The Wages Regulation (Stamped or Pressed Metal-Wares) Order 1970

Made - - - 25th February 1970 Coming into Operation 19th March 1970

Whereas the Secretary of State has received from the Stamped or Pressed Metal-Wares Wages Council (Great Britain) the wages regulation proposals set out in Schedules 1 and 2 hereof;

Now, therefore, the Secretary of State in exercise of her powers under section 11 of the Wages Councils Act 1959(a), and of all other powers enabling her in that behalf, hereby makes the following Order:—

- 1. This Order may be cited as the Wages Regulation (Stamped or Pressed Metal-Wares) Order 1970.
- 2.—(1) In this Order the expression "the specified date" means the 19th March 1970, provided that where, as respects any worker who is paid wages at intervals not exceeding seven days, that date does not correspond with the beginning of the period for which the wages are paid, the expression "the specified date" means, as respects that worker, the beginning of the next such period following that date.
- (2) The Interpretation Act 1889(b) shall apply to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament and as if this Order and the Order hereby revoked were Acts of Parliament.
- 3. The wages regulation proposals set out in Schedules 1 and 2 hereof shall have effect as from the specified date and as from that date the Wages Regulation (Stamped or Pressed Metal-Wares) Order 1965(c) shall cease to have effect.

Signed by order of the Secretary of State. 25th February 1970.

A. A. Jarratt,

Deputy Under Secretary of State, Department of Employment and Productivity.

(a) 1959 c. 69.

(b) 1889 c. 63.

Article 3

SCHEDULE 1

The following minimum remuneration shall be substituted for the statutory minimum remuneration fixed by the Wages Regulation (Stamped or Pressed Metal-Wares) Order 1965 (Order Q. (98)).

STATUTORY MINIMUM REMUNERATION

PART I

GENERAL

- 1.—(1) The minimum remuneration payable to a worker to whom this Schedule applies (except in any week for which guaranteed weekly remuneration is payable under paragraph 7) is as follows, that is to say:—
  - (a) for all work except work to which a minimum overtime rate applies under Part IV of this Schedule—
    - (i) in the case of a time worker, the hourly general minimum time rate applicable to the worker,
    - (ii) in the case of a worker employed on piece work, piece rates each of which would yield, in the circumstances of the case, to an ordinary worker, at least the same amount of money as the hourly piece work basis time rate applicable to the worker;
  - (b) for all work to which a minimum overtime rate applies under Part IV of this Schedule, that rate.
- (2) In this Schedule, the expressions "hourly general minimum time rate" and "hourly piece work basis time rate" mean respectively the weekly general minimum time rate and the weekly piece work basis time rate applicable to the worker under Part II or Part III of this Schedule divided, in either case, by 40.

PART IV

OVERTIME AND WAITING TIME MINIMUM OVERTIME RATES

4. Subject to the provisions of this Schedule, minimum overtime rates are payable to any worker as follows:-(1) on a Sunday—for all time worked double time (2) in England and Wales-(a) on a customary holiday other than a day of customary holiday fixed by the employer—for all double time time worked ... ••• ... ... ... (b) on a day of customary holiday fixed by the employer—for all time worked the hourly general ••• minimum time rate (3) in Scotland— (a) on a customary holiday other than either of the last two days of customary holiday in each double time year fixed by the employer-for all time worked (b) on each of the last two days of customary holiday in each year fixed by the employer-for all time worked ... the hourly general ... minimum time rate (4) on a Saturday, not being a customary holiday—for all time worked in excess of 4 hours... time-and-a-half (5) in any week, exclusive of any time in respect of which a minimum overtime rate is payable under the preceding provisions of this paragraph— (a) for the first two hours worked in excess of 40 ... time-and-a-quarter (b) thereafter ... time-and-a-half 5. In this Part of this Schedule:— (1) the expressions "time-and-a-quarter", "time-and-a-half" and "double time" mean respectively-

- (a) in the case of a time worker, one and one quarter times, one and a half times and twice the hourly general minimum time rate otherwise applicable to the worker:
- (b) in the case of a worker employed on piece work,
  - (i) a time rate equal respectively to one quarter, one half and the whole of the hourly general minimum time rate which would be payable to the worker if he were a time worker and a minimum overtime rate did not apply and, in addition thereto,
  - (ii) piece rates each of which would yield, in the circumstances of the case, to an ordinary worker, at least the same amount of money as the hourly piece work basis time rate applicable to the worker.
- (2) The expression "customary holiday" means:—
  - (a) (i) In England and Wales—

