5. The minimum remuneration payable during the first six months' employment of a worker to whom this Schedule applies (other than a shop manager, shop manageress, transport worker, cleaner, messenger, deliverer or porter) who enters or has entered the retail bookselling and stationery trades for the first time at or over the age of 20 years shall be the appropriate remuneration specified in Column 2 of the Table in paragraph 3 reduced—

- (1) during the first three months of employment, by 50p per week; and
- (2) during the second three months of employment, by 25p per week.

ADDITIONAL REMUNERATION FOR HOURS WORKED AT NIGHT AND ON A SATURDAY

6.—(1) Where a full-time worker

- (a) normally works on not less than 6 days in a week, or
- (b) normally works on not less than 5 days in a week on a rota system which involves regular Saturday working

he shall be paid, in addition to the minimum remuneration payable under the provisions of paragraph 3, 4 or 5 of this Schedule, for each hour worked between 8 p.m. and 6 a.m. on any day other than Saturday or Sunday and for each hour worked on a Saturday for which no minimum overtime rate is payable under the provisions of paragraph 7 of this Schedule, an amount calculated in accordance with the provisions of sub-paragraph (2) of this paragraph.

(2) The additional amount payable under the provisions of sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph shall be an amount equal to one-fifth of the hourly rate payable to the worker, such hourly rate to be obtained by dividing by 40 the minimum weekly remuneration payable to the worker under the provisions of paragraph 3, 4 or 5 as the case may be.

(3) Where it is or becomes the practice in a Jewish undertaking for the employer to require the worker's attendance on Sunday instead of Saturday, the provisions of this paragraph shall apply as if in such provisions the word "Sunday" were substituted for "Saturday" except where such substitution is unlawful.

MINIMUM OVERTIME RATES

7.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this paragraph, overtime shall be payable to all workers at the following minimum rates:—

- (a) On a Sunday or customary holiday ...
- (i) where time worked does not exceed 4½ hours ... double time for 4½ hours
- (ii) where time worked exceeds 4½ hours but does not exceed 8 hours ... double time for 8 hours
- (iii) where time worked exceeds 8 hours ... double time for all time worked

Provided that where it is or becomes the practice in a Jewish undertaking for the employer to require attendance on Sunday instead of Saturday, the provisions of this paragraph shall apply as if in such provisions the word "Saturday" were substituted for "Sunday", except where such substitution is unlawful.

- (b) On the weekly short day (not being a weekly short day to which (c) of this paragraph applies) for all time worked after 1.30 p.m. ... time-and-a-half

- (c) On the weekly short day in any week during which, under sub-section (3) of section 40 of the Shops Act 1950(a), (suspension of weekly half-holiday in holiday resorts), the employer is relieved of his obligation to allow the worker a weekly half day for all time worked after 1.30 p.m. ... double time

- (d) In any week, exclusive of any time in respect of which a minimum overtime rate is payable under the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, for all time worked in excess of 40 hours ... time-and-a-half

Provided that in any week which includes one customary holiday "33 hours" shall be substituted for "40 hours"; in any week which includes two customary holidays "26 hours" shall be substituted for the said "40 hours"; and in any week which includes three customary holidays "19 hours" shall be substituted for the said "40 hours".

(2) Overtime rates in accordance with this paragraph shall be payable to a shop manager or a shop manageress only if the overtime worked is specifically authorised in writing by the employer or his representative.

WAITING TIME

8. A worker shall be entitled to payment of the minimum remuneration specified in this Schedule for all the time during which he is present on the premises of the employer, unless he is present thereon in any of the following circumstances, that is to say—

- (1) without the employer's consent, express or implied;
- (2) for some purpose unconnected with his work, and other than that of waiting for work to be given to him to perform;
- (3) by reason only of the fact that he is resident thereon; or
- (4) during normal meal times, and he is not waiting for work to be given to him to perform.

