APPRENTICES

CONDITIONS AS TO RATES FOR APPRENTICES

7.—(1) For the purposes of this Schedule "APPRENTICE" means any worker during the first three years of his apprenticeship during which the following conditions are satisfied, in respect of that worker, that is to say:—

- (a) the worker shall be employed during the whole of his time under a written contract of apprenticeship which has been duly executed and which contains the following provisions or provisions substantially to the same effect and no provisions contrary thereto:—
- (i) the worker of his own free will, and if he is under the age of 18 years with the consent of his guardian, binds himself to serve the employer as his apprentice in his trade of hairdressing for the term of not less than three years;
 - (ii) the employer will employ the worker as his apprentice during the said term and to the best of his power, skill and knowledge instruct the worker or cause him to be instructed in either ladies' or gentlemen's hairdressing or both;
 - (iii) the employer will keep the worker under his own supervision or place him under the supervision of one or more operative hairdressers;

(b) the total number of workers employed at any time at the establishment at which the worker works in respect of whom the conditions contained in (a) of this sub-paragraph are fulfilled or who are prospective apprentices to whom sub-paragraph (4) of this paragraph relates, shall not exceed one for each qualified operative hairdresser.

(2) For the purposes of this paragraph a person shall not be a qualified operative hairdresser unless:—

- (i) he is wholly or mainly engaged in hairdressing and has completed not less than three years' service under a contract of apprenticeship which satisfies the conditions in sub-paragraph (1)(a) of this paragraph, or
- (ii) he is wholly or mainly engaged in hairdressing and has completed a course of not less than two years' full-time training in hairdressing at a technical college or other similar institution approved by the Wages Council, or
- (iii) he is wholly or mainly engaged in hairdressing and has been so engaged for not less than two years under a contract of employment other than a contract of apprenticeship in an undertaking to which this Schedule applies, or
- (iv) if an employer or a manager he has had not less than three years' experience as a hairdresser.

(3) For the purposes of this paragraph:—

- (i) no account shall be taken of a qualified operative hairdresser who is not employed in the branch or branches of hairdressing in which the worker is bound to serve;
- (ii) no account shall be taken of a qualified operative hairdresser who does not normally work for the employer for at least 24 hours a week as a worker to whom this Schedule applies;
- (iii) no account shall be taken of a temporary absence of a qualified operative hairdresser or a casual vacancy for a short period in the number of qualified operative hairdressers employed.

(4) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, where an employer employs a worker as a prospective apprentice for a probationary period not exceeding three months (or such extended period as is hereinafter mentioned) and the condition specified at (b) of sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph is satisfied in the case of that worker, the minimum remuneration applicable to that worker during the probationary period shall be that applicable to an apprentice employed in accordance with the conditions specified in the provisions of sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph, and, in the event of the worker being continued thereafter at his employment as an apprentice, the said probationary period shall, for the purposes of this Schedule, be treated as part of the period of apprenticeship, whether or not it is included therein. Where, before the expiration of three months from the commencement of employment as a prospective apprentice as aforesaid, the Wages Council has received and acknowledged in writing written notification of such employment, the said probationary period may be extended as the Wages Council may consider necessary or desirable:

Provided that such written notification shall be signed by both employer and worker and shall include a statement to the effect that—

- (i) the signatories intend to enter into a written contract of apprenticeship, and that an extension of the probationary period is required for the drawing up and execution of such written contract, or
- (ii) the worker has been absent from work for a stated reason on a stated number of days during the probationary period, or
- (iii) the employer or worker is doubtful, on stated medical grounds supported by medical evidence, whether to enter into such written contract.

(5) A worker who, after attaining the age of 15 years, undergoes a full-time course of instruction in hairdressing of not less than two years' duration at any school or institution approved by the Wages Council, shall, at the end of the course of instruction, be deemed for the purposes of this paragraph to have served a period of three years' apprenticeship during which the conditions specified in sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph were satisfied.

