INVESTIGATION OF CHARGES BY COMMANDING OFFICER

Methods of investigating charges

7.—(1) Subject to paragraphs (3) and (4) of this Rule, when a commanding officer investigates a charge he shall first read and, if necessary, explain the charge to the accused and shall then:

- (a) hear the evidence himself in accordance with Rule 8; or
- (b) cause the evidence to be reduced to writing, in accordance with paragraph (2) of this Rule, and read and consider it:

Provided that:

- (a) notwithstanding that he has heard all or part of the evidence himself, he may cause the evidence to be reduced to writing;
- (b) after the evidence has been reduced to writing and he has considered it, he may himself hear evidence in accordance with Rule 8; and
- (c) before he submits to higher authority a charge against an officer or warrant officer or a civilian to whom Part II of the Act is applied by section 208A or section 209 of the Act or remands a non-commissioned officer or airman for trial by court-martial he shall cause the evidence to be reduced to writing.

(2) Evidence may be reduced to writing in the form of a summary of evidence taken in accordance with Rule 9 or an abstract of evidence made in accordance with Rule 10:

Provided that a summary of evidence must be taken if:—

- (a) the maximum punishment for the offence with which the accused is charged is death; or
- (b) the accused, at any time before the charge against him is referred to higher authority in accordance with Rule 13 requires in writing that a summary of evidence be taken; or
- (c) the commanding officer is of the opinion that the interests of justice require that a summary of evidence be taken.

(3) Where the evidence taken in accordance with paragraph (1) of this Rule discloses an offence other than the offence which is the subject of the investigation, a new charge alleging that offence may be preferred against the accused in addition to, or in substitution for, the original charge and the investigation of the original charge may be treated, for the purposes of these Rules, as the investigation of the added or substituted charge.

(4) Where a civilian, to whom Part II of the Act is applied by section 208A or section 209 of the Act, is charged with an offence with which an appropriate superior authority can deal summarily, it shall not be necessary for his commanding officer to read the charge to the accused: but it shall be a sufficient compliance with the provisions of this Rule if his commanding officer causes to be delivered to the accused a copy of the charge and of the abstract of evidence and considers them together with any statement made by the accused under Rule 10(2), and any statements of witnesses submitted by the accused under Rule 10(3).

Hearing of evidence by commanding officer

8. When a commanding officer investigates a charge by hearing the evidence himself:

- (d) the accused may call witnesses in his defence, who shall give their evidence orally and in his presence;
- (e) the evidence shall not be given on oath unless the commanding officer so directs or the accused so demands;
- (f) if the evidence is given on oath, the commanding officer shall, subject to the accused's right to make a statement without being sworn, administer the oath to each witness and to any interpreter in accordance with Rule 34.

Summary of evidence

9. A summary of evidence shall be taken in the following manner and shall be in accordance with the form set out in Schedule 1 to these Rules:

- (a) it shall be taken in the presence of the accused by the commanding officer or by another officer on the direction of the commanding officer;

- (b) the prosecution witnesses shall give their evidence orally and the accused shall be allowed to cross-examine any prosecution witness;

Provided that, if a person cannot be compelled to attend as a prosecution witness or if, owing to the exigencies of the service or on other grounds (including the expense and loss of time involved), the attendance of any prosecution witness cannot, in the opinion of the officer taking the summary (to be certified by him in writing), be readily procured, a written statement of his evidence, purporting to be signed by him, may be read to the accused and included in the summary of evidence; but, if such witness can be compelled to attend, the accused may insist that he shall attend for cross-examination;

- (c) A child shall not be called as a prosecution witness in any case where the charge being investigated is for a sexual offence and any statement made in writing by or taken in writing from the child which would be admissible if given orally may be read to the accused and included in the summary of evidence:

Provided that this paragraph shall have no application where the child can be compelled to attend and the accused objects to the application of this paragraph or the officer taking the summary of evidence requires the attendance of the child for the purpose of establishing the identity of any person or is satisfied it has not been possible to obtain from the child a statement that may be given in evidence under this paragraph;

- (d) after all the evidence against the accused has been given, the accused shall be asked:

“Do you wish to say anything? You are not obliged to do so, but, if you wish, you may give evidence on oath, or you may make a statement without being sworn. Any evidence you give or statement you make will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.”