GUARANTEED WEEKLY REMUNERATION PAYABLE TO A FULL-TIME WORKER

9.—(1) (a) Notwithstanding the other provisions of this Schedule, where in any week the total remuneration (including holiday remuneration but excluding the amount specified in (b) of this sub-paragraph) payable under those other provisions to a full-time worker is less than the guaranteed weekly remuneration provided under this paragraph, the minimum remuneration payable to that worker for that week shall be that guaranteed weekly remuneration with the addition of any amount excluded as aforesaid.

(b) The amount to be excluded from the total remuneration referred to in (a) of this sub-paragraph is the whole of the remuneration payable in respect of overtime (as specified in paragraph 7) and the remuneration payable under paragraph 6 of this Schedule.

(2) The guaranteed weekly remuneration is the remuneration to which the worker would be entitled under paragraph 3, 4 or 5 for 40 hours' work in his normal occupation:

Provided that—

(a) where the worker normally works for the employer on work to which this Schedule applies for less than 40 hours in the week by reason only of the fact that he does not hold himself out as normally available for work for more than the number of hours he normally works in the week, and the worker has informed the employer in writing that he does not so hold himself out, the guaranteed weekly remuneration shall be the remuneration to which the worker would be entitled (calculated as in paragraph 2) for the number of hours in the week normally worked by the worker for the employer on work to which this Schedule applies;

(b) where in any week a worker at his request and with the written consent of his employer is absent from work during any part of his normal working hours on any day (other than a holiday allowed under Part II of this Schedule or a holiday allowed to all persons in the undertaking or branch of an undertaking in which the worker is employed), the guaranteed weekly remuneration payable in respect of that week shall be reduced in respect of each day on which he is absent as aforesaid by one-sixth where the worker's normal working week is six days or by one-fifth where his normal working week is five days.

(3) Guaranteed weekly remuneration is not payable in respect of any week unless the worker throughout his normal working hours in that week (excluding any time allowed to him as a holiday or during which he is absent from work in accordance with proviso (b) to sub-paragraph (2) of this paragraph) is—

(a) capable of and available for work; and

(b) willing to perform such duties outside his normal occupation as the employer may reasonably require if his normal work is not available in the establishment in which he is employed.

(4) Guaranteed weekly remuneration is not payable in respect of any week if the worker's employment is terminated before the end of that week.

(5) If the employer is unable to provide the worker with work by reason of a strike or other circumstances beyond his control and gives the worker four clear days' notice to that effect, guaranteed weekly remuneration shall not be payable after the expiry of such notice in respect of any week during which or during part of which the employer continues to be unable to provide work as aforesaid:

Provided that in respect of the week in which the said notice expires there shall be paid to the worker in addition to any remuneration payable in respect of time worked in that week, any remuneration that would have been payable if the worker had worked his normal hours of work on every day in the week prior to the expiry of the notice.

PART II

HOLIDAYS AND HOLIDAY REMUNERATION
CUSTOMARY HOLIDAYS

10.—(1) An employer shall allow to every worker to whom this Schedule applies a holiday (in this Schedule referred to as a “customary holiday”) in each year on each of the days specified in the next following sub-paragraph, provided that—

- (a) the worker (unless excused by the employer or absent by reason of the proved illness of, or accident to, the worker) has worked for the employer throughout the last working day on which work was available to him immediately prior to the customary holiday; and
- (b) where the customary holiday is the day specified in the next following sub-paragraph as a day to be fixed by the employer (being a day on which the worker would normally work) during the period commencing on 24th December and ending on the next following 10th January, the worker normally works for the employer for more than 9 hours in a week and has been in the employment of the employer throughout the period of 8 weeks immediately preceding the week in which Christmas day falls.