MINIMUM OVERTIME RATES

8. Overtime shall be payable to any worker at the following minimum rates:—

- (1) On a Sunday or customary holiday—for all time worked double time
Provided that where it is, or becomes, the established practice in a Jewish undertaking for the employer to require attendance on Sunday instead of Saturday, the foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall apply in like manner as if in such provisions the word "Saturday" were substituted for "Sunday", except where such substitution is unlawful.
- (2) (a) On the weekly short day (not being the weekly short day to which (b) applies)— for all time worked after 1.30 p.m. time-and-a-half
(b) On the weekly short day in any week during which, under section 40 of the Shops Act 1950(a) (suspension of weekly half-holiday in holiday resorts), the employer is relieved of his obligation to allow the worker a weekly half-holiday—for all time worked after 1.30 p.m. double time
- (3) In any week, exclusive of any time in respect of which an overtime rate is payable under the provisions of (1) and (2) of this paragraph:
(a) for the first four hours worked in excess of 42 time-and-a-quarter
(b) thereafter time-and-a-half
Provided that in any week which includes one customary holiday "35 hours" shall be substituted for "42 hours" and in any week which includes two customary holidays "28 hours" shall be substituted for the said "42 hours".

WAITING TIME

9. A worker shall be entitled to payment of the minimum remuneration specified in this Schedule for all the time during which he is present on the premises of the employer, unless he is present thereon in any of the following circumstances, that is to say—

- (1) without the employer's consent, express or implied;
- (2) for some purpose unconnected with his work, and other than that of waiting for work to be given to him to perform;
- (3) by reason only of the fact that he is resident thereon; or
- (4) during normal meal times in a room or place in which no work is being done, and he is not waiting for work to be given to him to perform.

GUARANTEED WEEKLY REMUNERATION PAYABLE TO A FULL-TIME WORKER

10.—(1) Notwithstanding the other provisions of this Schedule, where in any week the total remuneration (including holiday remuneration but excluding the amount specified in sub-paragraph (2) of this paragraph) payable under those other provisions to a full-time worker is less than the guaranteed weekly remuneration provided under this paragraph, the minimum remuneration payable to that worker for that week shall be that guaranteed weekly remuneration with the addition of any amount excluded as aforesaid.

(2) The amount to be excluded from the total remuneration referred to in the foregoing sub-paragraph is the whole of the remuneration payable in respect of overtime for work on a Sunday or on the weekly short day and one half of the remuneration payable in respect of overtime for work on a customary holiday.

(3) The guaranteed weekly remuneration is the remuneration to which the worker would be entitled under paragraph 3, 4 or 6 for 42 hours' work in his normal occupation:

Provided that

- (a) where the worker normally works for the employer on work to which this Schedule applies for less than 42 hours in the week by reason only of the fact that he does not hold himself out as normally available for work for more than the number of hours he normally works in the week, and the worker has informed his employer in writing that he does not so hold himself out, the guaranteed weekly remuneration shall be the remuneration to which the worker would be entitled (calculated in accordance with paragraph 2) for the number of hours in the week normally worked by the worker for the employer on work to which this Schedule applies;
- (b) where in any week a worker at his request and with the written consent of his employer is absent from work during any part of his normal working hours on any day (other than a holiday allowed under Part II of this Schedule or a holiday allowed to all persons employed in the undertaking or branch of an undertaking in which the worker is employed), the guaranteed weekly remuneration payable in respect of that week shall be reduced in respect of each day on which he is absent as aforesaid by one-sixth where the worker's normal working week is six days or by one-fifth where his normal working week is five days.

(4) Guaranteed weekly remuneration is not payable in respect of any week unless the worker throughout his normal working hours in that week (excluding any time allowed to him as a holiday or during which he is absent from work in accordance with proviso (b) to sub-paragraph (3) of this paragraph) is

- (a) capable of and available for work; and
- (b) willing to perform such duties outside his normal occupation as the employer may reasonably require if his normal work is not available in the establishment in which he is employed.

(5) Guaranteed weekly remuneration is not payable in respect of any week if the worker's employment is terminated before the end of that week.

(6) If the employer is unable to provide the worker with work by reason of a strike or other circumstances beyond his control and gives the worker four clear days' notice to that effect, guaranteed weekly remuneration shall not be payable after the expiry of such notice in respect of any week during which or during part of which the employer continues to be unable to provide work as aforesaid:

Provided that in respect of the week in which the said notice expires there shall be paid to the worker, in addition to any remuneration payable in respect of time worked in that week, any remuneration that would have been payable if the worker had worked his normal hours of work on every day in the week prior to the expiry of the notice.

