WAGES COUNCILS

The Wages Regulation (Fur) Order 1971

Made - - - - - 18th August 1971

Coming into Operation 13th September 1971

Whereas the Secretary of State has received from the Fur Wages Council (Great Britain) the wages regulation proposals set out in the Schedules hereto;

Now, therefore, the Secretary of State in exercise of his powers under section 11 of the Wages Councils Act 1959(a) and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following Order:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Wages Regulation (Fur) Order 1971.

2.—(1) In this Order the expression “the specified date” means the 13th September 1971, provided that where, as respects any worker who is paid wages at intervals not exceeding seven days, that date does not correspond with the beginning of the period for which the wages are paid, the expression “the specified date” means, as respects that worker, the beginning of the next such period following that date.

(2) The Interpretation Act 1889(b) shall apply to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament and as if this Order and the Order hereby revoked were Acts of Parliament.

3. The wages regulation proposals set out in the Schedules hereto shall have effect as from the specified date and as from that date the Wages Regulation (Fur) Order 1970(c) shall cease to have effect.

Signed by order of the Secretary of State.

18th August 1971.

J. R. Lloyd Davies,
Assistant Secretary,
Department of Employment.

(b) 1889 c. 63.

SCHEDULE 1

Article 3

The following minimum remuneration shall be substituted for the statutory minimum remuneration fixed by the Wages Regulation (Fur) Order 1970 (Order Z. (89)).

STATUTORY MINIMUM REMUNERATION

PART I

APPLICATION

1.—(1) Subject to the provisions of Part III of this Schedule, the minimum remuneration payable to a worker to whom this Schedule applies for all work except work to which a minimum overtime rate applies under Part IV is—

- (a) in the case of a time worker, the hourly general minimum time rate payable to the worker under the provisions of this Schedule;
- (b) in the case of a worker employed on piece work (other than an apprentice in the Dressers' and Dyers' Section of the trade to whom paragraph 10 applies):
 - (i) where a general minimum piece rate applies under Part VI, that rate;
 - (ii) where no general minimum piece rate applies, piece rates each of which would yield, in the circumstances of the case, to an ordinary worker at least the same amount of money as the piece work basis time rate applicable to the worker or, where no piece work basis time rate applies, at least the same amount of money as the hourly general minimum time rate which would be payable if the worker were a time worker, or
- (c) in the case of an apprentice in the Dressers' and Dyers' Section of the trade who is employed on piece work and to whom paragraph 10 applies, the piece rates specified in that paragraph:

Provided that where an hourly guaranteed time rate is applicable to the worker and his minimum remuneration calculated on a time work basis at that rate exceeds the minimum remuneration calculated at the said piece rates the worker shall be paid not less than that guaranteed time rate.

(2) In this Schedule the expressions "hourly general minimum time rate" and "hourly guaranteed time rate" mean respectively the general minimum time rate and the guaranteed time rate applicable to the worker under Part II of this Schedule divided in either case by 40.

2. This Schedule applies to workers in relation to whom the Fur Wages Council (Great Britain) operates, that is to say, workers employed in Great Britain in the trade specified in the Regulations made by the Minister and dated 25th October 1919(a), with respect to the Constitution and Proceedings of the Trade Board for the Fur Trade (Great Britain), namely:—

The dressing, dyeing and making up of furs or of skins for furriers' purposes including:—

- (1) The dressing or dyeing or general preparation of furs or skins;
- (2) The manufacture of furs or skins into garments, rugs, or other articles;
- (3) The remaking, repairing or cleaning of articles made from furs or skins where carried on by fur dressers or fur manufacturers;

(a) S.R. & O. 1919/1634 (Rev. XXIII, p. 474; 1919 II, p. 549).

- (4) The lining with fur of coats, cloaks, mantles, capes, gloves or similar articles where carried out by fur manufacturers;
- (5) Bundling, packing, warehousing and other operations carried on by fur skin merchants, fur dressers, fur dyers or fur manufacturers;

but excluding:—

- (a) The making up of fur toys, purses, boots, shoes or slippers;
- (b) The making of fur hats when carried on in association with or in conjunction with the making or trimming of men's, women's or children's headgear from other materials;
- (c) Warehousing, packing and other similar operations carried on in shops wholly, mainly, or substantially engaged in the retail distribution of articles of any description that are not made on the premises.

