WAGES COUNCILS

The Wages Regulation (Licensed Non-residential Establishment) Order 1967

Made - 21st April 1967
Coming into Operation 22nd May 1967

Whereas the Minister of Labour (hereafter in this Order referred to as "the Minister") has received from the Licensed Non-residential Establishment Wages Council the wages regulation proposals set out in the Schedule hereto ;

Now, therefore, the Minister by virtue of the powers conferred on him by section 11 of the Wages Councils Act 1959(a), and section 31 of the Prices and Incomes Act 1966(b), and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following Order:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Wages Regulation (Licensed Non-residential Establishment) Order 1967.

2.—(1) In this Order the expression "the specified date" means the 22nd May 1967, provided that where, as respects any worker who is paid wages at intervals not exceeding seven days, that date does not correspond with the beginning of the period for which the wages are paid, the expression "the specified date" means, as respects that worker, the beginning of the next such period following that date.

(2) The Interpretation Act 1889(c) shall apply to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament and as if this Order and the Order hereby revoked were Acts of Parliament.

3. The wages regulation proposals set out in the Schedule hereto shall have effect as from the specified date and as from that date the Wages Regulation (Licensed Non-residential Establishment) Order 1965(d) shall cease to have effect.

Signed by order of the Minister of Labour.
21st April 1967.

A. S. Marre,
Deputy Secretary,
Ministry of Labour.

SCHEDULE

The following minimum remuneration and provisions as to holidays and holiday remuneration shall be substituted for the statutory minimum remuneration and provisions as to holidays and holiday remuneration set out in the Wages Regulation (Licensed Non-residential Establishment) Order 1965(a) (Order L.N.R. (65)).

PART I
REMUNERATION FOR EMPLOYMENT
BASIS OF REMUNERATION

- 1.—(1) Minimum remuneration for a week of 44 hours exclusive of overtime shall be in accordance with the table in paragraph 2 hereof and, as respects the minimum remuneration specified in Columns 2 to 8 of that table, shall be payable on the basis that the board, meals or lodging to be supplied are available for the worker for 7 days a week :

Provided that where on one day only in the week the employer does not supply the same number of meals as he normally supplies on each of the other days of the week the amount specified in such one of the Columns 2 to 7 of that table as would have been applicable had the worker been supplied on seven days a week with the number of meals normally supplied on a day shall be increased by 1s. for each such meal not supplied on that day subject to a maximum increase of 3s.

- (2) The hourly rate payable to all such workers, except in respect of overtime, and subject to the provisions of paragraph 3, is the appropriate minimum remuneration for a working week of 44 hours as set out in the table in paragraph 2 divided by 44.

2. The table of weekly minimum remuneration is as follows:—

Column 1 Workers	Column 2 where the employer supplies full board and lodging		Column 3 where the employer supplies 2 meals only a day and lodging		Column 4 where the employer supplies 1 meal only a day and lodging		Column 5 where the employer supplies full board but not lodging		Column 6 where the employer supplies 2 meals only a day but not lodging		Column 7 where the employer supplies 1 meal only a day but not lodging		Column 8 where a regular worker is supplied by the employer with lodging but with no meals		Column 9 where none of Columns 2 to 8 inclusive is applicable

GUARANTEED WEEKLY REMUNERATION

- 3.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this paragraph, where in any week a regular worker works for less than 44 hours he shall be paid not less than the guaranteed weekly remuneration.
- (2) Guaranteed weekly remuneration in respect of any week is the amount payable to the worker at the appropriate hourly rate under paragraph 2 hereof for 44 hours' work in his usual occupation:
- Provided that where the worker normally works for the employer on work to which this Schedule applies for less than 44 hours in a week by reason only of the fact that he does not hold himself out as normally available for work for more than the number of hours he normally works in the week, and the worker has informed his employer in writing that he does not so hold himself out, the guaranteed weekly remuneration shall be the amount payable to the worker at the appropriate hourly rate calculated as in paragraph 1 hereof for the number of hours in the week normally worked by the worker for the employer on work to which this Schedule applies in his usual occupation.
- (3) Guaranteed weekly remuneration shall not be payable for a week if the remuneration otherwise payable by the employer to the worker in respect of that week exceeds the amount of the guaranteed weekly remuneration.
- (4) Guaranteed weekly remuneration is not payable in respect of any week unless during that week in respect of the hours ordinarily worked by the worker the worker is—
- (a) capable of and available for work ;
 - (b) willing to perform such services as may reasonably be required by the employer when work is not available for him in his usual occupation.
- (5) If the employer is unable to provide the worker with work because of circumstances beyond his control and gives the worker a clear pay week's notice to that effect, guaranteed weekly remuneration shall not be payable after the expiry of that notice during any week during which the employer continues to be unable to provide work as aforesaid.
- (6) For the purpose of calculating whether a worker in any week worked for less than 44 hours and of ascertaining whether a worker satisfies the provisions of sub-paragraph (4) hereof, any day or days allowed and taken as holidays by a worker in accordance with Part II of this Schedule and any public holiday (including any day allowed in lieu thereof) on which the worker has not worked, shall be treated as a day or days on which the worker worked for the number of hours usually worked by him on that day of the week or those days of the week, as the case may be.