(2) The said customary holidays are:—

(a) (i) In England and Wales—

Christmas Day, 26th December, if it be not a Sunday, 27th December, in a year in which 25th or 26th December is a Sunday,
New Year’s Day if it be not a Sunday or, if it be a Sunday, 2nd January;
Good Friday, Easter Monday, the last Monday in May, the last Monday in August or, where a day is substituted for any of the above days by national proclamation, that day, one other day (being a day on which the worker would normally work) during the period commencing on 24th December and ending on the next following 10th January, to be fixed by the employer and notified to the worker not less than three weeks before the holiday, and any day proclaimed as a public holiday throughout England and Wales;

(ii) In Scotland—

New Year’s Day, if it be not a Sunday or, if it be a Sunday, 2nd January;
the local Spring Holiday;
the local Autumn Holiday;
Christmas Day, if it be not a Sunday or, if it be a Sunday, 26th December;
two other days, observed by local custom as holidays, and two other days during the period commencing on 24th December and ending on the next following 10th January, (being days on which the worker would normally work) to be fixed by the employer and notified to the worker not less than three weeks before the holiday; and any day proclaimed as a public holiday throughout Scotland;

or (b) in the case of each of the said days (other than a day fixed by the employer and notified to the worker as aforesaid) a day substituted by the employer therefor, being a day recognised by local custom as a day of holiday in substitution for the said day.

(3) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this paragraph, an employer may (except where in the case of a woman or young person such a requirement would be unlawful) require a worker who is otherwise entitled to any customary holiday under the foregoing provisions of this Schedule to work thereon, and, in lieu of any such holiday on which he so works, the worker shall be allowed a day’s holiday (hereinafter referred to as a “holiday in lieu of a customary holiday”) on a week day on which he would normally work within the period of 28 days immediately following the customary holiday.

- (4) A worker who is required to work on a customary holiday shall be paid:—
- (a) for all time worked thereon, in accordance with paragraph 7; and
- (b) in respect of the holiday in lieu of the customary holiday, holiday remuneration in accordance with paragraph 15.

ANNUAL HOLIDAY AND ADDITIONAL ANNUAL HOLIDAY
ANNUAL HOLIDAY

11.—(1) In addition to the holidays specified in paragraph 10 and subject to the provisions of sub-paragraph (2) of this paragraph and of paragraph 13, an employer shall, between the date on which the provisions of this Schedule become effective and 31st October 1975, and in each succeeding year between 1st April and 31st October, allow a holiday (hereinafter referred to as an "annual holiday") to every worker in his employment to whom this Schedule applies who has been employed by him during the 12 months immediately preceding 1st April in that year for any one of the periods of employment (calculated in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 19) set out in the first column of the Table below and the duration of the annual holiday shall in the case of each such worker be related to that period as follows:—

- (2) Notwithstanding the provisions of the last foregoing sub-paragraph—
- (a) the number of days of annual holiday which an employer is required to allow to a worker in any period of 12 months commencing on 1st April each year shall not exceed in the aggregate three times the number of days constituting the worker's normal working week;
- (b) where a worker does not wish to take his annual holiday or part thereof during the holiday season in any year, and, before the expiration of such holiday season, enters into an agreement in writing with his employer that the annual holiday or part thereof shall be allowed, at a date or dates to be specified in that agreement, after the expiration of the holiday season but before the commencement of the next following holiday season then any day or days of annual holiday so allowed shall be treated as having been allowed during the holiday season;
- (c) where a worker has, on 1st August in any year, been in the employment of the employer for not less than six months, the duration of his annual holiday in that year shall be not less than the number of days constituting his normal working week;
- (d) the duration of the worker's annual holiday during the holiday season ending on 31st October 1975, shall be reduced by any days of annual holiday duly allowed to him by the employer under the provisions of Order R.B.C.(52), as amended by Order R.B.C.(54), between 1st April 1975 and the date on which the provisions of this Schedule become effective.

(3) In this Schedule the expression "holiday season" means, in relation to an annual holiday during the year 1975, the period commencing on 1st April and ending on 31st October 1975, and, in relation to each subsequent year, the period commencing on 1st April and ending on 31st October in that year.