Any evidence given or statement made by the accused shall be recorded in writing and, immediately thereafter, the record of his evidence or statement shall be read over to him and corrected where necessary and he shall be asked to sign it;

- (e) the accused may call witnesses in his defence, who shall give their evidence orally;

Provided that, if a person cannot be compelled to attend as a defence witness or if, owing to the exigencies of the service or other grounds (including the expense and loss of time involved), the attendance of any defence witness cannot, in the opinion of the officer taking the summary (to be certified by him in writing), be readily procured, a written statement of his evidence, purporting to be signed by him, may be read to the accused and included in the summary of evidence;

- (f) neither the accused nor the witnesses for the defence shall be subject to cross-examination;

- (g) the evidence of each witness (other than the accused) who gives evidence orally shall be recorded in writing and, immediately thereafter, the record of his evidence shall be read over to him, corrected where necessary and signed by him;

- (h) the record of the evidence may be in narrative form, save that any question put to a witness in cross-examination by the accused, and the answer thereto, shall be recorded verbatim if the accused so requires;

- (i) the oath shall be administered in accordance with Rule 34 by the officer taking the summary of evidence, to each witness before he gives his evidence, and to any interpreter:

Provided that, where any child of tender years, called as a witness, does not, in the opinion of the officer taking the summary, understand the nature of an oath his evidence may be received, though not given upon oath, if, in the opinion of the officer taking the summary, he is possessed of sufficient intelligence to justify the reception of the evidence and understands the duty of speaking the truth; and

- (j) at the conclusion of the taking of the summary of evidence, the officer taking it shall certify thereon that he has complied with the provisions of this Rule.

10.—(1) An abstract of evidence shall be made in the following way and shall be in accordance with the form set out in Schedule 1 to these Rules:

- (b) the accused should not be present while the abstract of evidence is being made;
- (c) it shall consist of signed statements by such witnesses as are necessary to prove the charge and such statements of witnesses as are submitted by the accused in accordance with paragraph (3) of this Rule;

Provided that if, in the case of any witness, a signed statement is not readily procurable, a precis of the evidence to be given by that witness may be included instead of a signed statement; and

- (d) an oath shall not be administered to a witness making a statement for inclusion in an abstract of evidence, but use may be made, where necessary, of sworn statements which are already in existence.

(2) When an abstract of evidence has been made in accordance with paragraph (1) of this Rule, a copy of it shall be handed to the accused and he shall then be cautioned in the following terms:—

“This is a copy of the abstract of evidence in your case; you are not obliged to say anything with regard to it unless you wish to do so, but you should read it and, when you have read it, if you wish to say anything what you say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.”

Any statement made by the accused after he has read the abstract of evidence shall be taken down in writing and he shall be asked to sign it.

(3) After the accused has been given an opportunity of making a statement in accordance with paragraph (2) of this Rule, and after his statement (if any) has been recorded, he may submit to the officer making the abstract the statement of any witnesses he wishes to be attached to the abstract of evidence.

(4) Any statement made by the accused in accordance with paragraph (2) of this Rule and any statements of witnesses submitted by him in accordance with paragraph (3) of this Rule shall be attached to the abstract of evidence.

(5) A certificate by the person who recorded the statement made by the accused in accordance with paragraph (2) of this Rule, stating that the accused was duly cautioned in accordance with this Rule, shall be attached to the abstract of evidence and shall thereafter form part of it. This certificate shall be in the form set out in Schedule 1 to these Rules.

Reference of charges to higher authority

13.—(1) When a commanding officer submits to higher authority a charge against an officer or warrant officer or a civilian to whom Part II of the Act is applied by section 208A or section 209 of the Act, or has remanded a non-commissioned officer or airman for trial by court-martial he shall send to higher authority:—

(b) S.I. 1967/1807 (1967 III, p. 4830).

Provided that charges under section, 37(1) section 38, section 46(1) (where the charge is connected with a charge under either of the before mentioned provisions) or section 56 of the Act may be included in any charge-sheet, notwithstanding that other charges in that charge-sheet are not founded on the same facts and do not form or are not part of a series of offences of the same or a similar character.

(2) Every charge-sheet shall in its layout follow the appropriate illustration given in Schedule 2 to these Rules.

(3) The commencement of each charge-sheet shall be in the appropriate form set out in Schedule 2 to these Rules and shall state the number, rank, name and unit of the accused and show by the description of the accused or directly by an express averment that he is subject to air-force law or otherwise liable to trial by court-martial.

Charges

15.—(1) Each charge shall state one offence only.

(2) Offences may be charged in the alternative in separate charges but in no case shall they be charged in the alternative in the same charge. When charges are laid in the alternative they should be set out in order of gravity commencing with the most serious.

(3) Each charge shall consist of two parts, namely:—

(b) when the offence charged is one which can be committed either in circumstances involving a higher degree of punishment or in circumstances involving a less degree of punishment, facts which it is intended to prove as rendering the accused liable to the higher degree of punishment if convicted; and

(c) any additional facts which it is intended to prove as rendering the accused liable to the punishment of stoppages if convicted.