OVERTIME

4. Overtime rates are payable to all workers, other than workers who ordinarily work for the employer for less than 18 hours a week, as follows:—

A. On any day other than the weekly short day, the weekly day of rest or a public holiday—

(1) In England and Wales—

- | | |
|---|--------------------|
| (a) for the first hour worked in excess of
7 hours 50 minutes | time-and-a-quarter |
| (b) thereafter | time-and-a-half |

(2) In Scotland—

- | | |
|--|--------------------|
| (a) (i) in all licensed non-residential establishments, except clubs, for the first hour worked in excess of 8 hours 20 minutes | time-and-a-quarter |
| (ii) thereafter | time-and-a-half |
| (b) (i) in clubs, for the first hour worked in excess of 7 hours 50 minutes | time-and-a-quarter |
| (ii) thereafter | time-and-a-half |

B. On the weekly short day—(1) In England and Wales—

- (a) for the first hour worked in excess of 4 hours 50 minutes time-and-a-quarter
- (b) thereafter time-and-a-half

(2) In Scotland—

- (a) (i) in all licensed non-residential establishments, except clubs, for the first hour worked in excess of 2 hours 20 minutes time-and-a-quarter
- (ii) thereafter time-and-a-half
- (b) (i) in clubs, for the first hour worked in excess of 4 hours 50 minutes time-and-a-quarter
- (ii) thereafter time-and-a-half

C. On the weekly day of rest—

for all time worked double time

5. For the purposes of this Schedule:—(1) the weekly short day shall be—

- (a) a day in the week (other than the weekly day of rest) fixed at the time of the engagement of the worker being a day which may be changed by agreement between the employer and the worker, subject to seven days' notice; or
- (b) if no such day has been fixed or agreed, the last day in the pay week or the day before the last day, if the last day is the weekly day of rest;

(2) the weekly day of rest shall be—

- (a) a day in the week (other than the weekly short day) fixed at the time of the engagement of the worker being a day which may be changed by agreement between the employer and the worker, subject to seven days' notice; or
- (b) if no such day has been fixed or agreed, the last day in the pay week or the day before the last day, if the last day is the weekly short day.

WORKERS WHO ARE NOT REQUIRED TO WORK ON A PUBLIC HOLIDAY OR WHO ARE GIVEN A DAY OFF IN LIEU

6. Where a worker, other than a worker who ordinarily works for the employer for less than 18 hours a week, is not required to work on a public holiday he shall be paid for the public holiday the amount to which he would have been entitled under the arrangement current between the employer and the worker immediately before the holiday had the day not been a public holiday and had he worked the number of hours ordinarily worked by him on a full working day.

7. Where a worker, other than a worker who ordinarily works for the employer for less than 18 hours a week, works on a public holiday and his employer has undertaken to allow him a day's holiday in lieu thereof within 14 days of the public holiday he shall be paid—

- (1) for the hours worked on the public holiday, the amount to which he would have been entitled under the arrangement current between the employer and the worker immediately before the holiday had the day not been a public holiday; and
- (2) for the day given in lieu of the public holiday, the amount to which he would have been entitled under the arrangement current between the employer and the worker immediately before the holiday had he worked the number of hours ordinarily worked by him on that day of the week:

Provided always that this paragraph shall not apply unless the day allowed in lieu of the public holiday is a day other than the worker's weekly short day or his weekly rest day.

WORKERS WHO WORK ON A PUBLIC HOLIDAY AND WHO ARE NOT GIVEN A DAY OFF IN LIEU

8. Where a worker, other than a worker who ordinarily works for the employer for less than 18 hours a week, works on a public holiday and his employer has not undertaken to allow him a day's holiday in lieu thereof within 14 days of the public holiday, he shall be paid—

(1) In England and Wales—

- (a) for the first 7 hours 50 minutes worked on the public holiday
- (i) the amount to which he would have been entitled under the arrangement current between the employer and the worker immediately before the holiday had the day not been a public holiday; and in addition
- (ii) the amount to which he would have been entitled had he been employed in the circumstances in which the weekly remuneration specified in Column 9 of the table in paragraph 2 would have been payable;
- (b) for all time worked in excess of 7 hours 50 minutes on the public holiday—double time.

