of Trade

11.—(1) The Treasury may, to such extent and subject to such restrictions and conditions as they may think proper, delegate or authorise the delegation of any of their powers under Schedule 3 to this Order (other than the power to give authority to apply for a search warrant) to any person, or class or description of persons, approved by them, and references in that Schedule to the Treasury shall be construed accordingly.

(2) Anything required or authorised by or under this Order to be done by or to the Board of Trade may be done by or to the President of the Board, any Minister of State with duties concerning the affairs of the Board, or any secretary, under-secretary, or assistant secretary of the Board.

Interpretation

12.—(1) In this Order the following expressions have the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them, that is to say:—

“commander”, in relation to an aircraft, means the person designated as commander of the aircraft by the operator thereof, and includes any person who is for the time being in charge or command of the aircraft;

“master”, in relation to a ship, includes any person (other than a pilot) for the time being in charge of the ship;

“operator”, in relation to an aircraft, means the person for the time being having the management of the aircraft;

“owner”, in relation to a ship, includes any person for the time being having the management of the ship and any person to whom it is chartered; and

“person in Southern Rhodesia” includes any body constituted or incorporated under the law of Southern Rhodesia and any body carrying on business (whether within Southern Rhodesia or not) which is controlled by persons or bodies resident in Southern Rhodesia or constituted or incorporated as aforesaid.

(2) Any provision of this Order which relates to goods exported from Southern Rhodesia (or to the exportation of goods from Southern Rhodesia) shall not have effect in respect of goods exported (or the exportation of goods) which have only passed through Southern Rhodesia in transit and have not there been the subject of any transaction other than a transaction relating solely to their transportation.

(3) Any provision of this Order which relates to the exportation of goods to Southern Rhodesia, the supply or delivery of goods to or to the order of any person in Southern Rhodesia or the importation of goods into Southern Rhodesia shall not have effect in relation to goods which are so exported, supplied, delivered or imported, as the case may be, for the purposes of the Central African Power Corporation, Rhodesia Railways or the Central African Airways Corporation.

(4) For the purpose of this Order, the entry into Southern Rhodesia of an aircraft or a motor vehicle shall not be regarded as constituting the supply or delivery of that aircraft or vehicle to or to the order of any person in Southern Rhodesia or as constituting its importation into Southern Rhodesia if the entry is merely for the purpose of the aircraft or vehicle transporting persons or goods into, out of or across Southern Rhodesia and is not part of or associated with a transaction involving a transfer of the ownership of the aircraft or vehicle or of any interest therein.

(5) For the purposes of Article 2(5) of this Order, a personal representative of a deceased person shall, unless the Treasury otherwise direct, be treated as resident in the territory where the deceased person was resident for the purposes in question at the time of his death and as not resident elsewhere, so far as relates to any matters in which the personal representative is concerned solely in his capacity as such.

(6) The Treasury may give directions declaring that for all or any of the purposes of Article 2(5) of this Order a person is to be treated as resident or not resident in Southern Rhodesia.

(7) Any directions given by the Treasury for the purposes of paragraph (5) or paragraph (6) of this Article may be either general or special and may be revoked or varied by subsequent such directions.

(8) The Interpretation Act 1889(a) shall apply to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

Citation, commencement and extent

13.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Southern Rhodesia (Prohibited Trade and Dealings) Order 1966 and shall come into operation on 23rd December 1966.

(2) Articles 2 (other than paragraph (5) thereof), 4, 5, 6 and 7 of this Order, and Articles 10 and 12 so far as applicable thereto, shall extend to Southern Rhodesia and for that purpose the references in Article 10 to the United Kingdom shall be construed as references to Southern Rhodesia.

SCHEDULE 3Article 9*EVIDENCE AND INFORMATION

1.—(1) Without prejudice to any other provision of this Order, or any provision of any other law, the Treasury or the Board of Trade (or any person authorised by them for that purpose either generally or in a particular case) or the Commissioners of Customs and Excise may request any person in or resident in the United Kingdom to furnish to them (or to that authorised person) any information in his possession or control, or to produce to them (or to that authorised person) any document in his possession or control, which they (or that authorised person) may require for the purpose of securing compliance with or detecting evasion of this Order or Article 2(1) of the Southern Rhodesia (Petroleum) Order 1965 ; and any person to whom such a request is made shall comply with it within such time and in such manner as may be specified in the request.

(2) Nothing in the foregoing sub-paragraph shall be taken to require any person who has acted as counsel or solicitor for any person to disclose any privileged communication made to him in that capacity.

(3) Where a person is convicted on indictment for failing to furnish information or produce a document when requested so to do under this paragraph, the court may make an order requiring him, within such period as may be specified in the order, to furnish the information or produce the document.

(4) The power conferred by this paragraph to request any person to produce documents shall include power to take copies of or extracts from any document so produced and to request that person, or, where that person is a body corporate, any other person who is a present or past officer of, or is employed by, the body corporate, to provide an explanation of any of them.