Joint Charges

16.—(1) Any number of accused may be charged in the same charge-sheet with offences alleged to have been committed by them separately, if the acts on which the charges are founded are so connected that it is in the interests of justice that they be tried together.

(2)(a) Any number of accused may be charged jointly in one charge for an offence committed by them jointly.

(b) Where so charged any one or more of such accused may at the same time be charged in the same charge-sheet with any other offence alleged to have been committed by him or them individually or jointly:

Provided that such charges could, if the accused to whom they relate had been tried separately, have been included under Rule 14(1) in the same charge-sheet as the other charges against him.

Construction of charge-sheets and charges

In the construction of a charge-sheet or charge there shall be presumed in favour of supporting it every proposition which may reasonably be presumed to be impliedly included, though not expressed therein, and the statement of the offence and the particulars of the offence shall be read and construed together.

When a higher authority receives a charge against an accused, he shall, if he does not refer it back to the commanding officer or deal summarily with it himself or himself convene a court-martial to try the accused, refer the charge either to an appropriate superior authority in order that that authority may deal summarily with it or to the officer who would be responsible for convening the appropriate court-martial to try the accused; and shall, when he so refers the charge, send to the appropriate superior authority or other officer concerned the documents mentioned in Rule 13 together with his own recommendations as to how the case should be proceeded with.

If the witnesses against the accused do not give their evidence orally the appropriate superior authority shall read the summary or abstract of evidence to the accused if he so requires;

- (e) there shall not be recorded in the record of the proceedings any matter not forming part of the trial, but if any comment or report seems to the court to be necessary, the president may forward it to the proper air-force authority in a separate document.

93.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2) of this Rule, any document or thing admitted in evidence shall be made an exhibit.

(2) When an original document or book is produced to the court by a witness, the court may at the request of the witness compare a copy of it or an extract of the relevant parts therefrom with the original, and after they have satisfied themselves, that such copy or extract is correct and the president or the judge advocate has certified thereon that the court have compared it with the original and found it correct, the court may return the document or book to the witness and attach the copy or extract to the record of the proceedings as an exhibit.

(3) Every exhibit shall:—

(a) be marked with a number or letter and be signed by the president or judge advocate or have a label bearing a number or letter and the signature of the president or judge advocate affixed to it.

(4) When an exhibit is not attached to or kept with the record of the proceedings under paragraph (3)(b) of this Rule, the president shall ensure that proper steps are taken for its safe custody.

Custody and inspection of record of proceedings during trial

(2) With the permission of the court, the prosecutor or the accused may at any reasonable time before the trial is concluded have a particular part of the record of the proceedings read to him, and, if proper precautions are taken for its safety, inspect any exhibit.

CONFIRMATION, REVISION AND PROMULGATION

Confirmation and promulgation

95.—(1) When a confirming officer receives the record of the proceedings of a court-martial and the finding of the court requires confirmation, he shall record his decision thereon and on any sentence and any order which the court may have made under section 138 of the Act, on the record of the proceedings in the appropriate form set out in Schedule 4 to these Rules, and such record of his decision shall form part of the record of the proceedings.

(2) When a court have accepted a plea of guilty made under Rule 41(2), the confirming officer may confirm their finding notwithstanding that the court have accepted the plea without the concurrence of the convening officer if, in the opinion of the confirming officer, it is in the interests of justice to do so.

(3) When a court have rejected a plea to the jurisdiction of the court or a plea in bar of trial or have overruled an objection to a charge, it shall not be necessary for the confirming officer to approve specifically the decision of the court, but his approval shall be implied from his confirming the finding on the charge to which the plea or objection relates. If he disapproves the decision of the court to reject the plea or to overrule the objection, he shall withhold confirmation of the finding on the charge to which the plea or objection relates.

(4) The confirming officer may state his reasons for withholding confirmation in any case, but if he withholds confirmation where the court have rejected a plea to the jurisdiction or a plea in bar of trial or have overruled an objection to the charge, because he disapproves this decision of the court, he shall when recording his decision under paragraph (1) of this Rule state that he has withheld confirmation for this reason.

(5) If the sentence of a court-martial is informally expressed, the confirming officer may in confirming the sentence vary the form thereof so that it shall be properly expressed.

(6) Whenever it appears that there is sufficient evidence or a plea of guilty under either paragraph (1) or paragraph (2) of Rule 41 to justify the finding of the court, such finding and any lawful sentence consequent thereon may be confirmed, and if confirmed shall be valid, notwithstanding any deviation from these Rules, if the accused has not been prejudiced by such deviation.