PART II

DEFINITIONS

13. For the purposes of this Part of this Schedule—

“CUTTER” means a person engaged, wholly or mainly, in cutting furs or skins in connection with manufacture, remodelling, alterations or repairing, including any preparation of furs or skins actually performed by such person for such cutting but not including nailing by a worker engaged, wholly or mainly, in nailing;

“FUR SORTER” means a worker who assumes sole responsibility for the proper grading of skins;

“NAILER” means a person engaged, wholly or mainly, in nailing;

“SKIN PACKER” means a worker engaged in and responsible for baling or packing skins for transport;

“TUBBER” means a worker in the Dressers' and Dyers' Section who has at least five years' experience therein and is capable of handling in an expert manner most varieties of fur skins from the raw stage through the various processes (except fleshing) to the finished article.

PART III

NIGHT WORKERS IN ALL SECTIONS OF THE TRADE

14.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Schedule, a night worker shall be paid for any work between the hours of 7 p.m. on any day and 7 a.m. on the next succeeding day one-and-one-third times the appropriate minimum rate: Provided that this provision shall not apply to a time worker in respect of any overtime.

(2) For the purposes of this paragraph—

“APPROPRIATE MINIMUM RATE” means, in the case of a time worker, the hourly general minimum time rate otherwise applicable to the worker or, in the case of a worker employed on piece work, the minimum rate which would be applicable if he were not a night worker;

“NIGHT WORKER” means a worker whose usual hours of work (exclusive of overtime) include at least 4 hours a night between 7 p.m. and 7 a.m.: Provided that a worker who is usually so employed during part only of the week shall be treated as a night worker in respect of that part of the week;

“OVERTIME” means, in the case of a time worker, any time in respect of which a minimum overtime rate applies or, in the case of a worker employed on piece work, any time in respect of which such a rate would apply if he were a time worker.

PART IV

OVERTIME AND WAITING TIME

MINIMUM OVERTIME RATES

15.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this paragraph, minimum overtime rates are payable to ANY TIME WORKER as follows:—

(a) On any day other than a Saturday, Sunday or a customary holiday, for all time worked in excess of 8 hours—Time-and-a-half:

Provided that where the employer normally requires the worker's attendance only from Monday to Friday (inclusive) the said rate shall be payable after 8½ hours on two of those days and after 8½ hours on the remaining three days;

(b) On a Saturday, not being a customary holiday, for all time worked in excess of 4 hours—Time-and-a-half:

Provided that where the employer normally requires the worker's attendance only from Monday to Friday (inclusive) the said rate shall be payable for all time worked on a Saturday;

(c) On a Sunday or a customary holiday, for all time worked—Double time.

(d) In any week exclusive of any time in respect of which a minimum overtime rate is payable under the provisions of (a), (b) or (c) above—

For all time worked in excess of 40 hours—Time-and-a-half.

(2) For the purpose of calculating the number of hours worked by a worker on any day, regard shall be had to the whole of the worker's turn of duty and, where that turn extends beyond midnight, it shall be regarded as having been worked wholly on the day upon which it commences:

Provided that

(a) this provision shall not apply in respect of any time worked between midnight on Saturday and midnight on Sunday and for that time double time shall be payable as provided in sub-paragraph (1)(c) of this paragraph;

(b) all time worked on a Monday morning as part of a turn of duty normally commencing on Sunday shall be treated as though it were worked on the previous Saturday and included in a turn of duty which commenced on that day.

(3) Where the worker is normally employed on Sunday instead of Saturday and, in the case of a woman or young person, such substitution is not unlawful—

(a) for the purposes of sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph, Saturday shall be treated as a Sunday and Sunday as a Saturday;

(b) for the purposes of sub-paragraph (2) of this paragraph, Saturday shall be treated as a Friday, Sunday as a Saturday and Monday as a Sunday.

