SCHEDULE

TABLES AS TO CAPITAL VALUES AND ANNUAL AMOUNTS.

In exercise of the powers conferred on me by section 15(6) of, and paragraphs 3 to 5 of Schedule 3 to, the Scottish Development Agency Act 1975(a), and of all other powers enabling me in that behalf, I hereby make the following regulations:—

PART I

PRELIMINARY

Citation and commencement

1. These regulations may be cited as the Scottish Development Agency (Compensation) Regulations 1976 and shall come into operation on 2nd February 1977.

Interpretation

2.—(1) In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires—
“accrued pension”, in relation to a pensionable officer who has suffered loss of employment, means—

(a) if his last relevant pension scheme provided benefits in which he had a right to participate, the pension to which he would have become entitled under that scheme according to the method of calculation (modified where necessary for the purpose of giving effect to these regulations) prescribed by that scheme if, at the date on which he ceased to be subject to that scheme, he had attained normal retiring age, complied with any requirement of that scheme as to a minimum period of qualifying service or contribution and completed any additional voluntary contributions which he was in the course of making; and

(b) in any other case, such portion of the pension (if any) of which he had reasonable expectations as the Agency consider equitable, having regard to any practice of the body by whom he was employed on the day immediately preceding the loss, his age, the length of his employment at the date of loss and all the other circumstances of the case;

“accrued retiring allowance”, in relation to a pensionable officer who has suffered loss of employment, means—

(a) if his last relevant pension scheme provided benefits in which he had a right to participate, any lump sum payment to which he would have become entitled under that scheme according to the method of calculation (modified where necessary for the purpose of giving effect to these regulations) prescribed by that scheme if, at the date on which he ceased to be subject to that scheme, he had attained normal retiring age, complied with any requirement of that scheme as to a minimum period of qualifying service or contribution and completed any additional voluntary contributions which he was in the course of making; and

(b) in any other case, such portion of the lump sum payment (if any) of which he had reasonable expectations as the Agency consider equitable, having regard to any practice of the body by whom he was employed on the day immediately preceding the loss, his age, the length of his employment at the date of loss and all the other circumstances of the case;

“accrued incapacity pension” and “accrued incapacity retiring allowance” have the same respective meanings as “accrued pension” and “accrued retiring allowance” except that the reference to a person’s attaining normal retiring age shall be construed as a reference to his becoming incapable of discharging efficiently the duties of his employment by reason of permanent ill-health or infirmity of mind or body;

“the Act” means the Scottish Development Agency Act 1975;

“the Agency” means the Scottish Development Agency established by the Act;

“annual rate”, in relation to the emoluments of an employment which has been lost or emoluments which have been diminished, means the annual rate of those emoluments immediately before the loss or diminution, as the case may be;

“compensation question” means a question arising under these regulations—

(a) as to a person’s entitlement to compensation for loss of employment, or for loss or diminution of emoluments; or

(b) as to the manner of a person’s employment or the comparability of his duties;

“the Corporation” means the Scottish Industrial Estates Corporation dissolved by the Act;

“the Council” means the Small Industries Council for Rural Areas of Scotland dissolved by the Act;

“emoluments” has the meaning given by regulation 36(1);

“enactment” means any Act or any instrument made under an Act;

“last relevant pension scheme”, in relation to a pensionable officer, means the pension scheme to which he was subject immediately before suffering loss of employment or loss or diminution of emoluments;

“long-term compensation” means compensation payable in accordance with the provisions of Part IV of these regulations for loss of employment or loss or diminution of emoluments;

“material date”, in relation to any person who has suffered loss of employment or loss or diminution of emoluments which is attributable to any provision of the Act, means—

(a) for the purpose of regulation 3, 12th November 1975, and

(b) for all other purposes of these regulations, 15th December 1975 or the date on which the loss or diminution occurred, whichever is the earlier;

“minimum pensionable age” means, in relation to a pensionable officer, the earliest age at which, under his last relevant pension scheme, he could have become entitled to receive payment of an unreduced pension solely by virtue of his having attained a specified age and completed a specified period of service;

“national service” means, in relation to any person, service which is compulsory national service or relevant service within the meaning of the Reserve and Auxiliary Forces (Protection of Civil Interests) Act 1951(a) and any similar service immediately following such service entered into with the consent of the authority or person under whom an officer held his last relevant employment, or, where appropriate, the authority by whom such an officer was appointed;

“normal retiring age” means, in the case of a pensionable officer in relation to whom his last relevant pension scheme prescribes an age at which he becomes or would have become entitled to receive a normal retirement pension that age and in any other case the age of 65 years if the officer is a male, or 60 years if the officer is a female;

“pensionable officer”, in relation to a person who has suffered loss of employment or loss or diminution of emoluments, means a person who immediately before such loss or diminution was subject to a pension scheme associated with the employment he has lost or, as the case may be, the employment in which his emoluments have been diminished;

“pension scheme”, in relation to a pensionable officer, means any form of arrangement associated with his employment for the payment of superannuation benefits, whether subsisting by virtue of any enactment, trust, contract or otherwise;

“reckonable service”, in relation to a person, means any period of whole-time or part-time employment in any relevant employment and includes any period of national service or war service undertaken on his ceasing to hold such an employment, but does not include employment in respect of which he has become entitled to receive a benefit from a pension scheme other than his last relevant pension scheme;

“relevant employment” means employment—

(a) in the service of the Agency;

(b) in the service of the Corporation (or of the English Industrial Estates Corporation or of the Welsh Industrial Estates Corporation);

(c) in the service of any previous organisation the functions of which were assumed by any organisation mentioned at (b) above;

(d) in the service of the Council (or of the Council for Small Industries in Rural Areas);

(e) in the service of any previous organisation the functions of which were assumed by any organisation mentioned at (d) above;

(f) in the service of the Crown or of any authority or body for the purposes of the Crown;

(a) 1951 c. 65.

- (g) in local government service in the United Kingdom;
- (h) for the purposes of any statutory provision in the United Kingdom, being employment preceding any of the foregoing employments;
- (i) by a body which provides a public service in the United Kingdom otherwise than for the purposes of gain or to whose funds any local authority contribute or to whom any grant is made out of moneys provided by Parliament, being employment preceding any of the foregoing employments; or
- (j) in such other service as the Secretary of State may in the case of any named officer approve;

but, except for national service or war service, does not include service in the armed forces of the Crown;

“resettlement compensation” means compensation payable in accordance with Part III of these regulations for loss of employment;

“retirement compensation” means compensation payable in accordance with the provisions of regulation 17, 18 or 19;

“scheme authority”, in relation to any person, means the authority administering the pension scheme, fund or account;

“tribunal” means a tribunal established under section 12 of the Industrial Training Act 1964(a);

“war service” means war service within the meaning of the Local Government Staffs (War Service) Act 1939(b), the Teachers Superannuation (War Service) Act 1939(c), the Education (Scotland) (War Service Superannuation) Act 1939(d) or the Police and Firemen (War Service) Act 1939(e) or employment for war purposes within the meaning of the Superannuation Schemes (War Service) Act 1940(f) if such service or employment immediately followed a period of relevant employment and was undertaken either compulsorily or with the permission of the employer in that employment.

(2) The holder of any office, appointment, place, situation or employment shall, for the purposes of these regulations, be regarded as an officer employed in that office, appointment, place, situation or employment, and the expressions “officer” and “employment” shall be construed accordingly.

