

1969 No. 619

SOCIAL SECURITYThe National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) (Prescribed Diseases) Amendment Regulations 1969

Made - - - -	29th April 1969
Laid before Parliament	2nd May 1969
Coming into Operation	26th May 1969

The Secretary of State for Social Services, in exercise of his powers under sections 56 and 85 of the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) Act 1965^(a) and section 57 of that Act as modified by section 8 of the National Insurance Act 1966^(b) and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, after reference to the Industrial Injuries Advisory Council, hereby makes the following regulations:—

Citation, interpretation and commencement

1. These regulations, which may be cited as the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) (Prescribed Diseases) Amendment Regulations 1969, shall be read as one with the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) (Prescribed Diseases) Regulations 1959^(c), as amended^(d) (hereinafter referred to as “the principal regulations”), and shall come into operation on 26th May 1969.

Amendment of Part I of Schedule 1 to the principal regulations

2. Part I of Schedule 1 to the principal regulations, shall be amended by the addition at the end of the first and second columns thereof, respectively, of the disease, hereinafter referred to as “nasal adeno-carcinoma”, specified in the first column of the Schedule hereto and of the occupations set against the said disease in the second column of that Schedule.

Transitional provisions

3.—(1) Where a person, who has been employed on or at any time after 5th July 1948 in insurable employment in any occupation referred to in the second column of the Schedule hereto, is, as the result of nasal adeno-carcinoma, either incapable of work or suffering from a loss of faculty on the date on which these regulations come into operation, and the disease is due to the nature of the employment, the provisions of regulation 6 of the principal regulations (which relates to the date of development) shall be applied subject to the modification that the date on which these regulations come into operation shall be treated as the first day on which he was incapable of work or, as the case may be, as the day on which he first suffered from the relevant loss of faculty, and the date of development shall be determined accordingly.

(2) Where a person to whom the last foregoing paragraph applies is awarded disablement benefit in respect of nasal adeno-carcinoma and claims

(a) 1965 c. 52. (b) 1966 c. 6. (c) S.I. 1959/467 (1959 II, p. 1943).

(d) The relevant amending instruments are S.I. 1965/1264; 1966/987 (1965 II, p. 3596; 1966 II, p. 2366).

an increase of that benefit under section 14 of the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) Act 1965 (which section relates to increases of disablement pension in cases of special hardship) then, if at any time after having been employed as aforesaid but before the date on which these regulations come into operation that person has abandoned any occupation as a result of the disease, the fact that he has abandoned that occupation shall be disregarded in determining his regular occupation for the purposes of the said section 14.

Signed by authority of the Secretary of State for Social Services.

David Ennals,

Minister of State.

Department of Health and Social Security.

29th April 1969.

Regulation 2

SCHEDULE

Description of disease or injury	Nature of occupation
45. Adeno-carcinoma of the nasal cavity or associated air sinuses.	Any occupation involving: attendance for work in or about a building where wooden furniture is manufactured.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations.)

These Regulations, by making an addition to the diseases prescribed in Part I of Schedule 1 to the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) (Prescribed Diseases) Regulations 1959, extend insurance under the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) Act 1965 to adeno-carcinoma of the nasal cavity or associated air sinuses in the case of persons insurably employed in certain occupations connected with the manufacture of wooden furniture.

The Regulations also contain transitional provisions relating to persons who are already suffering from the disease on the date when these Regulations come into operation.