16. In this Part of this Schedule—

- (1) "TIME-AND-A-HALF" and "DOUBLE TIME" mean respectively,
- (a) in the case of a worker other than a night worker, one-and-a-half times and twice the hourly general minimum time rate otherwise payable to the worker;
 - (b) in the case of a night worker, one-and-a-half times and twice the hourly general minimum time rate which would be payable if the worker were not a night worker and a minimum overtime rate did not apply.
- (2) "CUSTOMARY HOLIDAY" means—
- (a) In England and Wales—

Christmas Day (or, if Christmas Day falls on a Sunday, such weekday as may be appointed by national proclamation, or, if none is so appointed, the next following Tuesday), Boxing Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Whit Monday (or, where another day is substituted therefor by national proclamation, that day) and August Bank Holiday;
 - (b) In Scotland—

New Year's Day (or, if New Year's Day falls on a Sunday, the following Monday);

the local Spring holiday;

the local Autumn holiday; and three other days (being days on which the worker normally works) in the course of a calendar year, to be fixed by the employer and notified to the worker not less than four weeks before the holiday; or

 - (c) in the case of each of the said days (other than a day fixed by the employer in Scotland and notified to the worker as aforesaid) a day substituted therefor, being either a day recognised by local custom as a day of holiday in substitution for the said day or a day fixed by agreement between the employer and the worker or his representative.
- (3) "NIGHT WORKER" has the same meaning as in paragraph 14.

WAITING TIME

17.—(1) A worker is entitled to payment of the minimum remuneration specified in this Schedule for all time during which he is present on the premises of his employer unless he is present thereon in any of the following circumstances:—

- (a) without the employer's consent, express or implied;
- (b) for some purpose unconnected with his work and other than that of waiting for work to be given to him to perform;
- (c) by reason only of the fact that he is resident thereon;
- (d) during normal meal times in a room or place in which no work is being done, and he is not waiting for work to be given to him to perform.

(2) The minimum remuneration payable under sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph to a piece worker when not engaged on piece work is that which would be payable if he were a time worker.

PART V

CONDITIONS AS TO APPRENTICES AND LEARNERS

APPRENTICES TO CUTTING AND NAILING

18.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Schedule, the general minimum time rates specified in paragraph 3(3) apply only to an apprentice to cutting and nailing in whose case the conditions following are fulfilled—

- (a) the apprentice shall be employed during the whole of his time for a period of five years as an apprentice to cutting and nailing under a written contract of apprenticeship which has been duly executed and which includes the following provisions, which the Wages Council considers necessary for securing the effective instruction of the apprentice, or provisions substantially to the same effect and no provisions contrary thereto:—
- (i) the apprentice of his own free will and with the consent of the guardian binds himself to serve the employer as his apprentice in his trade of furrier for a term of five years;
 - (ii) the employer shall keep the worker as his apprentice during the said term, and to the best of his power, skill and knowledge instruct the apprentice or cause him to be instructed in cutting and nailing in the Furriers' Section of the fur trade;
 - (iii) the employer shall keep the apprentice under his own supervision or place him under one or more fully qualified journeymen;
 - (iv) during the first three years of apprenticeship the employer shall not require the apprentice to work any time in respect of which any minimum overtime rates would apply under Part IV of this Schedule to a worker employed on time work;
 - (v) during the first two years of apprenticeship the employer shall not require the apprentice to do any piece work;
- (b) in the establishment in which the apprentice is employed the number of apprentices to cutting and nailing shall be limited in proportion to the number of journeymen employed in the cutting and nailing branch at the time of the engagement of the apprentice as follows—

Number of Journeymen	Number of Apprentices
5 or under	1
From 6 to 10	2
From 11 to 15	3
From 16 to 20	4
From 21 to 25	5

and thereafter in the proportion of one additional apprentice to each five additional journeymen, any number of journeymen in excess of an exact multiple of five being treated as five;

- (c) the apprentice shall be the holder of a certificate of registration of apprenticeship issued by the Wages Council or shall have made an application for such a certificate which has been acknowledged and is still under consideration:
 Provided that the certification of an apprentice may be cancelled by the Wages Council if the other conditions of apprenticeship are not complied with.