(2) In Scotland—

- (a) for the first 7 hours 50 minutes worked in a club or for the first 8 hours 20 minutes worked in any licensed non-residential establishment other than a club on the public holiday
- (i) the amount to which he would have been entitled under the arrangement current between the employer and the worker immediately before the holiday had the day not been a public holiday; and in addition
- (ii) the amount to which he would have been entitled had he been employed in the circumstances in which the weekly remuneration specified in Column 9 of the table in paragraph 2 would have been payable;
- (b) for all time worked in excess of 7 hours 50 minutes in a club or in excess of 8 hours 20 minutes in any licensed non-residential establishment other than a club on the public holiday—double time.

PART II

ANNUAL HOLIDAY AND HOLIDAY REMUNERATION
ANNUAL HOLIDAY

9. Subject to the provisions of this paragraph and of paragraph 11, an employer shall, between the date on which the provisions of this Schedule become effective and 31st October 1967, and between 1st March and 31st October in each subsequent year, allow a holiday (hereinafter referred to as an "annual holiday") to every worker in his employment to whom this Schedule applies who during the 12 months immediately preceding the commencement of the holiday season (hereinafter referred to as "the qualifying period") was employed for any of the periods specified below, and the duration of the annual holiday shall be related to the period of the worker's employment during that 12 months as follows:—

Period of Employment	Duration of Holiday
At least 48 weeks	12 days
" " 44 "	11 "
" " 40 "	10 "
" " 36 "	9 "
" " 32 "	8 "
" " 28 "	7 "
" " 24 "	6 "
" " 20 weeks	5 days
" " 16 "	4 "
" " 12 "	3 "
" " 8 "	2 "
" " 4 "	1 day

Provided that—

- (1) the number of days of annual holiday which an employer is required to allow to a worker in any holiday season shall not exceed twice the number constituting the worker's normal working week ;
 - (2) in this Schedule the expression " holiday season " means in relation to the year 1967 the period commencing on 1st March 1967 and ending on 31st October 1967, and in each succeeding year, the period commencing on 1st March and ending on 31st October of the same year ;
 - (3) the duration of the worker's annual holiday during the holiday season ending on 31st October 1967, shall be reduced by any days of annual holiday duly allowed to him by the employer under Order L.N.R. (65) between 1st March 1967 and the date on which the provisions of this Schedule become effective.
10. An annual holiday shall be allowed on consecutive working days and days of holiday shall be treated as consecutive notwithstanding that the weekly day of rest or a public holiday or a day of holiday in lieu of a public holiday intervenes :
- Provided that where a worker is entitled to more days of annual holiday than the number of days constituting his normal working week his annual holiday may be allowed in two separate periods of which one shall consist of at least the number of days constituting his normal working week.
11. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 9, the Council may vary the holiday season as there set out if they receive an application for that purpose from an employer and are satisfied that it is reasonable to do so to meet special circumstances. Such variation may provide for the commencement of the holiday season earlier than 1st March or its extension beyond 31st October. An application relating to the commencement of the holiday season shall be made to the Council not less than six weeks before the operative date and an application to extend the duration of the holiday season, before 1st July. Any such alteration in the holiday season shall not become effective until notice of the decision of the Council has been communicated to the employer concerned. In the case of any variation of the holiday season under this provision, the qualifying period in respect thereof shall be that stated in paragraph 9.
12. An employer shall give to a worker reasonable notice of the commencing date and duration of his annual holiday and such notice may be given individually to a worker or by the posting of a notice in the place where a worker is employed.
13. Where any day of annual holiday allowed to any worker under this Schedule falls upon a day of holiday or half-holiday to which the worker may be entitled under any enactment other than the Wages Councils Act 1959, that holiday or half-holiday shall be treated as part of the holiday allowed under this Schedule.

REMUNERATION FOR ANNUAL HOLIDAY

14. Holiday remuneration for annual holiday shall be paid on the last pay day preceding the holiday as follows:—
- For each week in the qualifying period (but not exceeding 48) in respect of which, under the provisions of paragraph 19, the worker is treated as having been employed, one twenty-fourth of the amount he would be entitled to receive from his employer under the arrangement current immediately before the holiday if he worked his normal weekly hours of work, exclusive of overtime, with the addition in the case of a worker who is normally supplied with full board, meals or lodging of one-sixth of the following amounts for each day of holiday:—
- (1) 47s. 6d. in the case of a worker normally supplied by his employer with full board and lodging ;

- (2) 38s. 6d. in the case of a worker normally supplied by his employer with 2 meals only a day and lodging ;
- (3) 28s. 6d. in the case of a worker normally supplied by his employer with 1 meal only a day and lodging ;
- (4) 29s. 6d. in the case of a worker normally supplied by his employer with full board but no lodging ;
- (5) 20s. 6d. in the case of a worker normally supplied by his employer with 2 meals only a day but no lodging ;
- (6) 10s. 6d. in the case of a worker normally supplied by his employer with 1 meal only a day but no lodging ;
- (7) 18s. 0d. in the case of a regular worker normally supplied by his employer with lodging but with no meals :

Provided that—

where under the provisions of paragraph 10 an annual holiday is taken in two periods, the holiday remuneration shall be apportioned accordingly.