2.—(1) If any justice of the peace is satisfied by information on oath given by a person authorised by the Treasury or the Board of Trade or the Commissioners of Customs and Excise to act for the purposes of this paragraph either generally or in a particular case—

(a) that there is reasonable ground for suspecting that an offence against this Order or a contravention of Article 2(1) of the Southern Rhodesia (Petroleum) Order 1965 or, with respect to any of the matters regulated by this Order, an offence against any enactment relating to customs has been or is being committed and that evidence of the commission of the offence or contravention is to be found on any premises specified in the information, or in any vehicle, vessel or aircraft so specified ; or

(b) that any documents which ought to have been produced under paragraph 1 of this Schedule and have not been produced are to be found on any such premises or in any such vehicle, vessel or aircraft, he may grant a search warrant authorising any constable, together with any other persons named in the warrant and any other constables, to enter the premises specified in the information or, as the case may be, any premises upon which the vehicle, vessel or aircraft so specified may be, at any time within one month from the date of the warrant and to search the premises, or, as the case may be, the vehicle, vessel or aircraft.

(2) A person authorised by any such warrant as aforesaid to search any premises or any vehicle, vessel or aircraft may search every person who is found in, or whom he has reasonable ground to believe to have recently left or to be about to enter, those premises or that vehicle, vessel or aircraft and may seize any document or article found on the premises or in the vehicle, vessel or aircraft or on such person which he has reasonable ground to believe to be evidence of the commission of any such offence or contravention as aforesaid or any documents which he has reasonable ground to believe ought to have been produced under paragraph 1 of this Schedule or to take in relation to any such article or document any other steps which may appear necessary for preserving it and preventing interference with it :

Provided that no female shall, in pursuance of any warrant issued under this paragraph, be searched except by a female.

(3) Where, by virtue of this paragraph, a person is empowered to enter any premises, vehicle, vessel or aircraft he may use such force as is reasonably necessary for that purpose.

(4) Any documents or articles of which possession is taken under this paragraph may be retained for a period of three months or, if within that period there are commenced any proceedings for such an offence or contravention as aforesaid to which they are relevant, until the conclusion of those proceedings.

(5) In the application of this paragraph to Scotland any reference to a justice of the peace includes a reference to the sheriff.

3. A person authorised by the Treasury or the Board of Trade to exercise any power for the purposes of this Schedule shall, if requested to do so, produce evidence of his authority before exercising that power.

4. No information furnished or document produced (including any copy or extract made of any document produced) by any person in pursuance of a request made under this Schedule and no document seized under paragraph 2(2) of this Schedule shall be disclosed except—

(a) with the consent of the person by whom the information was furnished or the document was produced or the person from whom the document was seized:

Provided that a person who has obtained information or is in possession of a document only in his capacity as servant or agent of another person may not give consent for the purposes of this sub-paragraph but such consent may instead be given by any person who is entitled to that information or to the possession of that document in his own right; or

(b) to any person who would have been empowered under this Schedule to request that it be furnished or produced or to any person holding or acting in any office under or in the service of the Crown in respect of the Government of the United Kingdom or under or in the service of the Government of any other country or place to which the Southern Rhodesia Act 1965 extends; or

(c) with a view to the institution of, or otherwise for the purposes of, any proceedings for an offence against this Order or for a contravention of Article 2(1) of the Southern Rhodesia (Petroleum) Order 1965 or, with respect to any of the matters regulated by this Order, for an offence against any enactment relating to customs or for an offence against any provision of law with respect to similar matters that is for the time being in force in any country or place to which the Southern Rhodesia Act 1965 extends.

5. Any person who—

(a) without reasonable excuse, refuses or fails within the time and in the manner specified (or, if no time has been specified, within a reasonable time) to comply with any request made under this Schedule by any person who is empowered to make it; or

(b) wilfully furnishes false information or a false explanation or otherwise wilfully obstructs any person in the exercise of his powers under this Schedule; or

(c) with intent to evade the provisions of this Schedule, destroys, mutilates, defaces, secretes or removes any document, shall be guilty of an offence against this Order.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

This Order prohibits the importation into the United Kingdom of certain goods exported from Southern Rhodesia and the exportation from the United Kingdom of certain goods intended for Southern Rhodesia. It also prohibits, both as part of the law of the United Kingdom and, in some respects, as part of the law of Southern Rhodesia, the exportation from Southern Rhodesia of the former goods and the supply to Southern Rhodesia and the importation into Southern Rhodesia of the latter goods, as well as certain related activities and dealings, including the carriage of these goods in British ships or aircraft. The Order also imposes restrictions with respect to undertakings in Southern Rhodesia for the manufacture or assembly of aircraft or motor vehicles. It also makes provision for the investigation of ships and aircraft that are suspected of contravening this Order or of carrying petroleum destined for Southern Rhodesia in contravention of the Southern Rhodesia (Petroleum) Order 1965. It confers certain powers on the Treasury, the Board of Trade and the Commissioners of Customs and Excise to obtain evidence and information for the purposes of the Order.