(2) For the purpose of determining the proportion of apprentices to journeymen in accordance with the last preceding sub-paragraph, "journeyman" means a male or female worker other than an apprentice or a learner, and an employer who employs no journeymen but personally instructs an apprentice shall be treated as a journeyman.

APPRENTICES IN THE DRESSERS' AND DYERS' SECTION

19.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Schedule, the minimum remuneration specified in paragraph 10 applies only to an apprentice to dressing and dyeing in whose case the conditions following are fulfilled:—

- (a) the apprentice shall be employed during the whole of his time for a period of four years as an apprentice to dressing and dyeing under a written contract of apprenticeship, entered into on or after his sixteenth birthday, which is duly executed and which includes the following provisions which the Wages Council considers necessary for securing the effective instruction of the apprentice or provisions substantially to the same effect and no provisions contrary thereto:—
- (i) the apprentice of his own free will and with the consent of the guardian binds himself to serve the employer as his apprentice in his trade of fur dressing and dyeing for a term of four years;
 - (ii) the apprentice shall during the period of service attend at his own expense or that of his guardian such classes outside the factory as his employer may from time to time recommend;
 - (iii) the employer shall keep the worker as his apprentice during the said term and to the best of his power, skill and knowledge instruct the apprentice or cause him to be instructed in hand fleshing or rotary machine fleshing or shaving or unhairing, and during the first six months of service shall give the apprentice opportunity for spending a proportion of his time on work in all sections in the dressing and dyeing shop as carried on by the employer;
 - (iv) the employer shall keep the apprentice under his own supervision or place him under a fully qualified journeyman;
 - (v) during the first six months of service the employer shall not put the apprentice on piece work;
- (b) in the establishment in which the apprentice is employed the number of apprentices to dressing and dyeing shall be limited in proportion to the number of journeymen in the service of the employer in the Dressers' and Dyers' Section at the time of the engagement of the apprentice as follows:—

Number of Journeymen	Number of Apprentices
5 or under	1
From 6 to 10	2
From 11 to 15	3
From 16 to 20	4
From 21 to 25	5

and thereafter in the proportion of one additional apprentice to each additional five journeymen, any number of journeymen in excess of an exact multiple of five being treated as five;

- (c) the apprentice shall be the holder of a certificate of registration of apprenticeship issued by the Wages Council or shall have made application jointly with the employer to the Wages Council for such a certificate which has been acknowledged and is still under consideration:

Provided that the certification of an apprentice may be cancelled by the Wages Council if the other conditions of apprenticeship are not complied with.

(2) For the purpose of determining the proportion of apprentices to journeymen in accordance with the provisions of the last preceding sub-paragraph, "journeyman" means a worker employed as a hand flesher, rotary machine flesher, shaver or unhairer to whom there apply the general minimum piece rates for fleshers, shavers or unhairers specified in Part VI of this Schedule or the general minimum time rates for such workers specified in paragraph 9, and an employer who employs no journeymen but personally instructs the apprentice shall be treated as a journeyman.

PROSPECTIVE APPRENTICES

20. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Schedule, where an employer employs a worker as a prospective apprentice for a probationary period not exceeding four weeks and all the appropriate conditions as to apprenticeship other than those with regard to employment under a written contract of apprenticeship and certification by the Wages Council are fulfilled, the minimum remuneration applicable to that worker during the said period shall be that applicable to an apprentice employed in accordance with the conditions specified in paragraph 18 or paragraph 19 as the case may be and, in the event of the worker being continued thereafter at his employment as an apprentice, the said probationary period shall for the purpose of this Schedule be treated as part of the period of apprenticeship, whether or not it is included therein.

LEARNERS TO CUTTING AND NAILING

21. The general minimum time rates specified in sub-paragraph (4) of paragraph 3 apply to a learner to cutting and nailing who (not being an apprentice to whom the minimum rates in sub-paragraph (3) of that paragraph apply) is employed during the whole or a substantial part of his time for a period not exceeding five years in learning cutting and nailing by an employer who provides him with reasonable facilities for such learning.

