- (4) Where a civilian, to whom Part II of the Act is applied by section 208A or section 209 of the Act, is charged with an offence with which an appropriate superior authority can deal summarily, it shall not be necessary for his commanding officer to read the charge to the accused ; but it shall be a sufficient compliance with the provisions of this Rule if his commanding officer causes to be delivered to the accused a copy of the charge and of the abstract of evidence and considers them together with any statement made by the accused under Rule 10(2) and any statements of witnesses submitted by the accused under Rule 10(3).

- (c) a child shall not be called as a prosecution witness in any case where the charge being investigated is for a sexual offence and any statement made in writing by or taken in writing from the child which would be admissible if given orally may be read to the accused and included in the summary of evidence :

Provided that this paragraph shall have no application where the child can be compelled to attend and the accused objects to the application of this paragraph or the officer taking the summary of evidence requires the attendance of the child for the purpose of establishing the identity of any person or is satisfied it has not been possible to obtain from the child a statement that may be given in evidence under this paragraph ;

summary (to be certified by him in writing), be readily procured, a written statement of his evidence, purporting to be signed by him, may be read to the accused and included in the summary of evidence ;

- (f) neither the accused nor the witnesses for the defence shall be subject to cross-examination ;

“This is a copy of the abstract of evidence in your case ; you are not obliged to say anything with regard to it unless you wish to do so, but you should read it and, when you have read it, if you wish to say anything, what you say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.”

Any statement made by the accused after he has read the abstract of evidence shall be taken down in writing and he shall be asked to sign it.

RECORD OF PROCEEDINGS

92.—(1) The proceedings of general and district courts-martial shall be recorded in accordance with the following provisions:—

(a) the proceedings of a court-martial shall be recorded in writing in accordance with the appropriate form set out in Schedule 4 to these Rules and in sufficient detail to enable the confirming officer to follow the course of the proceedings and to judge of the merits of the case;

(b) when there is no shorthand writer present the evidence should be taken down in narrative form as nearly as possible in the words used:

Provided that if the court, judge advocate, prosecutor or accused consider it necessary, any particular question and answer shall be taken down verbatim;

(c) when an objection, submission or application is made during a trial at which there is no shorthand writer, a record shall be made of the proceedings relating to such objection, submission or application if and in such detail as the court or judge advocate thinks fit:

Provided that if the prosecutor or accused so requests a note shall be made of the objection, submission or application, the grounds therefor, the advice of the judge advocate (if any) thereon and the decision of the court;

(d) when any address by the prosecutor or the accused or summing up of the judge advocate is not in writing and there is no shorthand writer present, it shall only be necessary to record so much of such address or summing up as the court or judge advocate thinks proper:

Provided that if the prosecutor or accused so requests a note shall be made of any particular point in such address or summing up;

(e) there shall not be recorded in the record of the proceedings any matter not forming part of the trial; but if any comment or report seems to the court to be necessary, the president may forward it to the proper military authority in a separate document.

(2) When a shorthand writer has been appointed to act at a trial by court-martial in pursuance of Rule 31, a transcript of the shorthand note of the proceedings shall only be made of that portion of the proceedings which relates to any charge upon which the accused has been found guilty and such other portions of the proceedings as may be required by the confirming officer or, in the event of the accused being found not guilty of all the charges, the officer who would have been the confirming officer if the accused had been found guilty of any of the charges.

(3) The proceedings of a field general court-martial shall so far as is practicable be recorded in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (1) of this Rule and the record must in any event contain the names of the president and members constituting the court and the judge advocate (if any), the name and description of the accused, the charge-sheet, all pleas, a brief summary of the evidence and the finding and sentence.

Exhibits

93.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2) of this Rule, any document or thing admitted in evidence shall be made an exhibit.

(2) When an original document or book is produced to the court by a witness, the court may at the request of the witness compare a copy of it or an extract of the relevant parts therefrom with the original, and after they have satisfied themselves that such copy or extract is correct and the president or the judge advocate has certified thereon that the court have compared it with the original and found it correct, the court may return the document or book to the witness and attach the copy or extract to the record of the proceedings as an exhibit.