(7) When a confirming officer has confirmed a finding and sentence of a court or has withheld confirmation thereof, he shall send the record of the proceedings to the commanding officer of the accused for promulgation to the accused of the finding and sentence, or of the fact that confirmation has been withheld, as the case may be. The fact of promulgation shall be recorded on the record of the proceedings in the form set out in Schedule 4 to these Rules. If confirmation has been withheld because the confirming officer disapproves the court's decision to reject a plea to the jurisdiction or a plea in bar of trial or to overrule an objection to the charge, the accused shall be so informed.

Revision

96.—(1) The proceedings and decision of a court on revision shall be recorded on the record of the proceedings in the appropriate form set out in Schedule 4 to these Rules, and the president shall date and sign such record and decision and return it to the confirming officer, after it has been signed by the judge advocate (if any).

(2) When an accused is acquitted on revision the revised finding shall be communicated to the accused in such manner as may be specified by the confirming officer.

97.—(1) If before confirmation the whole or any part of the original record of the proceedings of a court-martial is lost and a copy exists, such copy may, if the president or the judge advocate certifies it to be correct, be accepted and used in lieu of the original.

(2) If before confirmation the whole or any part of the original record of the proceedings of a court-martial is lost and no copy thereof exists, but evidence of the proceedings of the court can be procured to enable the record or part thereof which has been lost to be reconstituted sufficiently to permit the confirming officer to follow the course of the proceedings and to judge of the merits of the case, the record as so reconstituted may, with the consent of the accused, be accepted and used in lieu of the original:

Provided that where part only of the original record of the proceedings of a court-martial has been lost, and the part which remains is sufficient to enable the confirming officer to follow the course of the proceedings and judge of the merits of the case, such remaining part may, with the consent of the accused, be accepted and used as if it were the complete record, and in such case it shall not be necessary to reconstitute the part of the record which has been lost.

(3) If before confirmation the whole or any part of the original record of the proceedings of a court-martial is lost and such loss cannot be made good under either paragraph (1) or paragraph (2) of this Rule, the confirming officer shall withhold confirmation and shall record his decision in the appropriate form set out in Schedule 4 to these Rules.

Loss of original record of proceedings after confirmation

98. If after confirmation the whole or any part of the original record of the proceedings of a court-martial is lost and a copy thereof is certified by the president or the judge advocate to be correct, or a sufficient record of the charge, finding, sentence and proceedings before the court and of the confirmation of the finding and sentence remains or can be reconstituted to permit of the case being reviewed or the sentence reconsidered, such copy or reconstituted record or remaining part of the record may be accepted and used in lieu of the original.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Rules.)

1. These Rules, which are made under section 103 of the Air Force Act, 1955 make provision with regard to the investigation, trial of, and awarding of punishment for, offences cognisable by court-martial, appropriate superior authorities and commanding officers, and with regard to the confirmation and revision of findings and sentences of courts-martial. They replace, with several important amendments, the Rules of Procedure (Air Force), 1956 (S.I. 1956/163).

2. The principal changes are:—

- (i) Rules 9 and 10 make provision for statements of defence witnesses to be included in the summary of evidence or attached to the abstract of evidence.
- (ii) Rule 12 requires a commanding officer, in appropriate cases, to warn an accused whom he remands for trial by court-martial of the requirements of s 11 Criminal Justice Act, 1967 (notice of alibi).
- (iii) Rule 22 provides that the president of a court-martial will only be supplied with a copy of the summary or abstract of evidence before the trial if a judge advocate is not appointed.
- (iv) Rule 35 gives a court, where an accused has pleaded 'guilty' to a charge, a discretion to defer compliance with Rule 45 until they have arrived at their findings on a subsequent charge sheet.
- (v) Rule 71 requires that, on conviction, evidence of the accused's antecedent history shall include details of all previous findings of guilt by a civil court. This conforms with the practice in the civil courts.

- (vi) Rule 81 provides that a judge advocate may determine additional issues in the absence of the court. These issues are a plea in bar of trial, an application to treat a witness as hostile and a submission that the prosecution has not established a prima facie case.
 - (vii) Rule 92 provides that a transcript of the shorthand writer's notes of the proceedings shall not be required where an accused is acquitted unless it is required by the confirming officer.
 - (viii) Rule 102 allows the convening officer to exercise the powers conferred by s 7 Bankers' Books Evidence Act, 1879.
3. Other minor changes and additions have been made to the Rules and Schedules consequent upon the coming into operation of the Armed Forces Act, 1971.
