EXPLANATORY NOTE

Rule 6 of the Maintenance Orders (Facilities for Enforcement) Rules 1922 provides that the person collecting money due under a maintenance order registered or confirmed in England under the Maintenance Orders (Facilities for Enforcement) Act 1920 shall send that money to the court from which the order originally issued. These Rules amend Rule 6 to enable the money collected to be sent to such other person or authority as the court which made the order or the Secretary of State may from time to time direct.
