“ORDER 76

CONTENTIOUS PROBATE PROCEEDINGS

Application and interpretation

1.—(1) This Order applies to probate causes and matters, and the other provisions of these Rules apply to those causes and matters subject to the provisions of this Order.

(2) In these Rules “probate action” means an action for the grant of probate of the will, or letters of administration of the estate, of a deceased person or for the revocation of such a grant or for a decree pronouncing for or against the validity of an alleged will, not being an action which is non-contentious or common form probate business.

(3) In this Order, “will” includes a codicil.

Requirements in connection with issue of writ

2.—(1) A probate action must be begun by writ, and the writ must be issued out of the Central Office.

(2) Before a writ beginning a probate action is issued it must be indorsed with—

(a) a statement of the nature of the interest of plaintiff and of the defendant in the estate of the deceased to which the action relates; and

(b) a memorandum signed by a master of the Chancery Division showing that the writ has been produced to him for examination and that two copies of it have been lodged with him.

Parties to action for revocation of grant

3. Every person who is entitled or claims to be entitled to administer the estate of a deceased person under or by virtue of an unrevoked grant of probate of his will or letters of administration of his estate shall be made a party to any action for revocation of the grant.

Lodgment of grant in action for revocation

4.—(1) Where, at the commencement of an action for the revocation of a grant of probate of the will or letters of administration of the estate of a deceased person, the probate or letters of administration, as the case may be, have not been lodged in court, then—

- (a) if the action is commenced by a person to whom the grant was made, he shall lodge the probate or letters of administration in the office of the Chief Master within 7 days after the issue of the writ;
- (b) if any defendant to the action has the probate or letters of administration in his possession or under his control, he shall lodge it or them in the office of the Chief Master within 14 days after the service of the writ upon him.

In this paragraph “court” includes the principal registry of the Family Division or a district probate registry.

(2) Any person who fails to comply with paragraph (1) may, on the application of any party to the action, be ordered by the Court to lodge the probate or letters of administration in the office of the Chief Master within a specified time; and any person against whom such an order is made shall not be entitled to take any step in the action without the leave of the Court until he has complied with the order.

Affidavit of testamentary scripts

5.—(1) Unless the Court otherwise directs, the plaintiff and every defendant who has entered an appearance in a probate action must wear an affidavit—

- (a) describing any testamentary script of the deceased person, whose estate is the subject of the action, of which he has any knowledge or, if such be the case, stating that he knows of no such script, and
- (b) if any such script of which he has knowledge is not in his possession or under his control, giving the name and address of the person in whose possession or under whose control it is or, if such be the case, stating that he does not know the name or address of that person.

(2) Any affidavit required by this rule must be filed, and an office copy thereof and any testamentary script referred to therein which is in the possession or under the control of the deponent, must be lodged in the judge's chambers within 14 days after the entry of appearance by a defendant to the action or, if no defendant enters an appearance therein and the Court does not otherwise direct, before an order is made for the trial of the action.

(3) Where any testamentary script required by this rule to be lodged in the judge's chambers or any part thereof is written in pencil, then, unless the Court otherwise directs, a facsimile copy of that script, or of the page or pages thereof containing the part written in pencil, must also be lodged in the judge's chambers and the words which appear in pencil in the original must be underlined in red ink in the copy.

(4) Except with the leave of the Court, a party to a probate action shall not be allowed to inspect an affidavit filed, or any testamentary script lodged, by any other party to the action under this rule, unless and until an affidavit sworn by him containing the information referred to in paragraph (1) has been filed.

(5) In this rule “testamentary script” means a will or draft thereof, written instructions for a will made by or at the request or under the instructions of the testator and any document purporting to be evidence of the contents, or to be a copy, of a will which is alleged to have been lost or destroyed.

Default of appearance

6.—(1) Order 13 shall not apply in relation to a probate action.

(2) Where any of several defendants to a probate action fails to enter an appearance, the plaintiff, upon filing an affidavit proving due service of the writ, or notice of the writ, on that defendant may, after the time limited for appearing, proceed with the action as if that defendant had entered an appearance.

(3) Where the defendant, or all the defendants, to a probate action, fails or fail to enter an appearance, then, unless on the application of the plaintiff the Court orders the action to be discontinued, the plaintiff may after the time limited for appearing by the defendant apply to the Court for an order for trial of the action.

(4) Before applying for an order under paragraph (3) the plaintiff must file an affidavit proving due service of the writ, or notice of the writ, on the defendant and, if no statement of claim is indorsed on the writ, he must lodge a statement of claim in the judge's chambers.

(5) Where the Court grants an order under paragraph (3), it may direct the action to be tried on affidavit evidence.

Service of statement of claim

7. The plaintiff in a probate action must, unless the Court gives leave to the contrary or unless a statement of claim is indorsed on the writ, serve a statement of claim on every defendant who enters an appearance in the action and must do so before the expiration of 6 weeks after entry of appearance by that defendant or of 8 days after the filing by that defendant of an affidavit under rule 5, whichever is the later.

