VALUE ADDED TAX

The Value Added Tax (Electronic Organs) Order 1975

Made - - - - -	3rd December 1975
Laid before the House of Commons	4th December 1975
Coming into Operation - - -	1st March 1976

The Treasury, in exercise of the powers conferred upon them by sections 3(6) and 14 of the Finance Act 1972(a), hereby make the following Order:—

Citation, commencement and interpretation

1. This Order may be cited as the Value Added Tax (Electronic Organs) Order 1975 and shall come into operation on 1st March 1976.

2.—(1) The Interpretation Act 1889(b) shall apply for the interpretation of this Order as it applies for the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

(2) In this Order “input tax”, “tax”, “taxable person” and “the Commissioners” have the same meanings as in Part I of the Finance Act 1972.

Relief for second-hand electronic organs

3.—(1) Except as otherwise provided by the following paragraphs of this Article, Article 4 of this Order shall apply to the supply of a used electronic organ by a taxable person where he has acquired it under—

- (a) a supply on which no tax was chargeable; or
- (b) a supply on which tax was chargeable in accordance with Article 4 of this Order; or
- (c) a transaction which was treated by virtue of an Order under section 5(7) of the Finance Act 1972 as being neither a supply of goods nor a supply of services.

(2) Article 4 does not apply to a supply which is a letting on hire.

(3) Article 4 does not apply to a supply if an invoice or similar document showing an amount as being tax or as being attributable to tax is issued in respect of the supply.

(4) Article 4 does not apply to any supply by a taxable person unless he keeps such records and accounts as the Commissioners may specify in a notice published by them for the purposes of this Order or may recognise as sufficient for those purposes.

(a) 1972 c. 41.

(b) 1889 c. 63.

4. Where this Article applies, tax shall be charged as if the supply of the used electronic organ were for a consideration equal to the excess of—

- (a) the consideration for which it is supplied; over
- (b) the consideration for which it was acquired;

and accordingly shall not be charged unless there is such an excess.

Disallowance of input tax

5. Where Article 4 of this Order applies to a supply, tax on the supply shall not be deducted as input tax under section 3 of the Finance Act 1972.

3rd December 1975.

Donald R. Coleman,

James A. Dunn,

Two of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

This Order provides, subject to certain specified conditions, for the tax chargeable on the supply (otherwise than by hiring) of a used electronic organ by a taxable person to be charged only on the excess, if any, of the price which that person obtains for the electronic organ over the price which he gave for it.