Christmas Day (or, if Christmas Day falls on a Sunday, such week day as may be appointed by national proclamation, or, if none is so appointed, the next following Tuesday), Boxing Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Whit Monday (or where another day is substituted therefor by national proclamation, that day), August Bank Holiday, and two other days (being days of the week on which the worker normally works for the employer) in the course of a calendar year to be fixed by the employer and notified to the worker not less than three weeks before the holiday;

(ii) In Scotland-

New Year's Day (or, if New Year's Day falls on a Sunday, the following Monday);

the local Spring holiday;

the local Autumn holiday; and

five other days (being days of the week on which the worker normally works for the employer) in the course of a calendar year to be fixed by the employer and notified to the worker not less than three weeks before the holiday;

or (b) in the case of each of the said days (other than a day fixed by the employer in Scotland and notified to the worker as aforesaid) such weekday as may be substituted therefor, being a day recognised by local custom as a day of holiday in substitution for the said day or a day agreed between the employer and the worker or his representative.

WAITING TIME

- 6.—(1) A worker is entitled to payment of the minimum remuneration specified in this Schedule for all time during which he is present on the premises of his employer, unless he is present thereon in any of the following circumstances:—
  - (a) without the employer's consent, express or implied;
  - (b) for some purpose unconnected with his work and other than that of waiting for work to be given to him to perform;
  - (c) by reason only of the fact that he is resident thereon;
  - (d) during normal meal times in a room or place in which no work is being done, and he is not waiting for work to be given to him to perform.
- (2) The minimum remuneration payable under sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph to a piece worker when not engaged on piece work is that which would be applicable if he were a time worker.

PART V

GUARANTEED WEEKLY REMUNERATION

- 7.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this paragraph, a worker who ordinarily works for the employer at least 34 hours weekly on work to which this Schedule applies shall be paid the guaranteed weekly remuneration in respect of any week in which he is in the employment of the employer, and either performs no work to which this Schedule applies or works for less than 34 hours on such work.
- (2) The guaranteed weekly remuneration is 34 hours' pay calculated at the general minimum time rate ordinarily applicable to the worker:

Provided that where in any week a worker is absent from work by reason of a recognised holiday allowed by his employer, not being a holiday allowed to the worker under the provisions of the Wages Councils Act 1959, the worker's guaranteed weekly remuneration in that week shall be reduced by an amount which is in the same proportion to 34 hours' pay, calculated as aforesaid, as the number of hours for which the worker is absent from work in that week by reason of the recognised holiday is to the number of hours ordinarily worked in a week by him for the employer on work to which this Schedule applies; and for the purposes of this proviso the expression "recognised holiday" means—

- (a) a customary holiday as defined in paragraph 5; and
- (b) during the twelve months commencing on 1st May in each year, one period of not more than fifteen consecutive days or two periods of consecutive days aggregating not more than sixteen days being the period or periods during which the establishment at which the worker ordinarily works is closed for the purpose of giving persons there employed an annual holiday.
- (3) The guaranteed weekly remuneration in any week shall be reduced by the amount of any holiday remuneration paid, or payable, by the employer to the worker in respect of any holiday allowed to, and taken by, the worker in that week under the provisions of the Wages Councils Act 1959.
- (4) In calculating the number of hours worked in any week for the purposes of this paragraph, the worker shall be treated as though he had worked on any holiday allowed to, and taken by, him in that week under the provisions of the Wages Councils Act 1959, the number of hours ordinarily worked by him on that day of the week, provided that the worker shall not be treated as having worked in any week throughout which he is on holiday.
- (5) Payment of the guaranteed weekly remuneration in any week is subject to the condition that the worker throughout the period of his ordinary employment in that week, excluding any day allowed to him as a holiday, (whether under the Wages Councils Act 1959, or because the day is, or forms part of, a recognised holiday, as defined in the proviso to sub-paragraph (2) of this paragraph) is—
  - (a) capable of and available for work; and
  - (b) willing to perform such duties outside his normal occupation as the employer may reasonably require if his normal work is not available to him in the establishment in which he is employed.
- (6) The guaranteed weekly remuneration shall not be payable to a worker for any week—
  - (a) in which work is not available for him by reason of a strike or lockout; or
  - (b) in which the worker has been dismissed on the grounds of serious misconduct; or
  - (c) if at any time in the week the worker is absent from work by reason of sickness;
  - (d) if at any time in the week or during the preceding four weeks the worker has been absent from work without the leave of his employer; or

