

1973 No. 97

NORTHERN IRELAND

The Northern Ireland (Border Poll) Order 1973

Laid before Parliament in draft

Made - - - - 24th January 1973

Coming into Operation 24th January 1973

In exercise of the powers conferred on me by section 1 of the Northern Ireland (Border Poll) Act 1972(a), I hereby make the following Order:—

Citation, commencement and extent

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Northern Ireland (Border Poll) Order 1973 and shall come into operation forthwith.

(2) This Order shall extend only to Northern Ireland.

Interpretation

2.—(1) Unless the contrary intention appears, in this Order, and in any provision applied by this Order—

any reference to an enactment is a reference to that enactment as it extends to Northern Ireland.

“the Border Poll Act” means the Northern Ireland (Border Poll) Act 1972;

“counting officer” has the meaning assigned by Article 8;

“observer” has the meaning assigned by Article 7;

“poll” means the poll to be held under the Border Poll Act;

“register” means the register prepared under the Electoral Law Act (Northern Ireland) 1962(b) for elections to the Parliament of Northern Ireland, and “registered” shall be construed accordingly.

(2) A reference in this Order to an enactment (including an enactment of the Parliament of Northern Ireland) or instrument made under an enactment shall be construed as a reference to that enactment or instrument as amended.

(3) In this Order “registration officer” has the same meaning as in the Representation of the People Act 1949(c).

(4) Unless the contrary intention appears, a reference in this Order to a numbered Article, Schedule or paragraph is a reference to an Article or Schedule in this Order or to a paragraph in such an Article.

(5) The Interpretation Act 1889(d) shall apply to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

Application of certain statutory provisions to the poll

3.—(1) The provisions of the Representation of the People Act 1949 and of the Representation of the People Act 1969(e) set out in column 1 of Schedule 1 shall, subject to the modifications (if any) specified in relation to those provisions in column 2 of that Schedule, apply for the purpose of the poll, and, subject to Article 2(2), no other provisions of those Acts shall apply for that purpose.

(a) 1972 c. 77. (b) 1962 c. 14 (N.I.).
(c) 1949 c. 68. (d) 1889 c. 63. (e) 1969 c. 15.

(2) The provisions of the Regulations referred to in Schedule 2 which are set out in column 1 of that Schedule shall, subject to the modifications (if any) specified in relation to those provisions in column 2 of that Schedule, apply for that purpose, and no other provisions of those Regulations shall apply for that purpose.

(3) Unless the contrary intention appears, in the provisions applied by this Article—

(a) any reference to an election, parliamentary election or general election shall be construed as a reference to the poll ;

(b) any expression has the same meaning as it has in that provision, notwithstanding that any provision defining the expression is not set out in Schedule 1 or 2 ;

(c) any provision applied by an enactment or Regulation set out in column 1 of Schedule 1 or 2 shall have effect for the purposes of that application, notwithstanding that that provision is not so set out ;

(d) “ the Border Poll Order ” means this Order.

(4) A deviation from a form set out in Schedule 3 shall not invalidate anything done under or in pursuance of the form if the deviation does not materially affect the substance and is not calculated to mislead.

(5) In the Forms applied by Schedule 2, in the headings, the reference to the Representation of the People Acts shall be construed as a reference to the Border Poll Act.

The poll

4.—(1) The poll shall be held on 8th March 1973.

(2) The hours of polling at the poll shall be between 8 a.m. and 8 p.m. on the day of the poll.

Substitute and deputy returning officers

5.—(1) Where it appears to the Secretary of State that a returning officer is unable or unlikely to be able to exercise or to perform any power conferred or duty imposed on him in relation to the poll, the Secretary of State may appoint a person to act as returning officer in his place.

(2) A substitute returning officer appointed under paragraph (1) shall have the same powers, rights and obligations as the returning officer in whose place he is appointed, and anything done by or to him shall have the same effect as if it had been done by or to that officer, and any reference in this Order or a provision applied by this Order to a returning officer shall be construed accordingly.

(3) A returning officer or substitute returning officer may appoint one or more deputy returning officers to exercise such functions as may be specified by the person by whom he is appointed.

(4) A deputy returning officer appointed under paragraph (3) shall have the same powers, rights and obligations in relation to the functions mentioned in that paragraph as the person by whom he is appointed, and anything done by or to him in relation to those functions shall have the same effect as if it had been done by or to that person, and any reference in this Order or a provision applied by this Order to a returning officer shall be construed accordingly.