(3) Where under any provision of these regulations an annual value is to be assigned to a capital sum or a capital value to an annual amount—

- (a) the annual or capital value shall be ascertained in accordance with the tables set out in the Schedule to these regulations insofar as they provide for the particular case;
- (b) where the said tables do not provide for a case in which an annual value is to be assigned to a capital sum or a capital value to an annual amount, the annual or capital value shall be the value as may be agreed between the Agency and the person to whom the capital sum or annual amount is payable; and
- (c) for the purpose of determining the application of the said tables, the headings and the note to each table shall be treated as part of the table.

(a) 1964 c. 16.

(b) 1939 c. 94.

(c) 1939 c. 95.

(d) 1939 c. 96.

(e) 1939 c. 103.

(f) 1940 c.26.

(4) In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires, references to any enactment shall be construed as references thereto as amended, re-enacted, applied or modified by any subsequent enactment.

(5) References in these regulations to a numbered regulation shall, unless the reference is to a regulation of specified regulations, be construed as references to the regulation bearing that number in these regulations.

(6) References in any regulation of these regulations to a numbered paragraph shall, unless the reference is to a paragraph of a specified regulation, be construed as references to the paragraph bearing that number in the first mentioned regulation.

(7) The Interpretation Act 1889(a) shall apply for the interpretation of these regulations as it applies for the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

PART II

ENTITLEMENT TO COMPENSATION

Persons to whom the regulations apply

3. These regulations shall apply to any person who was employed immediately before the material date for the whole or for part only of his time—

- (a) as an officer of the Corporation engaged on administrative, professional, clerical or technical duties, or
- (b) as an officer of the Council.

Grounds of entitlement to compensation

4. Subject to the provisions of these regulations, any person to whom these regulations apply and who suffers loss of employment or loss or diminution of emoluments which is attributable to any provision of the Act shall be entitled to have his case considered for the payment of compensation under these regulations, and such compensation shall be determined in accordance with these regulations.

PART III

RESETTLEMENT COMPENSATION

Resettlement compensation for loss of employment

5. The Agency shall, subject to the provisions of these regulations, pay resettlement compensation to any person to whom these regulations apply and who satisfies the conditions set out in regulation 6.

Conditions for payment of resettlement compensation

6.—(1) Without prejudice to any other requirement of these regulations, the conditions for the payment of resettlement compensation to any person are that—

- (a) he has suffered loss of employment attributable to any provision of the Act not later than 10 years after the material date;
- (b) he had not at the date of the loss attained normal retiring age;

- (c) he had been for a period of 2 years immediately before the material date continuously engaged (disregarding breaks not exceeding in the aggregate 6 months) for the whole or part of his time in relevant employment;
- (d) he has made a claim for such compensation in accordance with the provisions of Part VII of these regulations not later than 13 weeks after the loss of employment which is the cause of his claim, or 13 weeks after the coming into operation of these regulations, whichever is the later, or within any longer period which the Agency allow in any particular case where they are satisfied that the delay in making the claim was due to ill-health or other circumstances beyond the claimant's control;
- (e) the loss of employment which is the cause of his claim has occurred for some reason other than misconduct or incapacity to perform the duties that, immediately before the loss, he was performing or might reasonably have been required to perform; and
- (f) he has not, subject to paragraphs (3) and (4), after the Agency either informed him in writing that his employment was to be terminated or was likely to be terminated or gave him written notice of termination of his employment, been offered in writing—
- (i) any relevant employment which is reasonably comparable with the employment which he has lost, or
 - (ii) any employment specified in paragraph (2) which is suitable for him.
- (2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(f)(ii), the employment shall be employment by the Agency at the same place or in the same locality as that where he was employed immediately before the loss.
- (3) In ascertaining for the purposes of this regulation whether a person has been offered employment which is reasonably comparable with the employment which he has lost, no account shall be taken of the fact that the duties of the employment offered are in relation to a different service from that in connection with which his employment was held or are duties which involve a transfer of his employment from one place to another within Scotland.
- (4) For the purposes of this regulation, where the Agency are satisfied—
- (a) that acceptance of an offer would have involved undue hardship to the person,
 - (b) that he was prevented from accepting an offer by reason of ill-health or other circumstances beyond his control, or
 - (c) that, before the commencement of these regulations, an offer—
 - (i) has not been accepted by him, and
 - (ii) has lapsed or otherwise terminated,no account shall be taken of that offer.

Amount of resettlement compensation

7.—(1) The amount of resettlement compensation which may be paid to a person shall, subject to the provisions of paragraphs (2) to (5), be the amount described in sub-paragraph (a) or (b) whichever is the greater, namely—

- (a) an amount equal to 13 weeks' emoluments and, in the case of a person who has attained the age of 45 one additional week's emoluments for every year of his age after attaining the age of 45 and before the loss of employment, subject to a maximum addition of 13 such weeks; or

- (b) an amount equal to—
- (i) one and one half week's emoluments for each completed year of reckonable service in which the person was not below the age of 41,
 - (ii) one week's emoluments for each completed year of reckonable service (not falling within sub-paragraph (i) above) in which the person was not below the age of 22, and
 - (iii) one half week's emoluments for each completed year of reckonable service not falling within sub-paragraph (i) or (ii) above.
- (2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(a), if the loss of employment takes place within three years of the date on which the person would have attained normal retiring age, the amount shall be reduced by the fraction of which—
- (a) the numerator is the number of complete periods of 6 months in the period beginning on the date 3 years before that on which he would have attained normal retiring age and ending on the date of loss of employment, and
 - (b) the denominator is 6;
- but the amount payable to a person who, on the material date, has not been continuously engaged in relevant employment as described in regulation 10(1)(c) shall not by this paragraph be reduced to less than the equivalent of 13 weeks' emoluments.
- (3) For the purpose of paragraph (1)(b), in the case of a person who has completed more than 20 years' reckonable service, only the period of 20 years immediately prior to the loss of employment shall be taken into account.
- (4) For the purpose of paragraph (1)(b), if the loss of a person's employment takes place within one year of the date on which he would have attained normal retiring age the amount shall be reduced by the fraction of which the numerator is the number of whole months in the period beginning on the date one year before that on which he would have attained normal retiring age and ending on the date of loss of employment and of which the denominator is 12.
- (5) For the purposes of this regulation, the weekly rate of emoluments shall be deemed to be seven 365ths of the annual rate of emoluments.

Adjustment of resettlement compensation

8. A person who is entitled to—
- (a) a redundancy payment under the Redundancy Payments Act 1965(a), or
 - (b) any similar payment in consequence of the loss of his employment under any other enactment or under any contract or arrangement with the authority by whom he was employed (other than payments by way of a return of contributions under a pension scheme), or
 - (c) any payment under or by virtue of the provisions of any enactment relating to the reinstatement in civil employment of persons who have been in the service of the Crown,
- shall—
- (i) if the amount of any resettlement compensation that would, apart from this regulation, be payable exceeds the payment or payments specified in (a), (b) and (c) above, be entitled to resettlement compensation equal to that excess, or

- (ii) if the amount of any resettlement compensation that would apart from this regulation be payable is equal to or less than the payment or payments specified in (a), (b) and (c) above, not be entitled to resettlement compensation.

PART IV

LONG-TERM COMPENSATION

Long-term compensation for loss of employment or loss or diminution of emoluments

9. The Agency shall, subject to the provisions of these regulations, pay long-term compensation to any person to whom these regulations apply and who satisfies the conditions set out in regulation 10.

