

1975 No. 686 (S. 112)*LOCAL GOVERNMENT, SCOTLAND*The Local Authorities (Allowances) (Scotland)
Regulations 1975

Made - - - -	21st April 1975
Laid before Parliament	1st May 1975
Coming into Operation	16th May 1975

In exercise of the powers conferred on me by sections 45 and 50 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973(a), and of all other powers enabling me in that behalf, I hereby make the following regulations:—

Citation and commencement

1. These regulations may be cited as the Local Authorities (Allowances) (Scotland) Regulations 1975 and shall come into operation on 16th May 1975.

Interpretation

2.—(1) In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires—

“the Act” means the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973;

“approved duty”, in relation to a member of a body, means an approved duty falling within section 49(2) of the Act;

“attendance allowance” means a payment by way of attendance allowance within the meaning of section 45(1) of the Act (which provides for payment of such an allowance, for performance of approved duties, to members of local authorities who are councillors);

“body” means a body to which sections 45 to 47 of the Act apply;

“financial loss allowance” means a payment by way of financial loss allowance within the meaning of section 45(4) of the Act (which provides for payment of such an allowance, for performance of approved duties, to any member of a body who is not entitled to attendance allowance);

“local authority” means a regional, islands or district council;

“travelling allowance” and “subsistence allowance” mean payments by way of travelling allowance and subsistence allowance, respectively, within the meaning of section 46(1) of the Act (which provides for the payment of such allowances to members of bodies at rates not exceeding those specified by the Secretary of State);

(2) The Interpretation Act 1889(a) shall apply for the interpretation of these regulations as it applies for the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

Attendance allowance and financial loss allowance

3.—(1) The prescribed amount of attendance allowance shall be £10; and that amount shall be payable by reference to the period of twenty-four hours beginning at 3 a.m.

(2) The prescribed amount of financial loss allowance shall be—

(a) if the period of entitlement does not exceed 4 hours, £3·35;

(b) if the period exceeds 4 hours but does not exceed 24 hours, £6·70;

(c) if the period exceeds 24 hours, £6·70 for each complete 24 hours plus the rate appropriate to the remainder of the period.

Claims for Allowances

4. A member of a body who desires to claim any payment under sections 45 to 47 of the Act shall claim in the appropriate form set out in the Schedule to these regulations, or a form substantially to the like effect.

Records of allowances paid

5.—(1) Every body shall keep records of all payments to members made by it under sections 45 to 47 of the Act, indicating the amounts paid to each member and the heads under which they were paid and such records shall be open to the inspection of any local government elector for the area of the local authority or, in the case of a joint committee or joint board, the area of any of the local authorities represented on the joint committee or joint board, at all reasonable hours on payment of a fee not exceeding 10p, and any such local government elector may make a copy thereof or an extract therefrom.

Expenses of official and courtesy visits, etc.

6. Where a local authority resolve to defray the expenses of a member under the powers of section 48 of the Act (which empowers local authorities to defray expenses of members in making official and courtesy visits), the provisions of regulations 4 and 5 above shall apply to those expenses as they apply to travelling allowances and subsistence allowances.

Determination of body by whom payments are to be made

7.—(1) Subject to the provisions of paragraphs (2) and (3) below, payments under sections 45 and 46 of the Act shall be made by the body as a member of which the relevant approved duty was performed.

(2) Where an approved duty, in relation to a member of a body, consists of the doing of anything as a member of some other body to which he has been appointed as described in section 49(2)(c) of the Act and that body falls within any of the paragraphs (c), (d) or (e) of section 49(1) of the Act, payments may (except as provided by paragraph (3) below), be made by either of those bodies.

(3) Where an approved duty is performed in the circumstances described in paragraph (2) above by a member of a local authority who is a councillor, payment of any attendance allowance to which the member may be entitled shall be made by the local authority and not by the other body concerned unless all the members of that body are representatives of local authorities.

Avoidance of duplication of allowances

8.—(1) Where in any period a person—

- (a) performs approved duties as a member of more than one body, or
- (b) becomes entitled both to payments under sections 45 and 46 of the Act and to comparable payments under any other Act, the provisions of this regulation shall apply for the avoidance of duplication in claims and payments.

(2) Where a person who is entitled to attendance allowance in respect of a period of 24 hours as prescribed in regulation 3(1) above performs, within that period, another approved duty which entitles him to a further attendance allowance or to a financial loss allowance or to a comparable allowance under any other Act, he may not claim in the aggregate in respect of that period a greater amount than the amount of the attendance allowance prescribed in regulation 3(1); and in order to comply with this paragraph he may, if he thinks fit, claim from any of the bodies liable to meet any claim less than the prescribed amount of any such allowance.

(3) Where a person successively performs in any period duties in respect of each of which he is entitled to financial loss allowance, or to financial loss allowance and a comparable allowance under any other Act, he may not claim in the aggregate in respect of that period a greater amount than would have been payable had all the duties been performed by him as a member of one only of those bodies.

(4) A member shall not be entitled to take expenditure on travelling into account for the purposes of more than one claim.

(5) A member shall not be entitled to take any period of absence from his usual place of residence into account for the purposes of more than one claim.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations.)

Section 45 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973 introduces for the first time an attendance allowance and these Regulations relate to this allowance and other allowances and payments payable under sections 45 to 48 of the Act to members of local authorities and certain other bodies for performance of approved duties. The maximum rates of travelling and subsistence allowances are now to be specified by the Secretary of State outside the Regulations.

In particular, the Regulations—

- (1) Prescribe the maximum amount of attendance allowance as £10. This allowance is payable to a member of a local authority who is a councillor;
- (2) Prescribe the maximum amount of financial loss allowance as £6.70 for each 24-hour period and £3.35 for a period of less than 4 hours. This allowance is payable to members of local authorities and other bodies who are not entitled to attendance allowance;
- (3) Specify the claim forms to be used;
- (4) Require records, open to public inspection, to be kept of allowances paid;
- (5) Determine that allowances are to be payable by the authority or body for which the approved duty was performed, save that attendance allowance is to be payable only by local authorities or other bodies all the members of which are representatives of local authorities;
- (6) Provide for avoidance of duplication in payments (generally, by imposing as a ceiling the amount which would have been payable if the duties had been performed for one body only).