ADDITIONAL ANNUAL HOLIDAY FOR CERTAIN WORKERS

12. In addition to the holidays specified in paragraph 11, an employer shall, between the date on which the provisions of this Schedule become effective and 31st March 1976, and thereafter in each year commencing on 1st April allow to every worker in his employment who has been employed by him at the 1st April 1975 or at the 1st April in any succeeding year for a continuous period of not less than 1 year, the further days of annual holiday (hereinafter referred to as "additional annual holiday") set out in the table below—

Period of employment	Duration of additional annual holiday where the worker's normal working week is—
	Six days	Five days
Five years or more ... ..	6 days	5 days
One year or more ... ..	2 days	2 days

13.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this paragraph, an annual holiday or annual holiday and additional annual holiday shall be allowed on consecutive working days, being days on which the worker is normally called upon to work for the employer.

(2) Where the number of days of annual holiday for which a worker has qualified exceeds the number of days constituting his normal working week, but does not exceed twice that number the holiday may be allowed in two periods of consecutive working days; so, however, that when a holiday is so allowed, one of the periods shall consist of a number of such days not less than the number of days constituting the worker's normal working week.

(3) Where the number of days of annual holiday or annual holiday and additional annual holiday for which a worker has qualified exceeds twice the number of days constituting his normal working week the holiday may be allowed as follows:—

(a) as to the number of days comprising twice the number of days constituting the worker's normal working week, in one or two periods of consecutive working days during the holiday season;

(b) as to any additional days, on consecutive working days to be fixed by the employer, either during the holiday season or before the beginning of the next following holiday season.

(4) For the purposes of this paragraph, days of annual holiday or additional annual holiday shall be treated as consecutive notwithstanding that a holiday allowed to a worker under paragraph 10 or a day on which he does not normally work for the employer intervenes.

(5) Where a day of holiday allowed to a worker under paragraph 10 immediately precedes a period of annual holiday or annual holiday and additional annual holiday or occurs during such a period and the total number of days of annual holiday or annual holiday and additional annual holiday required to be allowed in the period under the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, together with any such holiday, exceeds the number of days constituting the worker's normal working week, then, notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, the duration of that period of annual holiday or annual holiday and additional annual holiday may be reduced by one day and in such a case that day of annual holiday or additional annual holiday may be allowed on a day on which the worker normally works for the employer (not being the worker's weekly short day) in the holiday season or after the holiday season in the circumstances specified in sub-paragraph (2)(b) of paragraph 11.

(6) A day of annual holiday or additional annual holiday under this Schedule may be allowed on a day on which the worker is entitled to a day of holiday or to a half-holiday under any enactment other than the Wages Councils Act 1959:

Provided that where the total number of days of annual holiday allowed to a worker is less than the number of days in his normal working week, the annual holiday allowed under this Schedule shall be in addition to the said day of holiday or the said half-holiday.

14. An employer shall give to a worker reasonable notice of the commencing date or dates and of the duration of his annual holiday or annual holiday and additional annual holiday. Such notice may be given individually to the worker or by the posting of a notice in the place where the worker is employed.

REMUNERATION FOR CUSTOMARY HOLIDAYS

15.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this paragraph, for each day of holiday to which a worker is entitled under paragraph 10 he shall be paid by the employer holiday remuneration equal to the appropriate statutory minimum remuneration to which he would have been entitled if the day had not been a day of holiday and he had been employed on work for which statutory minimum remuneration is payable for the time usually worked by him on that day of the week:

Provided that payment of the said holiday remuneration is subject to the condition that the worker (unless excused by the employer or absent by reason of the proved illness of, or accident to, the worker) presents himself for employment at the usual starting hour on the first working day following the holiday.

(2) The holiday remuneration in respect of any customary holiday shall be paid by the employer to the worker on the day on which the wages for the first working day following the holiday are paid.