Conditions for payment of long-term compensation

10.—(1) Without prejudice to any other requirement of these regulations, the conditions for the payment of long-term compensation to any person are that—

- (a) he has suffered loss of employment or loss or diminution of emoluments attributable to any provision of the Act not later than 10 years after the material date;
- (b) he had not, save as is provided in regulation 25, at the date of the loss or diminution attained normal retiring age;
- (c) he had been, for a period of not less than 5 years immediately before the material date, continuously engaged (without a break of more than 12 months at any one time) for the whole or part of his time in relevant employment;
- (d) he has made a claim for such compensation in accordance with the provisions of Part VII of these regulations not later than 2 years after the loss or diminution which is the cause of the claim or 2 years after the coming into operation of these regulations whichever is the later; and
- (e) if the cause of the claim for compensation is loss of employment—
 - (i) the loss has occurred for some reason other than misconduct or incapacity to perform the duties that, immediately before the loss, he was performing or might reasonably have been required to perform; and
 - (ii) he has not, subject to paragraph (2), after the Agency either informed him in writing that his employment was to be terminated or was likely to be terminated or gave him written notice of termination of his employment, been offered in writing any relevant employment which is reasonably comparable with the employment which he has lost.

(2) Regulation 6(3) and (4) (which relate to offers of employment) shall apply for the purposes of this regulation in ascertaining whether a person has been offered reasonably comparable employment.

(3) Claims for long-term compensation for loss of employment shall in all respects be treated as claims for such compensation for the loss of emoluments occasioned thereby and the provisions of these regulations shall apply to all such claims accordingly.

Factors to be considered in determining payment of long-term compensation

11.—(1) For the purpose of determining whether long-term compensation for loss or diminution of emoluments should be paid to any person and, if so, the amount of the compensation (subject to the limits set out in these regulations) the Agency shall, subject to the provisions of paragraphs (2) and (3), have regard to such of the following factors as may be relevant, that is to say—

- (a) the conditions upon which the person held the employment which he has lost, including in particular its security of tenure, whether by law or practice;
- (b) the emoluments and other conditions, including security of tenure, whether by law or practice, of any work or employment undertaken by the person subsequent to the loss of employment;
- (c) the extent to which he has sought suitable employment and the emoluments which he might have acquired by accepting other suitable employment which, after the employer either informed him in writing that his employment was to be terminated or was likely to be terminated or gave him written notice of termination of his employment, has been offered to him in writing;
- (d) any award of compensation under regulations made under section 24 of the Superannuation Act 1972, or under any similar provision except an award of compensation corresponding to the payments referred to in regulation 8; and
- (e) all the other circumstances of his case.

(2) In ascertaining for the purposes of paragraph (1)(b) and (1)(c) the emoluments in respect of any work or employment that gives the employee or his widow, child or other dependant the right to benefit under a pension scheme under which the employee is not under an obligation to pay contributions, the amount of emoluments shall be increased by the amount of contributions which the employee would have to pay to secure equivalent benefits under a pension scheme in respect of which both the employer and the employee are under an obligation to pay equal contributions.

(3) Regulation 6(4) shall apply for the purposes of this regulation in ascertaining whether a person has been offered suitable employment.

Amount of long-term compensation payable for loss of emoluments

12.—(1) Long-term compensation for loss of emoluments shall, subject to the provisions of these regulations, be payable until the normal retiring age or death of a person to whom it is payable, whichever first occurs, and shall not exceed a maximum annual sum calculated in accordance with the provisions of paragraphs (2) to (4).

(2) The said maximum annual sum shall, subject as hereinafter provided, be the aggregate of the following sums, namely—

- (a) for every year of the person's reckonable service, one sixtieth of the annual rate of the emoluments which he has lost; and
- (b) in the case of a person who has attained the age of 40 at the date of the loss, a sum calculated in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (3) appropriate to his age at that date, but the said maximum annual sum shall in no case exceed two thirds of the annual rate of the emoluments which the person has lost.

- (3) The sum referred to in paragraph (2)(b) shall be—
- (a) in the case of a person who has attained the age of 40 but has not attained the age of 50 at the date of the loss, the following fraction of the annual rate of the emoluments which he has lost—
 - (i) where his reckonable service is less than 10 years, one sixtieth for each year of that service after attaining the age of 40; or
 - (ii) where his reckonable service amounts to 10 years but is less than 15 years, one sixtieth for each year of that service after attaining the age of 40 and one additional sixtieth; or
 - (iii) where his reckonable service amounts to 15 years but is less than 20 years, one sixtieth for each year of that service after attaining the age of 40 and two additional sixtieths; or
 - (iv) where his reckonable service amounts to 20 years or more, one sixtieth for each year of that service after attaining the age of 40 and three additional sixtieths;

but the sums so calculated shall not in any case exceed one sixth of the annual rate of the said emoluments;

- (b) in the case of a person who has attained the age of 50 but has not attained the age of 60 at the date of the loss, one sixtieth of the annual rate of the said emoluments for each year of his reckonable service after attaining the age of 40, up to a maximum of 15 years; and
- (c) in the case of a person who has attained the age of 60 at the date of the loss, one sixtieth of the annual rate of the said emoluments for each year of his reckonable service after attaining the age of 45.

(4) The amount of long-term compensation calculated in accordance with paragraphs (2) and (3), shall be reduced by the amount by which the aggregate of the annual rates of—

- (a) the emoluments of any work or employment undertaken by him as a result of the loss of employment, and
 - (b) the long-term compensation which apart from this paragraph and any reduction under regulation 28(3) and (4) would be payable to him,
- exceeds the annual rate of the emoluments of the employment which has been lost.

(5) Long-term compensation shall be payable to a person at intervals equivalent to those at which the emoluments of his employment were previously paid or at such other intervals as may be agreed between the person and the Agency.

Long-term compensation for diminution of emoluments

13.—(1) Long-term compensation for diminution of emoluments in respect of any employment shall, subject to the provisions of these regulations, consist of an annual sum calculated in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (2).

(2) The said annual sum shall not exceed the sum that would be the annual sum under the provisions of regulation 12(1) to (4) calculated on the assumptions—

- (a) that there was a loss of employment, and
- (b) that emoluments after diminution were emoluments of any work or employment undertaken as a result of the loss of employment.

(3) Long-term compensation for diminution of emoluments shall be payable to a person at intervals equivalent to those at which the emoluments of his employment are or were previously paid or at such other intervals as may be agreed between the person and the Agency.

Period during which long-term compensation is to be payable 14.—(1) Long-term compensation shall be payable with effect from the date of the claim or from any earlier date permitted by the succeeding provisions of this regulation.

(2) Where a claim for long-term compensation is duly made within 13 weeks of the commencement of these regulations or the occurrence of the loss or diminution which is the cause of the claim (whichever is the later), the award shall be made effective from the date on which the loss or diminution occurred.

(3) Where a claim for long-term compensation is made after the expiry of the period mentioned in paragraph (2), the Agency may—

- (a) at their discretion make the award effective from a date not earlier than thirteen weeks prior to the date on which the claim was made, or
- (b) if they are satisfied that the failure to make the claim within the period mentioned in paragraph (2) was due to ill-health or other circumstances beyond the claimant's control, make the award effective from a date not earlier than that on which the loss or diminution occurred.

(4) Long-term compensation shall not be payable to a person for any period in respect of which compensation under Part V of these regulations is payable to him.

PART V

RETIREMENT COMPENSATION AND PAYMENTS ON DEATH

Entitlement to retirement compensation and other payments

15.—(1) The Agency shall, subject to the provisions of these regulations, pay retirement compensation to any person to whom this part of these regulations applies and shall make the other payments for which provision is made in regulations 22 to 25.

(2) Save as is provided in regulation 25, this part of these regulations applies to a pensionable officer who satisfies the conditions set out in regulation 10.

(3) Regulation 11 shall apply in relation to compensation under this part of these regulations as it applies in relation to compensation under Part IV.

