

1973 No. 1281TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT*The Redundancy Payments (Merchant Seamen Exclusion)
Order 1973Laid before Parliament in draftMade - - - - 23rd July 1973Coming into Operation 1st September 1973*

The Secretary of State in exercise of powers conferred by section 16(6) of the Redundancy Payments Act 1965(a) and now vested in him(b), and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following Order, a draft of which has been laid before Parliament and approved by resolution of each House of Parliament:—

Citation, commencement and revocation

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Redundancy Payments (Merchant Seamen Exclusion) Order 1973 and shall come into operation on 1st September 1973.

(2) The Redundancy Payments Exclusion of Merchant Seamen Order 1968(c) is hereby revoked.

Interpretation

2.—(1) The Interpretation Act 1889(d) shall apply to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament and as if this Order and the Order hereby revoked were Acts of Parliament.

(2) In this Order, unless the context otherwise requires, the following expressions have the meanings hereby assigned to them respectively, that is to say—

“the Act” means the Redundancy Payments Act 1965;

“employment” has the same meaning as in section 25(1) of the Act and cognate expressions shall be construed accordingly;

“merchant seamen” does not include any person employed in the fishing industry or any person employed on board a ship otherwise than by the owner, manager or charterer of that ship except a person so employed as a

(a) 1965 c. 62.

(b) S.I. 1968/729 (1968 II, p. 2108).

(c) S.I. 1968/1201 (1968 II, p.3223).

(d) 1889 c. 63.

radio officer but save as aforesaid includes a master or a member of the crew of any ship, an apprentice to the sea service, a person employed as a trainee undergoing training for the sea service, and a person ordinarily employed as a merchant seaman who is employed in or about a ship in port by the owner, manager or charterer of the ship to do work of a kind ordinarily done by a merchant seaman on such a ship while it is in port;

“relevant employment” means employment as a merchant seaman of a person who—

- (a) is neither domiciled nor has a place of residence in Great Britain; or
- (b) is serving in a ship under articles which include, or is employed in a ship under a crew agreement which includes a requirement to observe National Maritime Board terms and conditions of employment for the time being in force, being a ship in respect of which the owner, manager or charterer is represented by an organisation affiliated to the National Maritime Board; or
- (c) is serving in a ship as a radio officer employed by a marine wireless company incorporated in Great Britain; or
- (d) is on leave (including leave in respect of incapacity for work due to sickness or injury) with or without pay, with the consent of his employer in accordance with express or implied terms of his contract of employment or apprenticeship, being a contract of employment or apprenticeship with an employer who is represented by an organisation affiliated to the National Maritime Board; or
- (e) is undergoing a course of training under his contract of employment or apprenticeship being a contract of employment or apprenticeship with an employer who is represented by an organisation affiliated to the National Maritime Board; or
- (f) is employed in or about a ship in port by the owner, manager or charterer of the ship to do work of a kind ordinarily done by a merchant seaman on such a ship while it is in port being an employment with an employer who is represented by an organisation affiliated to the National Maritime Board.

Exclusion of seamen in relevant employment

3. Section 1 of the Act shall not apply to any person in respect of any relevant employment.

Relevant employment to be disregarded in the calculation of redundancy payments

4. Where a person has been in relevant employment that employment shall be disregarded—

(a) in ascertaining whether that person has been employed for the requisite period of one hundred and four weeks referred to in section 8(1) of the Act; and

(b) in calculating under Schedule 1 to the Act the amount of any redundancy payment due to that person;

but not so as to break the continuity of that person's period of employment.

Signed by order of the Secretary of State.

Dudley Smith,

Parliamentary Under Secretary of State,
Department of Employment.

23rd July 1973.