PART II: HOLIDAYS AND HOLIDAY REMUNERATION

CUSTOMARY HOLIDAYS

11.—(1) An employer shall allow to every worker in his employment to whom this Schedule applies a holiday (in this Schedule referred to as a “customary holiday”) in each year on the days specified in the next following sub-paragraph, provided that the worker has been in his employment for a period of not less than four weeks immediately preceding the customary holiday, and has worked for the employer during the whole or part of that period, and (unless excused by the employer or absent by reason of the proved illness of, or accident to, the worker) has worked for the employer throughout the last working day on which work was available to him immediately prior to the customary holiday.

(2) The said customary holidays are:—

(a) (i) In England and Wales—

Christmas Day;

26th December if it be not a Sunday, 27th December in a year when 25th or 26th December is a Sunday;

New Year’s Day, if it be not a Sunday, or if it be a Sunday, 2nd January;

Good Friday;

Easter Monday;

the last Monday in May; and the last Monday in August;

or where a day is substituted for any of the above days by national proclamation, that day;

(ii) In Scotland—

New Year’s Day, if it be not a Sunday, or if it be a Sunday, 2nd January;

the local Spring holiday;

the local Autumn holiday;

Christmas Day, if it be not a Sunday, or if it be a Sunday, 26th December; or where a day is substituted for any of the above days by national proclamation, that day; and three other days observed by local custom as holidays to be fixed by the employer and notified to the worker; or (b) in the case of each of the said days (other than a day fixed by the employer in Scotland and notified to the worker as aforesaid) a day substituted by the employer therefor, being a day recognised by local custom as a day of holiday.

(3) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this paragraph, an employer may (except where in the case of a woman or young person such a requirement would be unlawful) require a worker who is otherwise entitled to any customary holiday under the foregoing provisions of this Schedule to work thereon, and, in lieu of any such customary holiday on which he so works, the worker shall be allowed a day’s holiday (hereinafter referred to as a “holiday in lieu of a customary holiday”) on a week-day on which he would normally work within the period of 21 days next ensuing.

(4) A worker who is required to work on a customary holiday shall be paid:—

(a) for all time worked thereon, in accordance with paragraph 8; and

(b) in respect of the holiday in lieu of the customary holiday, holiday remuneration in accordance with paragraph 15.

ANNUAL HOLIDAY

12.—(1) In addition to the holidays specified in paragraph 11 and subject to the provisions of this paragraph and of paragraph 13, an employer shall, between the date on which the provisions of this Schedule become effective and 31st October 1974, and in each succeeding year between 1st April and 31st October, allow a holiday (hereinafter referred to as an "annual holiday") to every worker in his employment to whom this Schedule applies who has been employed by him during the 12 months immediately preceding the commencement of the holiday season for any one of the periods of employment (calculated in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 19) set out in the table below and the duration of the annual holiday shall in the case of each such worker be related to that period as follows:—

" " " 2 " " " " 3 "	2 "	2 "	1 day	1 "
" " " 1 month " " " 2 "	1 day	1 day	1 "	nil

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of the last foregoing sub-paragraph—

- (a) the number of days of annual holiday which an employer is required to allow to a worker in any holiday season shall not exceed three times the number of days constituting the worker's normal working week;
- (b) where a worker does not wish to take his annual holiday or part thereof during the holiday season in any year and, before the expiration of such holiday season, enters into an agreement in writing with his employer that the annual holiday or part thereof shall be allowed, at a date or dates to be specified in that agreement, after the expiration of the holiday season but before the commencement of the next following holiday season, then any day or days of annual holiday so allowed shall be treated as having been allowed during the holiday season.
- (c) the duration of the worker's annual holiday during the holiday season ending 31st October 1974 shall be reduced by any days of annual holiday duly allowed to him by the employer under the provisions of Order H.U. (46) between 1st April 1974 and the date on which the provisions of this Schedule become effective.

(3) In this Schedule the expression "holiday season" means in relation to the year 1974 the period commencing on 1st April 1974 and ending on 31st October 1974 and, in each succeeding year, the period commencing on 1st April and ending on 31st October of the same year.

13.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this paragraph, an annual holiday shall be allowed on consecutive working days, being days on which the worker is normally called upon to work for the employer.