Additional factors governing payment of retirement compensation

16.—(1) Where retirement compensation is payable under any one of regulations 17, 18 or 19, compensation shall not be payable under any other of those regulations.

(2) If a person has attained the age of 40 at the date on which he lost his employment or suffered a diminution of his emoluments, the Agency, in calculating the amount of the retirement compensation payable to him, shall credit him with an additional period of service on the following basis, namely—

- (a) 2 years, whether or not he has completed any years of service after attaining the age of 40,
- (b) 2 years for each of the first 4 years of his reckonable service between the date when he attained the age of 40 and the date of the loss or diminution, and
- (c) one year for each year of that reckonable service after the fourth, but the additional period so credited shall not exceed the shortest of the following periods, namely—
- (i) the number of years that, when added to his pensionable service, would amount to the maximum period of service which would have been reckonable by him had he continued in his employment until attaining normal retiring age,
 - (ii) the period of his reckonable service, or
 - (iii) 15 years;

and in calculating the amount of any retirement compensation payable to him, any period so added shall be aggregated with any period entailing reduction of the relevant pension or retiring allowance because of a retirement pension payable under section 28 of the Social Security Act 1975(a).

(3) The benefit in respect of the additional period described in paragraph (2) shall be calculated at the same rate as is applicable for the day immediately preceding the loss or diminution.

(4) When retirement compensation is awarded, or when an award is reviewed under regulation 30, the additional compensation payable in consequence of any period credited to a person under paragraph (2) may be reduced or withheld to the extent that the Agency may think reasonable having regard to the pension scheme (if any) associated with any further employment obtained by him.

(5) If under his last relevant pension scheme the amount of any benefit to which a person might have become entitled could have been increased at the discretion of the authority administering the pension scheme or of any other body, the Agency may increase, to an extent not exceeding that to which his accrued pension, accrued retiring allowance, accrued incapacity pension or accrued incapacity retiring allowance might have been increased or supplemented, the corresponding component of any retirement compensation payable to him; and in this connection the Agency shall have regard to the terms of any relevant resolutions of the authority or body with regard to the increase of benefits and to the provisions of any enactment protecting the interests of that person.

(6) If under his last relevant pension scheme a person would have been entitled to surrender a proportion of any pension which might have become payable to him in favour of his spouse or any dependant, then, if he so desires and informs the Agency by notice in writing accordingly within one month after becoming entitled to retirement compensation under these regulations, he may surrender a proportion of so much of the said compensation as is payable by way of an annual sum on the like terms and conditions and in consideration of the like payments by the Agency as if the said annual sum were a pension to which he had become entitled under the said pension scheme.

(7) In calculating for the purpose of regulation 17 or 18 the amount of the annual sum which is equal to a person's accrued pension, no account shall be taken of any reduction falling to be made in that pension by reason of the provisions of any enactment relating to national insurance or social security until the person reaches the age at which under his last relevant pension scheme the pension would have been so reduced.

Retirement compensation for loss of emoluments payable to pensionable officer on attainment of normal retiring age

17.—(1) Subject to the provisions of these regulations, when a person to whom this part of these regulations applies reaches normal retiring age, the retirement compensation payable to him for loss of emoluments shall be—

- (a) an annual sum equal to the amount of his accrued pension, and
- (b) a lump sum equal to the amount of his accrued retiring allowance (if any).

(2) No compensation shall be payable under this regulation if the person has continued to pay superannuation contributions as if he had suffered no loss of emoluments.

Retirement compensation payable to pensionable officer on his becoming incapacitated or reaching minimum pensionable age

18.—(1) Where a person to whom this part of these regulations applies and who has suffered loss of employment before attaining what would have been his normal retiring age—

- (a) becomes incapacitated in circumstances in which, if he had continued in the employment which he has lost, he would have become entitled to a pension under his last relevant pension scheme, or
- (b) attains the age which, had he continued to serve in the employment which he has lost, would have been his minimum pensionable age, he shall be entitled on the happening of either event to claim—

- (i) in the case mentioned in sub-paragraph (a) above, an annual sum equal to the amount of his accrued incapacity pension and a lump sum equal to the amount of his accrued incapacity retiring allowance (if any), and
- (ii) in the case mentioned in sub-paragraph (b) above, an annual sum equal to the amount of his accrued pension and a lump sum equal to the amount of his accrued retiring allowance (if any), subject however to the conditions specified in paragraph (5).

(2) On receipt of a claim under paragraph (1), the Agency shall consider whether the claimant is a person to whom that paragraph applies, and—

- (a) if they are satisfied that he is not such a person, they shall notify him in writing accordingly, or

- (b) if they are satisfied that he is such a person, they shall assess the amount of compensation payable to him and notify him in writing accordingly;

and notification as described in sub-paragraph (a) or (b) above shall, for the purposes of these regulations, be deemed to be a notification by the Agency of a decision on a claim for compensation.

(3) The Agency may require any person who makes a claim under paragraph (1)(a) to submit himself to a medical examination by a registered medical practitioner selected by them and if they do so, they shall also offer the person an opportunity of submitting a report from his own medical adviser as a result of an examination by him, and the Agency shall take that report into consideration together with the report of the medical practitioner selected by them.

(4) If a person wishes to receive compensation under this regulation, he shall so inform the Agency in writing within one month from the receipt of a notification under paragraph (2) or, where the claim has been the subject of an appeal, from the decision of the tribunal thereon; and the compensation shall be payable as from the date on which the Agency received the claim.

(5) The calculation of compensation under this regulation shall be subject to the following conditions—

- (a) where the Agency, by virtue of regulation 16, have credited the person with an additional period of service, no account shall be taken of any additional period beyond the period which he could have served, had he not lost his employment, before the date on which the claim was received by the Agency;
- (b) if, by reason of any provision of the relevant pension scheme for a minimum benefit, the amount of any such pension or retiring allowance is in excess of that attributable to the person's actual service, no account shall be taken of any such additional period of service except to the extent (if any) by which it exceeds the number of years represented by the difference between his actual service and the period by reference to which the minimum benefit has been calculated; and
- (c) if the number of years by reference to which an accrued incapacity pension or accrued incapacity retiring allowance is to be calculated is less than any minimum number of years of qualifying service prescribed by the relevant pension scheme, the amount of the pension or retiring allowance shall, notwithstanding any minimum benefit prescribed by the pension scheme, not exceed the proportion of the minimum benefit which the number of years of pensionable service bears to the minimum number of years of qualifying service.

Retirement compensation for diminution of emoluments

19.—(1) A person to whom this part of these regulations applies and who has suffered a diminution of his emoluments shall be entitled to receive retirement compensation in accordance with the provisions of this regulation.

(2) The provisions of regulations 17 and 18 shall apply to any such person as if he had suffered loss of employment immediately before the diminution occurred; but the amount of retirement compensation payable shall be the amount which would have been payable in respect of loss of employment multiplied by a fraction of which—

- (a) the numerator is the amount by which his pensionable emoluments have been diminished, and
- (b) the denominator is the amount of his pensionable emoluments immediately before they were diminished; and for the purposes of this calculation no account shall be taken of any reduction which might otherwise fall to be made in the accrued pension or accrued incapacity pension because of a retirement pension payable under section 28 of the Social Security Act 1975.

- (3) No compensation shall be payable under this regulation—
- (a) where the person has continued to pay superannuation contributions as if his emoluments had not been diminished; or
 - (b) where, by virtue of the provisions of his last relevant pension scheme, the person's superannuation benefits are calculated by reference to remuneration for a period prior to the date on which his emoluments were diminished.