(3) Every exhibit shall:—

(a) be marked with a number or letter and be signed by the president or judge advocate or have a label bearing a number or letter and the signature of the president or judge advocate affixed to it;

(b) be attached to or kept with the record of the proceedings, unless in the opinion of the court having regard to the nature of the exhibit or for other good reason it is not expedient to attach it to or keep it with the record.

(4) When an exhibit is not attached to or kept with the record of the proceedings under paragraph (3)(b) of this Rule, the president shall ensure that proper steps are taken for its safe custody.

Custody and inspection of record of proceedings during trial

94.—(1) During a trial at which there is no judge advocate, the record of the proceedings and the exhibits shall be deemed to be in the custody of the president. During a trial at which there is a judge advocate the record and the exhibits shall be deemed to be in the custody of the judge advocate, save when he is not present in closed court when they shall be deemed to be in the custody of the president.

(2) With the permission of the court, the prosecutor or the accused may at any reasonable time before the trial is concluded have a particular part of the record of the proceedings read to him, and, if proper precautions are taken for its safety, inspect any exhibit.

CONFIRMATION, REVISION AND PROMULGATION

Confirmation and promulgation

95.—(1) When a confirming officer receives the record of the proceedings of a court-martial and the finding of the court requires confirmation, he shall record his decision thereon and on any sentence and any order which the court may have made under section 138 of the Act, on the record of the proceedings in the appropriate form set out in Schedule 4 to these Rules, and such record of his decision shall form part of the record of the proceedings.

(2) When a court have accepted a plea of guilty made under Rule 41(2), the confirming officer may confirm their finding notwithstanding that the court have accepted the plea without the concurrence of the convening officer if, in the opinion of the confirming officer, it is in the interests of justice to do so.

(3) When a court have rejected a plea to the jurisdiction of the court or a plea in bar of trial or have overruled an objection to a charge, it shall not be necessary for the confirming officer to approve specifically the decision of the court, but his approval shall be implied from his confirming the finding on the charge to which the plea or objection relates. If he disapproves the decision of the court to reject the plea or to overrule the objection, he shall withhold confirmation of the finding on the charge to which the plea or objection relates.

(4) A confirming officer may state his reasons for withholding confirmation in any case, but if he withholds confirmation where a court have rejected a plea to the jurisdiction or a plea in bar of trial or have overruled an objection to the charge, because he disapproves this decision of the court, he shall when recording his decision under paragraph (1) of this Rule state that he has withheld confirmation for this reason.

(5) If the sentence of a court-martial is informally expressed, the confirming officer may in confirming the sentence vary the form thereof so that it shall be properly expressed.

(6) Whenever it appears that there is sufficient evidence or a plea of guilty under either paragraph (1) or paragraph (2) of Rule 41 to justify the finding of the court, such finding and any lawful sentence consequent thereon may be confirmed, and if confirmed shall be valid, notwithstanding any deviation from these Rules, if the accused has not been prejudiced by such deviation.

(7) When a confirming officer has confirmed a finding and sentence of a court or has withheld confirmation thereof, he shall send the record of the proceedings to the commanding officer of the accused for promulgation to the accused of the finding and sentence, or of the fact that confirmation has been withheld, as the case may be. The fact of promulgation shall be recorded on the record of the proceedings in the form set out in Schedule 4 to these Rules. If confirmation has been withheld because the confirming officer disapproves the court's decision to reject a plea to the jurisdiction or a plea in bar of trial or to overrule an objection to the charge, the accused shall be so informed.

Revision

96.—(1) The proceedings and decision of a court on revision shall be recorded on the record of the proceedings in the appropriate form set out in Schedule 4 to these Rules, and the president shall date and sign such record and decision and return it to the confirming officer, after it has been signed by the judge advocate (if any).

(2) When an accused is acquitted on revision the revised finding shall be communicated to the accused in such manner as may be specified by the confirming officer.

LOSS OF PROCEEDINGS

Loss of original record of proceedings before confirmation

97.—(1) If before confirmation the whole or any part of the original record of the proceedings of a court-martial is lost and a copy exists, such copy may, if the president or the judge advocate certifies it to be correct, be accepted and used in lieu of the original.

