(b) S.I. 1966/428 (1966 I, p. 925).

- (l) "wool, jute and flax activities" has the meaning assigned to that expression in paragraph 3 of the Schedule to the industrial training order;
- (m) "wool, jute and flax establishment" means an establishment in Great Britain engaged wholly or mainly in wool, jute and flax activities for a total of 27 or more weeks in the second base period, or, being an establishment that commenced to carry on business in the said base period, for a total number of weeks exceeding one-half of the total number of weeks in the period commencing with the day on which business was commenced and ending on the last day of the said base period;
- (n) "the wool, jute and flax industry" means the activities specified in the Schedule to the industrial training order as the activities of the wool, jute and flax industry.

(2) A person employed at any time in the second base period at or from an establishment that is taken over (whether directly or indirectly) by an employer in succession to, or jointly with, another employer shall, during that time, be deemed for the purposes of this Order to have been in the employment of—

- (a) the person or persons carrying on the said establishment on the date upon which this Order comes into operation; or
- (b) if no person is carrying on the said establishment on the last mentioned date, by the person who last employed any person at or from the said establishment prior to that date.

(3) Any reference in this Order to an establishment that commences to carry on business or that ceases to carry on business shall not be taken to apply where the location of the establishment is changed but its business is continued wholly or mainly at or from the new location, or where the suspension of activities is of a temporary or seasonal nature.

(4) The Interpretation Act 1889(a) shall apply to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

Imposition of the Levy

3.—(1) The levy to be imposed by the Board on employers in respect of the second levy period shall be assessed and paid in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

(2) This Order shall apply to any person who, on the date upon which this Order comes into operation, is an employer or who at any time thereafter in the second levy period becomes an employer.

Assessment of the Levy

4.—(1) The levy shall be assessed by the Board separately in respect of each wool, jute and flax establishment of an employer, but in agreement with the employer a single assessment may be made in respect of any number of such establishments, in which case those establishments shall be deemed for the purposes of that assessment to constitute one establishment.

(2) Subject to the following provisions of this Article, the amount of the levy imposed in respect of a wool, jute and flax establishment shall be equal to 1.0 per cent. of the total emoluments of the persons employed by the employer at or from that establishment in the second base period and of any persons deemed to have been so employed under the provisions of Article 2 of this Order.

(3) In respect of any wool, jute and flax establishment described in the Schedule to this Order the amount of the levy shall be one-half of the amount determined in accordance with the foregoing paragraph.

(4) The amount of the levy imposed in respect of a wool, jute and flax establishment that ceases to carry on business in the second levy period shall be in the same proportion to the amount that would otherwise be due under paragraph (2) or (3) of this Article as the number of days between the commencement of the said levy period and the date of cessation of business (both dates inclusive) bears to the number of days in the said levy period.

(5) In reckoning the amount of total emoluments for the purposes of this Article no regard shall be had to the emoluments of any person engaged wholly in the supply of food or drink for immediate consumption.

Assessment Notice

5.—(1) The Board shall serve an assessment notice on every employer assessed to the levy, but a single notice may be served in respect of several assessments.

(2) The amount of any assessment payable under an assessment notice shall be rounded down to the nearest £1.

(3) An assessment notice shall state the address for the service of a notice of appeal or of an application for an extension of time for appealing.

(4) An assessment notice may be served on an employer either by delivering it to him personally or by leaving it, or sending it to him by post, at his last known address or place of business in the United Kingdom or, if the employer is a corporation, at such address or place of business or at its registered or principal office.

Payment of the Levy

6.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Article and of Articles 7 and 8 the amount of each assessment appearing in an assessment notice served by the Board shall be payable by the employer to the Board in two equal instalments, of which the first such instalment shall be due one month after the date of the notice and the other after three further months.

(2) An instalment of an assessment shall not be recoverable by the Board until there has expired the time allowed for appealing against the assessment by Article 8(1) of this Order and any further period or periods of time that the Board or an appeal tribunal may have allowed for appealing under paragraph (2) or (3) of that Article or, where an appeal is brought, until the appeal is decided or withdrawn.

Withdrawal of Assessment

7.—(1) The Board may, by notice served on the employer in the same manner as an assessment notice, withdraw an assessment if the employer has appealed against that assessment under the provisions of Article 8 of this Order and the appeal has not been decided or withdrawn.

(2) The withdrawal of an assessment shall be without prejudice to the power of the Board to serve a further assessment notice in respect of any establishment to which that assessment related and, where the withdrawal is made by reason of the fact that an establishment has ceased to carry on business in the second levy period, the said notice may provide that the whole amount payable thereunder in respect of the establishment shall be due one month after the date of the notice.

Appeals

8.—(1) A person assessed to the levy may appeal to an appeal tribunal against the assessment within one month from the date of the service of the assessment notice or within any further period or periods of time that may be allowed by the Board or an appeal tribunal under the following provisions of this Article.

(2) The Board by notice may for good cause allow a person assessed to the levy to appeal to an appeal tribunal against the assessment at any time within the period of four months from the date of the service of the assessment notice or within such further period or periods as the Board may allow before such time as may then be limited for appealing has expired.

(3) If the Board shall not allow an application for extension of time for appealing, an appeal tribunal shall upon application made to the tribunal by the person assessed to the levy have the like powers as the Board under the foregoing paragraph.

(4) In the case of an establishment that ceases to carry on business in the second levy period, on any day after the date of the service of the relevant assessment notice, the foregoing provisions of this Article shall have effect as if for the period of four months from the date of the service of the assessment notice mentioned in paragraph (2) of this Article there were substituted the period of six months from the date of the cessation of business.

(5) An appeal or an application to an appeal tribunal under this Article shall be made in accordance with the Industrial Tribunals (England and Wales) Regulations 1965(a) except where the establishment to which the relevant assessment relates is wholly in Scotland in which case the appeal or application shall be made in accordance with the Industrial Tribunals (Scotland) Regulations 1965(b).

(6) The powers of an appeal tribunal under paragraph (3) of this Article may be exercised by the President of the Industrial Tribunals (England and Wales) or by the President of the Industrial Tribunals (Scotland) as the case may be.

Evidence

9.—(1) Upon the discharge by an employer of his liability under an assessment the Board shall if so requested issue to him a certificate to the effect that he has done so.

(2) The production in any proceedings of a document purporting to be certified by the Secretary of the Board to be a true copy of an assessment or other notice issued by the Board or of a certificate such as is mentioned in the foregoing paragraph of this Article shall, unless the contrary is proved, be sufficient evidence of the document and of the facts stated therein.