Superannuation contributions

20.—(1) A person entitled to retirement compensation under regulation 17 or 18 shall pay an amount equal to any sum which was paid to him by way of return of superannuation contributions (including any interest) after ceasing to be employed—

- (a) if the provisions of his last relevant pension scheme enable him to be credited with benefits attributable to that sum, to the scheme authority, and
- (b) in any other case, to the Agency.

Provided that where contributions for a widow's pension have been refunded in accordance with the provisions of the last relevant pension scheme on the grounds that the person was unmarried at the date of ceasing to be subject to that scheme these contributions shall be payable only if the person has married prior to becoming entitled to receive retirement compensation.

(2) If the person does not pay as specified in paragraph (1), his retirement compensation shall be reduced by an annual amount the capital value of which is equal to the amount of the said superannuation contributions.

(3) For the purposes of this regulation the expression "superannuation contributions" shall include payments made by the person for the purpose of increasing the benefits to which he would have become entitled under his last relevant pension scheme.

(4) Any sums paid to the Agency under this regulation in respect of returned contributions shall be applied for the payment of compensation which the Agency is liable to pay under this part of these regulations.

Retirement compensation of a person who obtains further pensionable employment

21.—(1) Where a person to whom this part of these regulations applies, after suffering loss of employment or diminution of emoluments, enters employment in which he is subject to a pension scheme and thereafter becomes entitled to reckon for the purposes of that scheme any service or period of contribution which falls to be taken into account for the purpose of assessing the amount of any retirement compensation payable to him, his entitlement to retirement compensation shall be reviewed and, subject to the provisions of this regulation, no retirement compensation shall be payable in respect of that service or period unless the annual rate of the emoluments to which he was entitled immediately before the loss or diminution exceeds the annual rate on entry of the emoluments of the new employment, and any retirement compensation so payable to him shall, insofar as it is calculated by reference to remuneration, be calculated by reference to the difference between the said annual rates.

(2) The provisions of this regulation shall not operate to increase the amount of any retirement compensation payable in respect of diminution of emoluments beyond the amount which would have been payable if the person had attained normal retiring age immediately before he ceased to hold the employment in which he suffered the diminution of emoluments.

(3) No retirement compensation shall be payable in the circumstances mentioned in this regulation if the person has continued to pay superannuation contributions as if his emoluments had not been diminished.

Compensation payable to widow or dependants of a claimant

22.—(1) Where a person to whom this part of these regulations applies dies, payments in accordance with this regulation and regulations 23 and 24 shall be made to or for the benefit of his widow, child or other dependant or to his personal representatives or, as the case may be, to trustees empowered by him to stand possessed of any benefit under his last relevant pension scheme.

(2) Where the widow, child or other dependant has become, or but for the person's loss of employment would have become, entitled to benefits under his last relevant pension scheme, the widow, child or other dependant, as the case may be, shall (subject to the provisions of this regulation) be entitled to compensation calculated from time to time in accordance with the methods prescribed by the last relevant pension scheme modified as follows:—

- (a) where the person dies before becoming entitled to receive retirement compensation and the last relevant pension scheme provides that when he dies in service his widow, child or other dependant shall be entitled for any period to a benefit equal to his pensionable remuneration, the annual rate of compensation for that period shall be equal to the annual amount of his long-term compensation calculated in accordance with paragraphs (1) to (3) of regulation 12;
- (b) where the person dies before becoming entitled to receive retirement compensation and the last relevant pension scheme provides that when he dies in service his widow, child or other dependant shall be entitled for any period to a benefit calculated by reference to the pension or incapacity pension which would have been payable to him if he had retired immediately before his death, the compensation for that period shall be calculated by reference to the retirement compensation to which he would have been entitled under regulation 18 if that regulation had been applied to him immediately before his death;
- (c) where a person dies after becoming entitled to receive retirement compensation and the last relevant pension scheme provides that when he dies after having retired his widow, child or other dependant shall be entitled for any period to a benefit equal to his pension, the annual rate of compensation for that period shall be equal to the annual amount of retirement compensation;
- (d) where a person dies after he has become entitled to receive retirement compensation and the last relevant pension scheme provides that when he dies after having retired his widow, child or other dependant shall be entitled for any period to a benefit calculated by reference to his pension, the annual rate of compensation for that period shall be calculated by reference to the annual amount of retirement compensation that would have been payable to him but for any reduction or suspension under regulation 28(1);

- (e) for the purposes of calculating compensation in accordance with the foregoing provisions, each year added to a person's reckonable service under regulation 16 (or which would have been added if retirement under regulation 18 were assumed) shall be deemed to have been service rendered immediately before the loss of employment.
- (3) Calculation of the amounts described in paragraph (2) shall be subject to the following adjustments:—
- (a) where any retirement compensation has been surrendered under regulation 16(6) or compounded under regulation 31 any sum payable under paragraph (2)(b) and (d) shall be calculated as if such surrender or compounding had not taken place;
- (b) it shall be assumed the retirement compensation payable, or which would have been payable, had been such sum as would have been payable if the accrued pension or accrued incapacity pension had not been reduced by reason of the provisions of any enactment relating to national insurance or social security; and
- (c) if immediately before his death the person's long-term compensation was reduced under regulation 12(4) or 30(7) or his retirement compensation was reduced or suspended under regulation 28(1) by reason of employment in which he was subject to a pension scheme and the widow, child or other dependant is entitled under that scheme for any period to a benefit equal to his pensionable remuneration, regard shall be had to any such reduction or suspension for the purposes of paragraph (2)(a) and (c).
- (4) Any sums payable to or for the benefit of a widow, child or other dependant under this regulation shall cease to be payable when a corresponding pension under the last relevant pension scheme would have ceased to be payable; and where that scheme provides for payment of the pension to any person on behalf of a child or other dependant, any sum payable under this regulation to a child or other dependant shall be paid to that person on behalf of the child or dependant in the like manner and for the like period as is provided in the pension scheme.
- (5) Except where the compensation has been reduced under regulation 20, compensation payable under this regulation and regulation 23 shall in the aggregate be reduced by an amount the capital value whereof is equal to the amount of any superannuation contributions as defined in regulation 20(3) returned to the person in respect of whom the compensation is payable and not paid to the Agency, the compensation under each of those regulations being reduced in proportion to the capital value of each amount.
- (6) This regulation shall apply in the case of a person who has suffered a diminution of emoluments with the substitution of references to diminution of emoluments for references to loss of employment, and the compensation payable to his widow, child or other dependant shall be calculated as if he had suffered loss of employment and as if the loss of emoluments occasioned thereby had been equivalent to the amount of the diminution; but no compensation shall be payable under this paragraph—
- (a) where the person has continued to pay superannuation contributions as if his emoluments had not been diminished; or
- (b) where, by virtue of the provisions of the last relevant pension scheme, benefits are payable to the widow, child or other dependant which are calculated by reference to remuneration for a period prior to the date on which the person's emoluments were diminished.

Compensation where death gratuity would have been payable

23.—(1) If the widow, the personal representatives of a person to whom this part of these regulations applies or trustees empowered by that person to stand possessed of any benefit under his last relevant pension scheme might have become entitled to a death gratuity under that scheme, she or they, as the case may be, shall be entitled to receive a sum calculated in accordance with the provisions of regulation 22(5) and paragraph (2) of this regulation.