ACCRUED HOLIDAY REMUNERATION PAYABLE ON TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

15. If a worker ceases to be employed by an employer, the employer shall, immediately on termination of his employment (hereinafter referred to as the "termination date") pay to the worker accrued holiday remuneration in accordance with the provisions of paragraphs 16 and 17.
16. Subject to the provisions of this paragraph and of paragraph 17, accrued holiday remuneration shall be payable to a worker in respect of his employment with the employer in the 12 months immediately preceding the termination date as follows:—

For each week (but not exceeding 48) in respect of which, under the provisions of paragraph 19, the worker is treated as having been employed, one twenty-fourth of the amount he would be entitled to receive from his employer under the arrangement current immediately before the termination date if he worked his normal weekly hours of work, exclusive of overtime, with the addition in the case of a worker who is normally supplied with full board, meals or lodging of one-sixth of the following amounts for each period of 4 weeks' employment (but not exceeding a total of 48 weeks) in respect of which under the provisions of paragraph 19 the worker is treated as having been employed:—

- (1) 47s. 6d. in the case of a worker normally supplied by his employer with full board and lodging ;
- (2) 38s. 6d. in the case of a worker normally supplied by his employer with 2 meals only a day and lodging ;
- (3) 28s. 6d. in the case of a worker normally supplied by his employer with 1 meal only a day and lodging ;
- (4) 29s. 6d. in the case of a worker normally supplied by his employer with full board but no lodging ;
- (5) 20s. 6d. in the case of a worker normally supplied by his employer with 2 meals only a day but no lodging ;
- (6) 10s. 6d. in the case of a worker normally supplied by his employer with 1 meal only a day but no lodging ;
- (7) 18s. 0d. in the case of a regular worker normally supplied by his employer with lodging but with no meals :

Provided that—

- (1) no worker shall be entitled to the payment by his employer of accrued holiday remuneration if—
 - (a) he is dismissed on either of the following grounds, that is to say—
 - (i) dishonesty, or
 - (ii) misconduct involving contravention of the licensing laws, and is so informed by the employer at the time of dismissal ; or
 - (b) he leaves his employment without having notified his employer, not less than one week before terminating his employment, of his intention to do so ;
 - (2) the amount of any accrued holiday remuneration payable at the termination date shall be reduced by the amount of any sum paid by the employer to the worker—
 - (a) as accrued holiday remuneration under the provisions of this Schedule or of Order L.N.R. (65) in so far as such sum is attributable to the period for which the accrued holiday remuneration is payable ;
 - (b) in respect of any day or days of holiday for which the worker had not qualified under the provisions of this Schedule or of Order L.N.R. (65) and allowed during the period in respect of which the accrued holiday remuneration is payable ;
 - (3) accrued holiday remuneration is not payable in respect of any period of employment for which a worker has been allowed or become entitled to be allowed an annual holiday under this Schedule or Order L.N.R. (65).
17. Where a worker has been allowed in a holiday season part only of the annual holiday for which he has qualified under this Schedule and his employment is terminated before he becomes entitled to the rest of that holiday, the accrued holiday remuneration payable shall be the appropriate amount calculated in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 16:—
- (1) in respect of his employment with the employer during the qualifying period, less the holiday remuneration received by the worker in respect of that part of the holiday which has been allowed, and
 - (2) in respect of the period of his employment since the end of the qualifying period immediately preceding the termination date.
18. Where under the provisions of this Schedule or of Order L.N.R. (65) any accrued holiday remuneration has been paid by the employer to the worker prior to the allowance of an annual holiday in accordance with the provisions of this Schedule, the amount of holiday remuneration payable by the employer in respect of the said annual holiday under the provisions of paragraph 14 shall be reduced by the amount of any previous payment of accrued holiday remuneration in so far as it is attributable to any part of the period of employment in respect of which the said holiday has been allowed.

CALCULATION OF EMPLOYMENT

19. For the purpose of calculating any period of employment entitling a worker to an annual holiday or to any accrued holiday remuneration under this Schedule the worker shall be treated as having been employed:—
- (1) for a week in respect of any week in which he has worked for the employer for not less than 18 hours and has qualified for payment of statutory minimum remuneration ;

- (2) when absent from work in any of the following circumstances—
- (a) during annual holiday, public holidays or days in lieu of public holidays ;
 - (b) during proved sickness or accident up to and not exceeding 8 weeks in the aggregate during any such period as aforesaid ;
 - (c) by leave of the employer.

PART III
GENERAL
DEFINITIONS

20. In this Schedule, unless the context otherwise requires, the following expressions have the meanings hereby assigned to them:—