LEARNERS TO MACHINING, LINING, FINISHING OR HAND FUR SEWING

22. The minimum rates specified in sub-paragraph (3) of paragraph 5 apply to a learner to machining, lining, finishing or hand fur sewing, or to two or more of such operations, who is employed during the whole or a substantial part of her time for a period not exceeding five years in learning machining, lining, finishing or hand fur sewing, or two or more of such operations, by an employer who provides her with reasonable facilities for such learning.

24.—(1) The general minimum piece rate for paring out all over from pickle or leather, where no piece rate is specified in Column 4 of Table I of paragraph 23, shall be an amount equal to one-third of the appropriate general minimum piece rate for hand fleshing or machine fleshing applicable to the worker under the provisions of paragraph 23.

(2) The general minimum piece rate for tubbing shall be an amount equal to the appropriate general minimum piece rate for hand fleshing (excluding extras) applicable to the worker under the provisions of paragraph 23.

25. In this Part of this Schedule,

(1) "BEAM WORK" means—

- (a) such damping as may be required on all skins (except beaver, hair or fur seals) after liquoring by tubber has been completed; and
- (b) cutting down and shaving, or either of these operations;

(2) "HAND FLESHING" means—

- (a) fleshing throughout after all liquoring and damping has been completed for the fleshers;
- (b) cleaning off afterwards where imperfect fleshing has been done in the initial stages; and
- (c) cutting open and pulling over or either of such operations in the raw state before or after fleshing or damping;

(3) "FLESHING THROUGHOUT" does not include boning of fleshing tails, shaving, paring out, thinning edges, boning paws or burring ears (that is to say, taking shells completely out) where separate piece rates are specified for those operations in this Part of this Schedule, but includes, in the case of hand fleshing, any damping of completed skins performed by the flesher at his own option;

(4) "MACHINE FLESHING" means—

- (a) fleshing throughout on a rotary or banjo machine;
- (b) cleaning off afterwards where imperfect fleshing has been done in the initial stages; and
- (c) cutting open and pulling over or either of such operations in the raw state before or after fleshing or damping;

(5) "PARING OUT" means shaving, paring out, thinning edges;

(6) "PULLING" means removing upper portion of hair;

(7) "TUBBING" means—

- (a) preparing skins for the flesher and after fleshing leathering them in a tub and completing the dressing, or
- (b) preparing skins for the flesher and after fleshing preparing them and putting them through the machine for leathering and completing the dressing;

(8) "UNHAIRING" means preparing skins by soaking and heating and removing hair.

SCHEDULE 2

HOLIDAYS AND HOLIDAY REMUNERATION

The Wages Regulation (Fur) (Holidays) Order 1970^(a) (Order Z. (90)) shall have effect as if in the Schedule thereto for the definition of "one day's holiday pay" in paragraph 11 there were substituted the following definition:—

"one day's holiday pay' means—

- (1) the appropriate proportion of the remuneration which the worker would be entitled to receive from his employer at the date of the annual holiday, or at the termination of the employment, as the case may require, for one week's work if working his normal working week and the number of daily hours normally worked by him (exclusive of overtime)—

(a) in the case of a time worker, under the arrangement current immediately prior to the holiday;

(b) in the case of a piece worker other than a fletcher, shaver and unhairer, if he were employed as a time worker at a time rate equal to the piece work basis time rate of statutory minimum remuneration then applicable to him as a piece worker or where no piece work basis time rate is applicable, at the appropriate hourly general minimum time rate of statutory minimum remuneration;

- (2) in the case of piece workers employed as fletchers, shavers and unhairers

Males	Females
£3.30	£2.24

In this definition 'appropriate proportion' means—

where the worker's normal working week is six days	...	one-sixth where the worker's normal working week is five days	...	one-fifth
where the worker's normal working week is four days	...	one-quarter where the worker's normal working week is three days	...	one-third where the worker's normal working week is two days	...	one-half."

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

This Order has effect from 13th September 1971. Schedule 1 sets out the statutory minimum remuneration payable in substitution for that fixed by the Wages Regulation (Fur) Order 1970 (Order Z. (89)), which order is revoked. Schedule 2 amends the Wages Regulation (Fur) (Holidays) Order 1970 (Order Z. (90)) by providing for increased holiday remuneration for certain piece-workers.

New provisions are printed in italics.