(2) The amount of the sum referred to in paragraph (1) shall be ascertained in accordance with the method of calculation prescribed by the last relevant pension scheme for the ascertainment of death gratuity as if the person had died immediately before losing his employment, subject to the following modifications—

- (a) account shall be taken of any additional period of service credited to him under regulation 16(2)—
 - (i) in the case of a person who had been in receipt of retirement compensation under regulation 18, to the extent of the period between the loss of employment and the date of the claim made under that regulation, and
 - (ii) in any other case, to the extent of the period between the loss of employment and the person's death;
- (b) if the aggregate of the person's pensionable service and the additional period under regulation 16(2) is less than any minimum period of qualifying service prescribed by the pension scheme for the receipt of a death gratuity, the said sum shall not exceed that proportion of the death gratuity calculated as aforesaid which is equal to the proportion which the aggregate service bears to the minimum period of qualifying service prescribed by the pension scheme; and
- (c) there shall be deducted from the sum described above the amount of any retirement compensation paid to the person under regulation 17 or 18, or where any part of the compensation has been surrendered under regulation 16(6) the amount which would have been so paid but for such a surrender.

(3) In calculating a death gratuity under this regulation, any sum payable under regulation 22 to or for the benefit of the widow, child or other dependant shall be deemed to be a pension payable to or for the benefit of the widow, child or dependant, as the case may be.

(4) This regulation shall apply in the case of a person who has suffered a diminution of emoluments with the substitution of references to diminution of emoluments for references to loss of employment, and the sum payable to the widow, personal representatives or trustees of such a person shall be calculated as if he had lost emoluments equivalent to the amount of the diminution; but no sum shall be payable under this paragraph—

- (a) where the person has continued to pay superannuation contributions as if his emoluments had not been diminished; or
- (b) where, by virtue of the provisions of the last relevant pension scheme, a death gratuity is payable which is calculated by reference to remuneration for a period prior to the date on which the person's emoluments were diminished.

Balance payable to claimant's widow or personal representatives

24.—(1) If no sum is payable to the widow, child or other dependant of an person under regulation 22 and no sum is payable under regulation 23 and the person dies before he has received in the aggregate by way of retirement compensation a sum equivalent to the aggregate of—

- (i) any superannuation contributions as defined in regulation 20(3) paid by him which have not been returned to him, and
- (ii) any amount paid by him in accordance with regulation 20(1) together with compound interest thereon calculated—
 - (a) at the rate of 3 per cent per annum with half yearly rests up to the date of his death as from 1st April or 1st October following the half year in which the amount was paid, or
 - (b) in such other manner as may be provided by the last relevant pension scheme

(whichever calculation gives the greater amount), there shall be paid to his personal representatives the difference between the aggregate amount received by way of retirement compensation as aforesaid and the said equivalent sum

(2) If any annual sum which became payable to a widow under regulation 22 has ceased to be payable on her remarriage or death, and any sum payable to a child or other dependant under that regulation has ceased to be payable, and if the aggregate amount of the payments which were made as aforesaid to the husband by way of retirement compensation and to the widow or personal representatives or trustees under regulation 23 is less than a sum equivalent to the amount which would have been payable to the personal representative under that regulation if no sum had been payable under regulation 22, there shall be paid to her or her personal representatives the difference between such aggregate amount and the said equivalent sum.

(3) For the purpose of this regulation, a person who has surrendered any part of his retirement compensation under regulation 16(6), or whose retirement compensation has been reduced in accordance with regulation 28(3), shall be deemed to have received during any period the amount of compensation for that period which he would have received but for such a surrender or such a reduction.

Compensation payable to non-pensionable officer on reaching normal retiring age

25.—(1) Where a person who is not a pensionable officer is receiving long-term compensation for loss of employment and attains normal retiring age, the Agency may, if satisfied that the person would, but for the loss, have continued in the employment he has lost for a substantial period beyond that age, continue to pay compensation to him for the remainder of his life at half its former rate.

(2) Where a person who is not a pensionable officer suffers loss of employment on or after attaining normal retiring age, the Agency may, if satisfied that the person would in the normal course have continued in the employment he has lost for a further substantial period, pay compensation to him for the remainder of his life at half the rate to which he would have been entitled under regulation 12 had he not attained normal retiring age at the date on which he lost his employment.

Intervals for payment of compensation under Part V

26. Any compensation awarded under this part of these regulations to or in respect of any person shall be payable at intervals equivalent to those at which the corresponding benefit would have been payable under the person's last relevant pension scheme or at such other intervals as may be agreed between the person entitled to receive the compensation and the Agency.

PART VI

ADJUSTMENT, REVIEW AND COMPOUNDING OF COMPENSATION

Adjustment of compensation where superannuation benefit is also payable 27.—(1) Where any period of service of which account was taken in calculating the amount of any compensation payable under Part IV or V of these regulations is subsequently taken into account for the purpose of calculating the amount of any superannuation benefit payable to or in respect of any person in accordance with a pension scheme associated with any employment undertaken subsequent to the loss of employment or diminution of emoluments which was the subject of the claim for compensation, the Agency may in accordance with this regulation withhold or reduce the compensation payable.

(2) If the part of any superannuation benefit which is attributable to a period of service mentioned in paragraph (1) equals or exceeds the part of any compensation which is attributable to the same period, that part of the compensation may be withheld, or if the part of the superannuation benefit is less than the part of the compensation, the compensation may be reduced by an amount not exceeding that part of the superannuation benefit.

(3) In the case of a death benefit payable in respect of any person, the sum payable under regulation 23 may be reduced by an amount not greater than the proportion of the death benefit which the period of service mentioned in paragraph (1) bears to the total period of service of which account was taken in the calculation of the death benefit.

(4) In addition to any reduction authorised by paragraph (2) or (3), if, in the circumstances mentioned in paragraph (1), compensation is attributable in part to any provision of the last relevant pension scheme for a minimum benefit, the compensation may be reduced by an amount not exceeding that part.

(5) Where any additional period of service has been credited to a person under regulation 16(2) and that period is equal to or less than the period reckonable in respect of the subsequent employment mentioned in paragraph (1), the compensation may be reduced (in addition to any other reduction authorised by this regulation) by an amount not exceeding that attributable to the additional period of service so credited or, if the period is greater than the period reckonable in respect of the subsequent employment, by the proportion of that amount which the period reckonable in respect of the subsequent employment bears to the additional period so credited.

(6) In making any reduction under paragraphs (2) to (5), the amount of pension or, as the case may be, lump sum to be taken into account relating to the subsequent employment shall be the amount of such pension or lump sum reduced by a fraction of that pension or lump sum, where—

- (a) the numerator is equivalent to the aggregate of the amount of increases which would have been awarded under the provisions of the Pensions (Increase) Act 1971(a), during the period beginning with the day following loss of the employment for which compensation is payable and ending on the day the subsequent employment terminated, on an official pension (within the meaning of that Act) of £100 a year which commenced from the first mentioned day, and
- (b) the denominator is equivalent to the aggregate of an official pension of £100 a year and the amount of the increases so determined.

(7) Where compensation has been calculated in accordance with regulation 21, the provisions of this regulation shall apply only in relation to the part (if any) of the superannuation benefit which is attributable to annual emoluments in excess of those to which the person was entitled on entering the new employment referred to in regulation 21.

(8) Where compensation is payable in respect of diminution of emoluments, the provisions of this regulation shall apply only in relation to the part (if any) of the superannuation benefit which is attributable to annual emoluments in excess of those to which the person was entitled immediately prior to the diminution.

Reduction of compensation in certain cases

28.—(1) If under a person's last relevant pension scheme any benefit for which the scheme provided would have been subject to reduction or suspension on his taking up other specified employment, any retirement compensation to which he is entitled for loss of employment or diminution of emoluments shall, where such an employment is taken up, be reduced or suspended in the like manner and to the like extent; but in calculating the amount of the reduction there shall be aggregated with the emoluments of the employment taken up the amount of any superannuation benefit by way of annual amounts payable to the person under a pension scheme associated with the employment which he has lost or, as the case may be, the employment in which the emoluments were diminished.