Postal voting

6.—(1) A person registered as an elector or appointed as a proxy for a registered elector may vote by post at the poll if he makes an application in the prescribed manner within the time specified in this Article and furnishes an address in the United Kingdom to which a ballot paper is to be sent for the purpose.

(2) An application duly made under paragraph (1) shall be made to the registration officer in the appropriate Form in Schedule 3 and shall be allowed by him if he is satisfied—

- (a) that the applicant is registered as an elector or has been appointed as a proxy for a registered elector ; and
- (b) as to the identity of the applicant.

(3) Subject to paragraph (4), an application to vote by post shall be disregarded by the registration officer if it is received by him after the twenty-third day before the day of the poll.

(4) An application to vote by post shall not be disregarded by the registration officer if—

- (a) it is accompanied by a certificate signed by a registered medical practitioner or Christian Science practitioner certifying that the applicant is unable, or likely to be unable, by reason of physical incapacity to go in person to the polling station on the day of the poll ; and
- (b) it is received by the registration officer before the seventeenth day before the day of the poll.

(5) In computing periods of time in relation to the receipt of applications under this Article to vote by post, Sundays shall be left out of account.

Observers

7.—(1) The Secretary of State may appoint one or more persons (in this Order referred to as “observers”) for any of the following purposes connected with the poll—

- (a) to attend at such polling station as may be specified by the Secretary of State or any polling station ;
- (b) to attend at such place for the counting of votes as may be so specified or any place for that counting ;
- (c) to attend at such place where proceedings on the issue and receipt of postal ballot papers are being conducted as may be so specified or any place where those proceedings are being conducted ;

and, so far as it appears to him to be desirable to do so, the Secretary of State shall appoint more than one observer for each polling station or place referred to above.

(2) Where, under any provision applied by this Order, any act or thing is required or authorised to be done in the presence of an observer, the non-attendance of one or more observers at the time and place appointed for the purpose shall not, if the act or thing is otherwise duly done, invalidate the act or thing done.

(3) An observer shall, if required by a returning, presiding or counting officer, produce evidence of his appointment.

Counting of votes

8.—(1) The Secretary of State shall appoint a person (in this Order referred to as “the counting officer”) whose function shall be to arrange for the counting, by reference to Northern Ireland as a whole, of votes in the poll.

(2) Unless the contrary intention appears, in this Order and any provision applied by this Order, any reference to a returning officer shall include a reference to the counting officer in so far as any functions which, but for this Article, would be exercisable by a returning officer fall to be discharged by the counting officer.

(3) A returning officer shall not discharge any functions which, under this Article, fall to be discharged by the counting officer.

(4) Each returning officer shall transmit to the counting officer such ballot boxes, postal ballot papers and such relevant documents concerning the poll as relate to the constituency for which he is the returning officer.

Result of the poll

9.—(1) When the result of the poll has been ascertained, the counting officer shall forthwith notify it to the Secretary of State.

(2) The Secretary of State shall publish the result of the poll in such manner as he thinks fit.

Preservation of certain subsisting proxy appointments etc.

10.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), any application, appointment or declaration made, thing done or power exercisable under the Representation of the People Act 1949 or the Representation of the People (Northern Ireland) Regulations 1969(a) shall, if made, done or exercisable in relation to a person who, being a registered elector, may vote by proxy in parliamentary elections under that Act have effect for the purpose of the poll as it has for the purpose of those elections and any provision of that Act or those Regulations shall have effect accordingly.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall not have effect in relation to an application, appointment or thing referred to in that paragraph if it is made by, or received by, a registration officer after twenty-three days before the day of the poll.

W. S. I. Whitelaw,

One of Her Majesty's Principal
Secretaries of State.

Northern Ireland Office.

24th January 1973.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

This Order makes provision with respect to the conduct of the poll to be held under the Northern Ireland (Border Poll) Act 1972 and specifies the date on which the poll is to be held. The Order allows any elector or proxy with an address in the United Kingdom to apply to vote by post. It also provides for the appointment of observers and for the result of the poll to be ascertained and published in relation to Northern Ireland as a whole rather than by constituencies.

Schedules 1 and 2 specify the provisions of the Representation of the People Act 1949 (as amended) and the Representation of the People (Northern Ireland) Regulations 1969 which apply to the poll, together with the appropriate modifications. The modifications take account in particular of the absence in relation to the poll of candidates and their election, polling and counting agents.