(3) The holiday remuneration in respect of any holiday in lieu of a customary holiday shall be paid on the day on which the wages are paid for the first working day following the holiday in lieu: Provided that the said payment shall be made immediately upon the termination of the worker's employment in the case where he ceases to be employed before being allowed a holiday in lieu of a customary holiday to which he is entitled, and in that case the condition specified in sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph shall not apply.

REMUNERATION FOR ANNUAL HOLIDAY AND ADDITIONAL ANNUAL HOLIDAY

16.—(1) Subject to the provisions of paragraph 17, a worker qualified to be allowed an annual holiday or annual holiday and additional annual holiday under this Schedule shall be paid by his employer on the last pay day preceding such holiday, one day's holiday pay in respect of each day thereof.

(2) Where an annual holiday or annual holiday and additional annual holiday is taken in more than one period the holiday remuneration shall be apportioned accordingly.

17. Where any accrued holiday remuneration has been paid by the employer to the worker (in accordance with paragraph 18 of this Schedule, or with Order R.B.C.(52)), as amended, in respect of employment during a period referred to in paragraph 18, the amount of holiday remuneration payable by the employer in respect of any annual holiday for which the worker has qualified by reason of employment during the said period shall be reduced by the amount of the said accrued holiday remuneration, unless that remuneration has been deducted from a previous payment of holiday remuneration made under the provisions of this Schedule or of Order R.B.C. (52), as amended.

ACCRUED HOLIDAY REMUNERATION PAYABLE ON TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

18. Where a worker ceases to be employed by an employer after the provisions of this Schedule become effective, the employer shall, immediately on the termination of the employment (hereinafter called "the termination date"), pay to the worker as accrued holiday remuneration:—

- (1) in respect of employment occurring in the 12 months up to 1st April immediately preceding the termination date, a sum equal to the holiday remuneration for any days of annual holiday and additional annual holiday for which he has qualified except days of annual holiday and additional annual holiday which he has been allowed or has become entitled to be allowed before leaving the employment; and
- (2) in respect of any employment since 1st April immediately preceding the termination date, a sum equal to the holiday remuneration which would have been payable to him if he could have been allowed an annual holiday or annual holiday and additional annual holiday in respect of that employment at the time of leaving it:

Provided that—

- (a) no worker shall be entitled to the payment by his employer of accrued holiday remuneration if he is dismissed on the grounds of misconduct and is so informed by the employer at the time of dismissal;
- (b) where, during the period or periods in respect of which the said accrued holiday remuneration is payable, the worker—
  - (i) has at his written request been allowed any day or days of holiday for which he had not qualified under the provisions of this Schedule, any accrued holiday remuneration payable as aforesaid may be reduced by the amount of any sum paid by the employer to the worker in respect of such day or days of holiday; or
  - (ii) has been allowed an annual holiday under (c) of sub-paragraph (2) of paragraph 11 of this Schedule or Order R.B.C. (52), as amended, any accrued holiday remuneration payable as aforesaid may be reduced by one day's holiday pay in respect of each day by which the said holiday exceeded the number of days of annual holiday to which he would have been entitled under the provisions of sub-paragraph (1) of the said paragraph 11 or Order R.B.C. (52), as amended;
- (c) where a worker is employed under a contract of service under which he is required to give not less than one week's notice before terminating his employment and the worker without the consent of his employer terminates his employment without having given such notice or before one week has expired from the beginning of such notice, the amount of accrued holiday remuneration payable to the worker shall be the amount payable under the foregoing provisions of this paragraph less an amount—
  - (i) in the case of a worker who leaves without giving notice, equal to the statutory minimum remuneration which would be payable to him at the termination date for one week's work if working his normal working week and the normal number of daily hours worked by him;
  - (ii) in the case of a worker who leaves without working the full period of his week's notice, equal to one day's holiday pay for each day during the said period on which he failed to work.

CALCULATION OF EMPLOYMENT

19. For the purpose of calculating any period of employment qualifying a worker for an annual holiday or for any accrued holiday remuneration, the worker shall be treated as if he were employed for a month in respect of any month throughout which he has been in the employment of the employer.