(2) There shall be deducted from the retirement compensation payable to any person any additional voluntary contributions remaining unpaid at the date when he suffered loss of employment; and any such payments not recovered at the date of his death shall be deducted from any compensation payable in respect of that person under regulation 22, 23 or 24(2).

(3) Where compensation under these regulations is payable otherwise than for diminution of emoluments to or in respect of any person, and that person or his widow, child or other dependant or his personal representatives or trustees as are mentioned in regulation 23(1) is or are also entitled (whether immediately or on the person's attaining some greater age) to a superannuation benefit under his last relevant pension scheme in respect of any service of which account was taken in calculating the compensation—

- (a) any instalment of that compensation which is payable in respect of any period shall be reduced by the amount of the instalment of such superannuation benefit which is payable in respect of the same period, and
- (b) any of that compensation which is payable under Part IV or Part V of these regulations and which is payable as a lump sum, shall be reduced by the amount of any lump sum superannuation benefit.

(4) Where compensation is payable under Part IV of these regulations to any person and that person becomes entitled to receive a superannuation benefit under a pension scheme other than his last relevant pension scheme in respect of any period of service of which account was taken in calculating the compensation the Agency shall reduce any instalment of the compensation which is payable in respect of any period by the amount of the instalment of the superannuation benefit which is payable in respect of the same period.

(5) For the purposes of paragraphs (3) and (4), no account shall be taken of any sum payable in consequence of the surrender by any person of part of his superannuation benefit under any provision in that behalf in the relevant pension scheme with a view to obtaining or increasing allowances for his widow, child or other dependant; and the person shall be deemed to have received during any period the amount of superannuation benefit which he would have received but for such a surrender.

(6) Where in any week a person entitled to long-term compensation for loss or diminution of emoluments is also entitled to a social security benefit, there shall be deducted from the long-term compensation payable in respect of that week a sum equal to the amount by which the aggregate of—

(a) the social security benefit that would be payable in respect of that week if calculated at the rate applicable at the date of loss or diminution, and

(b) the weekly rate at which the long-term compensation would be payable but for this regulation, exceeds two-thirds of the weekly rate of the emoluments of the employment which he has lost or in which the emoluments have been diminished.

(7) No deduction shall be made under paragraph (6) insofar as—

(a) an equivalent sum is deducted from the emoluments of his current employment, and

(b) that deduction from those emoluments has not occasioned an increase in his long-term compensation.

(8) In paragraph (6) the expression “weekly rate” means seven 365ths of the relevant annual rate, and the expression “social security benefit” means any unemployment, sickness, invalidity or injury benefit or retirement pension payable under any enactment relating to national insurance or social security, other than a benefit claimable by him in respect of a dependant.

Notification of change of circumstances

29. Where—

(a) a pensionable officer after suffering loss of employment or diminution of emoluments enters any employment referred to in regulation 21 or becomes entitled to any superannuation benefit on ceasing to hold such an employment,

(b) a person entitled to long-term compensation, whilst that compensation is liable to review in accordance with the provisions of regulation 30, enters any employment, or ceases to hold an employment, or receives any increase in his emoluments in an employment,

- (c) a person entitled to retirement compensation enters employment in which the compensation is subject to reduction or suspension under regulation 28 or ceases to hold such an employment, or receives any increase in his remuneration in such an employment, or
 - (d) a person entitled to long-term compensation starts to receive any benefit, any increase in benefit or any further benefit, under any enactment relating to national insurance or social security,
- he shall forthwith in writing inform the Agency of that fact.

Review of awards of long-term or retirement compensation

30.—(1) The Agency shall—

- (a) on the expiry of 6 months from the decision date, or
- (b) on the occurrence of any material change in the circumstances of the case, whichever shall first occur, and thereafter within a period of 2 years after the decision date, or within any longer period specified in the subsequent provisions of this regulation, and at intervals of not more than 6 months, review their decision or, where the claim has been the subject of an appeal, the decision of the tribunal, and (subject to paragraph (7)) these regulations shall apply in relation to such a review as they apply in relation to the initial determination of the claim; and on such a review, in the light of any material change in the circumstances of the case, compensation may be awarded, or compensation previously awarded may be increased, reduced or discontinued, subject to the limits set out in these regulations.

(2) The person to whom the decision relates may require the Agency to carry out the review mentioned in paragraph (1) at any time within 2 years after the decision date if he considers that there has been a change in the circumstances of his case which is material for the purposes of these regulations.

(3) The Agency shall carry out a review in accordance with paragraph (1), notwithstanding the expiration of the period of 2 years mentioned in that paragraph, if—

- (a) the emoluments of employment or work undertaken as a result of the loss of employment had been taken into account in determining the amount of any compensation awarded,
- (b) that employment or work has been lost or the emoluments thereof reduced, otherwise than by reason of misconduct or incapacity to perform the duties which the person might reasonably have been required to perform, and
- (c) the Agency are satisfied that the loss or reduction is causing him hardship, and where any decision is so reviewed, the decision shall be subject to further review in accordance with paragraph (1) as if the review carried out under this paragraph had been the initial determination of the claim.

(4) Paragraphs (1) and (2) shall apply in relation to any decision on a claim for long-term or retirement compensation in respect of diminution of emoluments as they apply in relation to any decision mentioned in paragraph (1) and as if in paragraph (1) “decision date” means the date on which any decision on a claim for long-term compensation for diminution of emoluments is notified to the claimant, but—

- (a) where the person to whom the decision relates ceases to hold the employment in which his emoluments were diminished, a review shall be held within three months after that date, but no further review shall be held after the expiry of that period, and
- (b) while that person continues to hold that employment, there shall be no limit to the period within which a review may take place.
- (5) Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing provisions of this regulation, the Agency shall review a decision, whether given by them or by the tribunal, on a claim for long-term compensation for loss of employment or diminution of emoluments after the expiry of any period within which a review is required to be made if at any time—
- (a) the person to whom the decision relates becomes engaged in any employment (hereinafter referred to as “his current employment”) the emoluments of which are payable out of public funds and which he has undertaken subsequent to the loss or diminution, and
- (b) the aggregate of the emoluments of his current employment, any superannuation benefit by way of annual amounts payable to him in respect of the employment which he has lost or the employment in which his emoluments have been diminished and the long-term compensation payable to him exceeds the emoluments of the employment which he has lost or, as the case may be, in which the emoluments have been diminished.
- (6) The Agency shall further review any decision reviewed under paragraph (5) whenever the emoluments of the person’s current employment are increased.
- (7) On any review under this regulation, the amount of long-term compensation which, apart from this paragraph and any reduction under regulation 28(3) and (4) would be payable to the person may be reduced by an amount not exceeding the amount by which the aggregate of the compensation and the annual rate of emoluments of his current employment exceeds the annual rate of emoluments of the employment which he has lost or, as the case may be, in which the emoluments have been diminished.
- (8) The Agency shall give to a person to whom a decision relates not less than 14 days’ notice of any review of that decision to be carried out under this regulation unless the review is carried out at his request.
- (9) In this regulation the expression “decision date” means the date on which any decision on a claim for long-term or retirement compensation for loss of employment is notified to a claimant under regulation 32.
- (10) For the purposes of regulations 12(4), 21(1) and 27(7) and (8) and on any review under this regulation, no account shall be taken of any increase in the emoluments of any work or employment undertaken as a result of the loss of employment or diminution of emoluments, or of any superannuation benefit attributable to such an increase, if any such increase is effective from any date after the date of the loss or diminution and is attributable to a rise in the cost of living.
- (11) Nothing in this regulation shall preclude the making of any adjustment of compensation required by regulation 27 or 28.

