3. Fees shall be paid in currency circulating at the place of payment, except that a consular officer shall have discretion to accept, in lieu of such currency, a cheque, money order, or other means of effecting payment in terms of that currency. The equivalents of fees in terms of a foreign currency shall be calculated at a rate of exchange sufficient to cover the cost of remittance to London.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations.)

Section 2(2) of the Consular Salaries and Fees Act 1891 provides that all fees to be taken by a consular officer shall be levied, accounted for, and applied and may be remitted, in accordance with regulations issued by the Secretary of State with the approval of the Treasury.

These Regulations, which have been shortened and simplified in line with the Consular Fees Order 1968, supersede all previous Foreign Service Fees Regulations and prescribe the manner in which a consular officer should carry out these duties.

The Fees referred to in the Regulations are those which form the Schedule to the Consular Fees Order 1968.
