(2) Subject to the provisions of this Order, each member of the Authority appointed under paragraph (1) of this Article or by the Minister on or before the appointed day shall come into office on the appointed day, and a member appointed by the Minister after that day but before the meeting mentioned in paragraph (3) of this Article shall come into office on such day as may be fixed by his appointment, and of the members holding office at the date of the said meeting—

- (a) 9 shall retire on the 31st May 1970,
- (b) 10 shall retire on the 31st May 1971, and
- (c) the remainder shall retire on the 31st May 1972.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (2) of this Article, the members who are to hold office until the dates respectively specified in that paragraph shall be determined in default of agreement by lot at a meeting of the Authority within four months after the appointed day, the lots being drawn under the direction of the person presiding at the meeting.

(4) Subject to the provisions of this Order, every vacancy, other than a casual vacancy, arising in the office of a member of the Authority, whether appointed under any of the foregoing provisions of this Article or under this paragraph or under any of the following provisions of this Article, shall be filled by the appointment, on or before the date on which that vacancy will occur, of a person to fill the vacancy and that appointment shall be made by the council or councils by whom the person vacating office was appointed or by the Minister if that person was appointed by him, and every person appointed under this paragraph shall come into office on the said date and shall continue in office for a period of three years from that date.

(5) Where for any reason the office of any member of the Authority becomes vacant before the end of his term of office, the casual vacancy so arising—

(6) Subject to the provisions of the Act of 1968 and of this Order, a person appointed under paragraph (5) of this Article to fill a casual vacancy shall hold office so long only as the vacating member would have held office.

(8) Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing provisions of this Article, if a constituent council or group of councils have not been able to appoint a member or members of the Authority by the date on or before which they are required under those provisions to make that appointment, they may make that appointment as soon as practicable thereafter unless the Minister has previously made the appointment on behalf of that council or those councils under paragraph 5 of Part I of Schedule 5 to the Act of 1968. A person appointed to be a member by an appointment made under this paragraph shall come into office forthwith and shall hold office until the date on which he would have held office if he had been appointed by an appointment made on or before the date by which the appointment was required to be made as aforesaid.

(11) If it happens that a person is appointed as a member of the Authority by more than one of the said appointing authorities for a term which coincides or overlaps as mentioned in paragraph (10) above, that person shall within one month of the making of the last of those appointments choose under which appointment he will serve as a member and give notice in writing of his choice to the Secretary of the Authority, or, if no such Secretary has been appointed, to the town clerk mentioned in paragraph 1(1) of Schedule 3, and thereupon the other appointment or appointments shall be deemed void.

(12) If a person who should have given notice of his choice under paragraph (11) above fails to do so within the period specified in that paragraph, he shall be deemed to have chosen to serve under the appointment first made and have given notice of his choice under that paragraph immediately before the end of that period.

(13) Where an appointment is deemed void under the provisions of paragraph (11) above, a further appointment shall be made as if a casual vacancy in the Authority had arisen.

Notices to be given of appointments of members of the Authority

6.—(1) As soon as practicable after each appointment of a member or members of the Authority has been made by a constituent council or a group of constituent councils, notice in writing of that appointment, specifying the name, address and description of each person appointed, shall be given in accordance with the following provisions of this paragraph, that is to say—

(3) A member of the Authority shall also vacate his office if he has throughout a period of six consecutive months failed to attend any meeting of the Authority, unless the failure was due to illness or some other reason approved before or during that period by the Authority, but for the purposes of this paragraph attendance as a member at a meeting of any committee or sub-committee of the Authority shall be regarded as attendance at a meeting of the Authority.

(4) Whenever a casual vacancy arises in the office of a member of the Authority (whether by reason of any of the foregoing provisions of this Article or by reason of paragraph 3 or 4 of Part I of Schedule 5 to the Act of 1968 or otherwise howsoever), the Secretary of the Authority shall forthwith notify the vacancy so arising to the constituent council or group of constituent councils responsible for appointing a member to fill that vacancy or, where the member was appointed by the Minister otherwise than under paragraph 5 of Part I of Schedule 5 to the Act of 1968, to the Minister.