- (e) in which the amount of remuneration payable to the worker, calculated in accordance with the preceding paragraphs of this Schedule, exceeds the amount of the remuneration which would be payable to him under the provisions of this paragraph.
- (7) The guaranteed weekly remuneration applicable to a piece worker shall be the sum to which he would be entitled if he were a time worker.

PART VI

SCHEDULE 2

HOLIDAYS AND HOLIDAY REMUNERATION

The Wages Regulation (Stamped and Pressed Metal-Wares) (Holidays) Order 1965(d (Order Q. (99)) shall have effect as if in the Schedule thereto for Part II there were substituted the following part:—

(a) S.R. & O. 1919/1796 (1919 II, p. 521). (c) S.R. & O. 1920/470 (1920 II, p. 792). (d) S.I. 1965/1343 (1965 II, p. 3837).

"PART II

CUSTOMARY HOLIDAYS

- 2.—(1) An employer shall allow to every worker to whom this Schedule applies a holiday (hereinafter referred to as a 'customary holiday') in each year on the days specified in the following sub-paragraph, provided that the worker has been in his employment for a period of not less than four weeks immediately preceding the customary holiday and has worked for the employer during the whole or part of that period and (unless excused by the employer or absent by reason of the proved illness of the worker) has worked for the employer throughout the last seven working days on which work was available to him immediately prior to the customary holiday.
  - (2) The said customary holidays are:-
    - (a) (i) In England and Wales—

Christmas Day (or, if Christmas Day falls on a Sunday, such week day as may be appointed by national proclamation, or, if none is so appointed, the next following Tuesday), Boxing Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Whit Monday (or where another day is substituted therefor by national proclamation, that day), August Bank Holiday, and two other days (being days of the week on which the worker normally works for the employer) in the course of a calendar year to be fixed by the employer and notified to the worker not less than three weeks before the holiday;

(ii) In Scotland-

New Year's Day (or, if New Year's Day falls on a Sunday, the following Monday);

the local Spring holiday;

the local Autumn holiday; and

five other days (being days of the week on which the worker normally works for the employer) in the course of a calendar year to be fixed by the employer and notified to the worker not less than three weeks before the holiday;

- or (b) in the case of each of the said days (other than a day fixed by the employer in Scotland and notified to the worker as aforesaid) such weekday as may be substituted therefor, being a day recognised by local custom as a day of holiday in substitution for the said day or a day agreed between the employer and the worker or his representative.
- (3) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this paragraph, an employer may (except where in the case of a woman or young person such a requirement would be unlawful) require a worker who is otherwise entitled to any customary holiday under the foregoing provisions of this Schedule to work thereon, and, in lieu of any customary holiday on which he so works, the worker shall be entitled to be allowed a day's holiday (hereinafter referred to as a 'holiday in lieu of a customary holiday') on a week day on which he would normally work for the employer within the period of four weeks next ensuing.
  - (4) A worker who is required to work on a customary holiday shall be paid:—
    - (a) for all time worked thereon, the statutory minimum remuneration then appropriate to the worker for work on a customary holiday; and
    - (b) in respect of the holiday in lieu of the customary holiday, holiday remuneration in accordance with paragraph 6."

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

This Order has effect from 19th March 1970. Schedule 1 sets out the statutory minimum remuneration payable in substitution for that fixed by the Wages Regulation (Stamped or Pressed Metal-Wares) Order 1965 (Order Q. (98)) which Order is revoked. Schedule 2 amends the Wages Regulation (Stamped and Pressed Metal-Wares) (Holidays) Order 1965 (Order Q. (99)) by providing that a nationally proclaimed holiday may be substituted for Whit Monday.

New provisions are printed in italics.