(2) If before confirmation the whole or any part of the original record of the proceedings of a court-martial is lost and no copy thereof exists, but evidence of the proceedings of the court can be procured to enable the record or part thereof which has been lost to be reconstituted sufficiently to permit the confirming officer to follow the course of the proceedings and to judge of the merits of the case, the record as so reconstituted may, with the consent of the accused, be accepted and used in lieu of the original:

Provided that where part only of the original record of the proceedings of a court-martial has been lost, and the part which remains is sufficient to enable the confirming officer to follow the course of the proceedings and judge of the merits of the case, such remaining part may, with the consent of the accused, be accepted and used as if it were the complete record, and in such case it shall not be necessary to reconstitute the part of the record which has been lost.

(3) If before confirmation the whole or any part of the original record of the proceedings of a court-martial is lost and such loss cannot be made good under either paragraph (1) or paragraph (2) of this Rule, the confirming officer shall withhold confirmation and shall record his decision in the appropriate form set out in Schedule 4 to these Rules.

Loss of original record of proceedings after confirmation

98. If after confirmation the whole or any part of the original record of the proceedings of a court-martial is lost and a copy thereof is certified by the president or the judge advocate to be correct, or a sufficient record of the charge, finding, sentence and proceedings before the court and of the confirmation of the finding and sentence remains or can be reconstituted to permit of the case being reviewed or the sentence reconsidered, such copy or reconstituted record or remaining part of the record may be accepted and used in lieu of the original.

CUSTODY OF THE RECORD AFTER CONFIRMATION

Custody and preservation of record of proceedings after confirmation

(4) If an accused who has been sentenced by a court-martial wishes to petition after promulgation against the sentence, he shall present a petition to a reviewing authority or an officer authorised to reconsider a sentence of a court-martial under section 114 of the Act at any time within six months of promulgation in the appropriate form set out in Schedule 7 to these Rules.

(5) In any of the circumstances specified in the first column of the list of persons to whom petitions may be presented under this Rule which is set out in Schedule 7 to these Rules, an appeal petition or a petition under paragraph (3) or paragraph (4) of this Rule which is presented to the person specified in relation to those circumstances in the second column of that list shall be treated as having been presented to the authority to whom the petition is addressed.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Rules.)

These Rules, which are made under s. 103 of the Army Act 1955, make provision with respect to the investigation and trial of, and awarding of punishment for, offences cognizable by courts-martial, appropriate superior authorities and commanding officers, and with respect to the confirmation and revision of findings and sentences of courts-martial. They supersede Rules of Procedure (Army) 1956 (S.I. 1956/162—hereby revoked).

Important changes are:—

- (i) Rules 9 and 10 make provision for statements of defence witnesses to be included in the summary of evidence or attached to the abstract of evidence.
- (ii) Rule 12 provides that a commanding officer shall inform the accused at the time he remands him for a trial of the requirements of s. 11 of the Criminal Justice Act 1967 (notice of alibi) unless it appears to him unnecessary to do so.
- (iii) Rule 22 provides that the president of a court-martial will only be sent a copy of the summary or abstract of evidence in a case where a judge advocate has not been appointed.
- (iv) Rule 35 enables a court, where an accused has pleaded “guilty”, to deal with any subsequent charge sheet before complying with Rule 45.
- (v) Rule 71(3)(c) makes provision that on conviction evidence of the antecedent history of the accused shall include details of all previous findings of guilty by a civil court. This conforms with the practice in the civil courts.
- (vi) Rule 81 provides that a judge advocate may determine additional issues in the absence of the court. These issues are a plea in bar of trial, an application to treat a witness as hostile and a submission that the prosecution has not established a prima facie case.
- (vii) Rule 92 provides that a transcript of the shorthand writer’s notes of the proceedings of a trial shall not be required where the accused is acquitted unless required by the confirming officer.
- (viii) Rule 102 makes provision for the powers conferred by s. 7 of the Bankers’ Books Evidence Act 1879 to be exercised for the purposes of a court-martial by order of the convening officer.

Other minor changes have been made to the Rules and Schedules thereto consequent upon the coming into force of the Armed Forces Act 1971.
