1972 No. 437

The Commons Registration (Disposal of Disputed Registrations) Regulations 1972

Noting of certain rights registrations

5. Where a registration of a right of common which has become final contains a statement, in whatever terms, that the right is exercisable also over land comprised in another register unit, and the registration of the right as exercisable over that land is cancelled or becomes void, or is modified so as to be exercisable over part only of that land, the registration authority shall enter a note to that effect in the register unit containing the first-mentioned registration, and a cross-reference between the note and the registration.