Counterclaim

8.—(1) Notwithstanding anything in Order 15, rule 2(1), a defendant to a probate action who alleges that he has any claim or is entitled to any relief or remedy in respect of any matter relating to the grant of probate of the will, or letters of administration of the estate, of the deceased person which is the subject of the action must add to his defence a counterclaim in respect of that matter.

(2) If the plaintiff fails to serve a statement of claim, any such defendant may, with the leave of the Court, serve a counterclaim and the action shall then proceed as if the counterclaim were the statement of claim.

Contents of pleadings

9.—(1) Where the plaintiff in a probate action disputes the interest of a defendant he must allege in his statement of claim that he denies the interest of that defendant.

(2) In a probate action in which the interest by virtue of which a party claims to be entitled to a grant of letters of administration is disputed, the party disputing that interest must show in his pleading that if the allegations made therein are proved he would be entitled to an interest in the estate.

(3) Without prejudice to Order 18, rule 7, any party who pleads that at the time when a will, the subject of the action, was alleged to have been executed the testator did not know and approve of its contents must specify the nature of the case on which he intends to rely, and no allegation in support of that plea which would be relevant in support of any of the following other please, that is to say:—

(a) that the will was not duly executed,

- (b) that at the time of the execution of the will the testator was not of sound mind, memory and understanding, and
 - (c) that the execution of the will was obtained by undue influence or fraud,
- shall be made by that party unless that other plea is also pleaded.

Default of pleadings

10.—(1) Order 19 shall not apply in relation to a probate action.

(2) Where any party to a probate action fails to serve on any other party a pleading which he is required by these Rules to serve on that other party, then, unless the Court orders the action to be discontinued or dismissed, that other party may, after the expiration of the period fixed by or under these Rules for service of the pleading in question, apply to the Court for an order for trial of the action; and if an order is made the Court may direct the action to be tried on affidavit evidence.

Discontinuance and dismissal

11.—(1) Order 21 shall not apply in relation to a probate action.

(2) At any stage of the proceedings in a probate action the Court may, on the application of the plaintiff or of any party to the action who has entered an appearance therein, order the action to be discontinued or dismissed on such terms as to costs or otherwise as it thinks just, and may further order that a grant of probate of the will, or letters of administration of the estate, of the deceased person, as the case may be, which is the subject of the action, be made to the person entitled thereto.

(3) An application for an order under this rule may be made by motion or summons or by notice under Order 25, rule 7.

Compromise of action: trial on affidavit evidence

12. Where, whether before or after the service of the defence in a probate action, the parties to the action agree to a compromise, the Court may order the trial of the action on affidavit evidence.

Transmission of documents and orders between Family Registry and Chancery Chambers

13.—(1) If after a probate action has been commenced a master of the Chancery Division so requests, the principal registrar of the Family Division shall send him any documents in the custody of the principal registry of the Family Division, or of any district probate registry, which are relevant to that action.

(2) Immediately after an order for the grant or revocation of probate or administration has been drawn up and entered, the chief registrar of the Chancery Division shall send an office copy of the order to the principal registry of the Family Division, together with any document of which probate or administration with the will annexed is to be granted.

Application for order to bring in will, etc

(3) After entry of an appeal from a county court or magistrates' court under the Act of 1971 the Divisional Court may, on an application made ex parte or otherwise, make any order with respect to the custody or maintenance of the minor in question pending the appeal or otherwise as it thinks proper.

Removal of guardianship proceedings from a county court

10.—(1) An application for an order under section 16(1) of the Act of 1971 for the removal of an application from a county court into the High Court shall be made by an originating summons issued out of the principal registry and, unless the Court otherwise directs, the summons need not be served on any person.

(2) The application may be heard by a registrar, but, if an order is made for the removal to the High Court of an application to the county court, that application shall be heard by a single judge of the Family Division.

(3) Where an order is made under the said section 16(1), the plaintiff must send a copy of the order to the registrar of the county court from which the proceedings are ordered to be removed.

(4) On receipt by the proper officer of the documents referred to in Order 16, rule 19, of the County Court Rules 1936, that officer must forthwith file the said documents and give notice to all parties that the application removed is proceeding in the High Court.

(5) The application so removed shall proceed in the High Court as if it had been made by originating summons issued out of the principal registry.

11. The provisions of the matrimonial causes rules relating to the drawing up and service of orders shall apply to proceedings under this Part of this Order as if they were proceedings under those rules.

OTHER PROCEEDINGS

Application for declaration affecting matrimonial status

13.—(1) Where, apart from costs, the only relief sought in any proceedings is a declaration with respect to the matrimonial status of any person, the proceedings shall be begun by petition.