(2) Where the number of days of annual holiday for which a worker has qualified exceeds the number of days constituting his normal working week but does not exceed twice that number, the holiday may be allowed in two periods of consecutive working days; so, however, that when a holiday is so allowed, one of the periods shall consist of a number of such days not less than the number of days constituting the worker's normal working week.

(3) Where the number of days of annual holiday for which a worker has qualified exceeds twice the number of days constituting his normal working week the holiday may be allowed as follows:—

(a) as to the number of days comprising twice the number of days constituting the worker's normal working week, in one or two periods of consecutive working days during the holiday season;

(b) as to any additional days, on consecutive working days to be fixed by the employer, either during the holiday season or before the beginning of the next following holiday season.

(4) For the purposes of this paragraph, days of annual holiday shall be treated as consecutive notwithstanding that a holiday allowed to a worker under paragraph 11 or a day on which he does not normally work for the employer intervenes.

(5) Where a holiday allowed to a worker under paragraph 11 immediately precedes a period of annual holiday or occurs during such a period and the total number of days of annual holiday required to be allowed in the period under the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, together with any such holiday, exceeds the number of days constituting the worker's normal working week, then, notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, the duration of that period of annual holiday may be reduced by one day and in such a case one day of annual holiday may be allowed on a day on which the worker normally works for the employer (not being the worker's weekly short day) in the holiday season or after the holiday season in the circumstances specified in sub-paragraph (2)(b) of paragraph 12.

(6) A day of annual holiday under this Schedule may be allowed on a day on which the worker is entitled to a day of holiday (not being a customary holiday) or to a half-holiday under any enactment other than the Wages Councils Act 1959: Provided that where the total number of days of annual holiday allowed to a worker under this Schedule is less than the number of days in his normal working week, the said annual holiday shall be in addition to the said day of holiday or the said half-holiday.

14. An employer shall give to a worker reasonable notice of the commencing date or dates and of the duration of his annual holiday. Such notice may be given individually to the worker or by the posting of a notice in the place where the worker is employed.

REMUNERATION FOR CUSTOMARY HOLIDAYS

15.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this paragraph, for each day of holiday to which a worker is entitled under paragraph 11 he shall be paid by the employer holiday remuneration equal to the statutory minimum remuneration to which he would have been entitled if the day had not been a day of holiday and he had been employed on work for which statutory minimum remuneration is payable for the time usually worked by him on that day of the week:

Provided, however, that payment of the said holiday remuneration is subject to the condition that the worker (unless excused by the employer or absent by reason of the proved illness of, or accident to, the worker) presents himself for employment at the usual starting hour on the first working day following the holiday.

(2) The holiday remuneration in respect of any customary holiday shall be paid by the employer to the worker on the day on which the wages for the first working day following the holiday are paid.

(3) The holiday remuneration in respect of any holiday in lieu of a customary holiday shall be paid on the day on which the wages are paid for the first working day following the holiday in lieu: Provided that the said payment shall be made immediately upon the termination of the worker's employment in the case where he ceases to be employed before being allowed a holiday in lieu of a customary holiday to which he is entitled, and in that case the condition specified in sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph shall not apply.

REMUNERATION FOR ANNUAL HOLIDAY

16.—(1) Subject to the provisions of paragraph 17, a worker qualified to be allowed an annual holiday under this Schedule shall be paid by his employer, on the last pay-day preceding such holiday, one day's holiday pay in respect of each day thereof.

(2) Where an annual holiday is taken in more than one period the holiday remuneration shall be apportioned accordingly.

17. Where any accrued holiday remuneration has been paid by the employer to the worker (in accordance with paragraph 18 of this Schedule or with Order H.U.(46)) in respect of employment during either or both of the periods referred to in paragraph 18, the amount of holiday remuneration payable by the employer in respect of any annual holiday for which the worker has qualified by reason of employment during the said period or periods, shall be reduced by the amount of the said accrued holiday remuneration unless that remuneration has been deducted from a previous payment of holiday remuneration made under the provisions of this Schedule or of Order H.U. (46).

ACCRUED HOLIDAY REMUNERATION PAYABLE ON TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

18. Where a worker ceases to be employed by an employer after the provisions of this Schedule become effective the employer shall, immediately on the termination of the employment (hereinafter referred to as the "termination date"), pay to the worker as accrued holiday remuneration:—