(2) The petition shall state—

- (a) the names of the parties and the residential address of each of them at the date of presentation of the petition;
- (b) the place and date of any ceremony of marriage to which the application relates;
- (c) whether there have been any previous proceedings between the parties with reference to the marriage or the ceremony of marriage to which the application relates or with respect to the matrimonial status of either of them and, if so, the nature of those proceedings;
- (d) all other material facts alleged by the petitioner to justify the making of the declaration and the grounds on which he alleges that the Court has jurisdiction to make it;

and shall conclude with a prayer setting out the declaration sought and any claim for costs.

(3) Nothing in the foregoing provisions shall be construed—

- (a) as conferring any jurisdiction to make a declaration in circumstances in which the Court could not otherwise make it, or

- (b) as affecting the power of the Court to refuse to make a declaration notwithstanding that it has jurisdiction to make it.
- (4) This rule does not apply to proceedings to which rule 14 applies.

Application under section 39 of Matrimonial Causes Act 1965

14.—(1) A petition under section 39 of the Matrimonial Causes Act 1965 shall, in addition to stating the grounds on which the petitioner relies, set out the date and place of birth of the petitioner and the maiden name of his mother, and, if the petitioner is known by a name other than that which appears in the certificate of his birth, that fact shall be stated in the petition and in any decree made thereon.

(2) The petition shall be supported by an affidavit by the petitioner verifying the petition and giving particulars of every person whose interest may be affected by the proceedings and his relationship to the petitioner;

Provided that if the petitioner is under 16, the affidavit shall, unless otherwise directed, be made by his next friend.

(3) An affidavit for the purposes of paragraph (2) may contain statements of information or belief with the sources and grounds thereof.

(4) On filing the petition, the petitioner shall issue and serve on the Attorney-General a summons for directions as to the persons, other than the Attorney-General, who are to be made respondents to the petition.

(5) It shall not be necessary to serve the petition on the Attorney-General otherwise than by delivering a copy of it to him in accordance with sub-section (6) of the said section 39.

(6) The Attorney-General may file an answer to the petition within 21 days after directions have been given under paragraph (4) and no directions for trial shall be given until that period has expired.

(7) A respondent who files an answer shall at the same time lodge in the divorce registry as many copies of the answer as there are other parties to the proceedings and a registrar shall send one of the copies to each of those parties.

Further proceedings on petition under rule 13 or 14

15.—(1) Unless a judge otherwise directs, all proceedings on any petition to which rules 13 or 14 relates shall take place in London.

(2) Subject to rules 2, 13 and 14 and paragraph (1) of this rule, the matrimonial causes rules shall apply with the necessary modifications to the petition as if it were a petition in a matrimonial cause.

(5) If the clerk's notes of the evidence are not produced, the Court may hear and determine the appeal on any other evidence or statement of what occurred in the proceedings before the magistrates' court as appears to the Court to be sufficient.

(6) The Court shall not be bound to allow the appeal on the ground merely of misdirection or improper reception or rejection of evidence unless, in the opinion of the Court, substantial wrong or miscarriage of justice has been thereby occasioned.

(7) A registrar may dismiss an appeal to which this rule applies for want of prosecution or, with the consent of the parties, may dismiss the appeal or give leave for it to be withdrawn, and may deal with any question of costs arising out of the dismissal or withdrawal.”

EXPLANATORY NOTE

These Rules amend the Rules of the Supreme Court in a number of respects.

Part II makes changes consequential on the reconstitution of the Divisions of the High Court by sections 1—4 of the Administration of Justice Act 1970. These sections rename the Probate, Divorce and Admiralty Division as the Family Division, and concentrate in it the family and domestic business of the High Court, including wardship, guardianship and adoption cases; transfer Admiralty and prize business to the Queen's Bench Division, where the Admiralty Court is established for the purpose; transfer contentious probate cases to the Chancery Division; establish the Commercial Court within the Queen's Bench Division to take the commercial list; and empower judges of the Commercial Court in certain circumstances to sit as arbitrators. A large number of rules are amended as a result of these provisions. Order 76 (probate actions) is re-written (rule 26), and Orders 91 and 112 are merged into a new Order 90 entitled "Miscellaneous Proceedings in the Family Division" (rule 30). Provision is made for the transfer of pending proceedings to other Divisions in consequence of the reorganization of business (rule 37) and for the alteration of references to the Probate, Divorce and Admiralty Division generally (rule 38 and Schedule).

Part III provides for the disclosure of documents and the inspection etc. of property under section 21 of the Administration of Justice Act 1969 and sections 31 and 32 of the Administration of Justice Act 1970. Part IV extends the power of the Court to order the joinder of parties; makes fresh provision for the taxation of costs by principal clerks of the Supreme Court Taxing Office; increases the fixed costs allowed on the issue of writs of execution, and revokes the rules dealing with the filing of powers of attorney in consequence of the coming into operation of the Powers of Attorney Act, 1971 (c.27).