Compounding of awards

31.—(1) In the case where an annual sum which has been or might be awarded under these regulations does not exceed £35, the Agency may, at their discretion, compound their liability in respect thereof by paying a lump sum equivalent to the capital value of the annual sum and, if any lump sum payment has been awarded or might be awarded in addition to such sum under regulation 17, 18 or 19 the Agency may likewise discharge their liability in respect thereof by an immediate payment.

(2) In any other case, if the person who has been awarded long-term or retirement compensation requests them to do so, the Agency may, after having regard to the state of health of that person and the other circumstances of the case, compound up to one quarter of their liability to make payments under the award (other than payments to a widow, child or other dependant under regulation 22) by the payment of an equivalent amount as a lump sum or, where any compensation has been awarded as a lump sum by increasing that compensation to such equivalent amount; and in calculating for this purpose the liability of the Agency to make such payments, account shall be taken of the annual value of lump sum payments of compensation other than payments of compensation under Part III of these regulations.

(3) The making of a composition under paragraph (2) in relation to an award of long-term or retirement compensation shall not prevent the subsequent making of a composition under paragraph (1) in relation to that award but, subject as aforesaid, not more than one composition may be made in relation to any award.

PART VII

PROCEDURE AND MISCELLANEOUS

Procedure on making claims

32.—(1) Every claim for compensation under these regulations and every request for a review of an award of long-term or retirement compensation shall be made in accordance with this regulation.

(2) Every such claim or request shall be made to the Agency in writing and shall state whether any other claim for compensation has been made by the claimant under these regulations.

(3) Resettlement compensation shall be claimed separately from any other form of compensation claimable under these regulations.

(4) The Agency shall consider any such claim or request in accordance with the relevant provisions of these regulations and shall notify the claimant in writing of their decision—

(a) in the case of a claim for resettlement compensation, not later than one month after the receipt of the claim,

(b) in the case of a claim for, or request for the review of an award of, compensation under Part IV or V of these regulations, not later than one month after the receipt of the claim or request, and

(c) in any other case, as soon as possible after the decision;

but the decision of the Agency shall not be invalidated by reason of the fact that notice of the decision is given after the expiry of the period mentioned in this paragraph.

(5) Every notification of a decision by the Agency (whether granting or refusing compensation or reviewing an award, or otherwise affecting any compensation under these regulations) shall contain a statement—

- (a) giving reasons for the decision;
- (b) showing how any compensation has been calculated and, in particular, if the amount is less than the maximum which could have been awarded under these regulations, showing the factors taken into account in awarding that amount; and
- (c) directing the attention of the claimant to his right under regulation 40, if he is aggrieved by the decision, to institute proceedings before a tribunal and giving him the address to which any application instituting those proceedings should be sent.

Claimants to furnish information

33.—(1) Any person claiming or receiving compensation or whose award of compensation is being reviewed shall furnish all such information that the Agency may at any time reasonably require; and he shall verify that information in such manner, including the production of documents in his possession or control, as may be reasonably so required.

(2) Such a person shall, on receipt of reasonable notice, present himself for interview at any place that the Agency may reasonably require; and any person who attends for interview may, if he so desires, be represented by his adviser.

Procedure on death of claimant

34.—(1) In the event of the death of a claimant or of a person who, if he had survived, could have been a claimant, a claim for compensation under these regulations may be continued or made, as the case may be, by his personal representatives.

(2) Where any such claim is continued or made as aforesaid by personal representatives the personal representatives shall, as respects any steps to be taken or thing to be done by them in order to continue or make the claim, be deemed for the purposes of these regulations to be the person entitled to claim, but, save as aforesaid, the person in whose right they continue or make the claim shall be deemed for the purposes of these regulations to be that person, and the relevant provisions of the regulations shall be construed accordingly.

(3) The Agency may in any case where a person who, if he had survived, could have been a claimant has died, extend the period within which a claim under regulation 6 or 10 is to be made by his personal representatives.

Calculation of service

35.—(1) For the purpose of determining the amount of any compensation payable in respect of the loss of an office to which, or of any two or more offices to which in the aggregate, a person devoted substantially the whole of his time, any previous period of part-time employment shall be treated as though it were whole-time employment for a proportionately reduced period.

(2) For the purpose of making any calculation under these regulations in respect of a person's reckonable service, all periods of that service shall be aggregated by reference to completed years and completed days; and any provision in these regulations requiring compensation to be calculated by reference to a year of reckonable service shall (unless the provision specifically states that compensation is payable in respect of completed years) be construed as including completed days, each completed day over and above a completed year being expressed as one 365th of a year.

General provisions as to emoluments

36.—(1) In these regulations, subject to the provisions of paragraph (2) and regulations 37 and 38 the expression "emoluments" means all salary, wages, fees and other payments paid or made to an officer as such for his own use, and also the money value of any accommodation or other allowances in kind appertaining to his employment, but does not include payments for overtime which are not a usual incident of his employment, or any allowances payable to him to cover the cost of providing office accommodation or clerical or other assistance, or any travelling or subsistence allowance or other moneys to be spent, or to cover expenses incurred, by him for the purposes of his employment.

(2) Where fees or other variable payments were paid to an officer as part of his emoluments during any period immediately preceding the loss or diminution, the amount in respect of fees or other variable payments to be included in the annual rate of emoluments shall be the annual average of the fees or other payments paid to him during the period of 3 years immediately preceding the loss or diminution, or such other period as the Agency may think reasonable in the circumstances.

Emoluments of part-time employments

37. In ascertaining for the purposes of these regulations whether, and how far, the emoluments of alternative employment fall short of emoluments which have been lost where those emoluments were payable in respect of two or more part-time employments, the emoluments of the alternative employment or of the aggregate of two or more alternative employments shall be apportioned in the proportion which the emoluments of the part-time employments bore to each other.

Temporary variation of emoluments

38. In calculating for the purposes of these regulations the amount of any emoluments lost, or the amount by which any emoluments have been diminished and in determining the resettlement and long-term compensation of any person who has suffered such a loss or diminution no account shall be taken of any temporary increase or decrease in the amount of the person's emoluments which is attributable to the passing of the Act.

Compensation not assignable

39.—(1) Subject to the provisions of any enactment in that behalf, any compensation to which a person becomes entitled under these regulations shall be paid by the Agency and shall be payable to, or in trust for, the person who is entitled to receive it, and shall not be assignable.

(2) Without prejudice to any other right of recovery, any compensation paid in error may be recovered by the Agency by deduction from any compensation payable under these regulations.

Right of appeal from decision of the Agency

40.—(1) Every person who is aggrieved by any decision of the Agency with respect to a compensation question or by any failure on the part of the Agency to notify him of any such decision within the appropriate time prescribed by these regulations, may within 13 weeks of the notification to him of the decision or the expiry of the prescribed time, as the case may be, institute proceedings for the determination of the question by a tribunal in accordance with the Industrial Tribunals (Labour Relations) (Scotland) Regulations 1974(a) and these regulations; and the tribunal shall determine the question accordingly.

(2) For the purpose of any proceedings instituted in pursuance of this regulation, a person or persons may be appointed to sit with the tribunal as assessor or assessors.

(3) The Agency shall give effect to the decision of a tribunal subject to any modifications that may be required in consequence of any appeal from that decision on a point of law.

One of Her Majesty's Principal
Secretaries of State.

NOTE.—This table is for use in connection with regulation 31(1) and (2) of the regulations for the compounding of annual retirement compensation which a person is currently entitled to receive under regulation 17, 18 or 19. Where the compensation is payable before age 60 (in the case of females) or 65 (in the case of males) but will be reduced on the attainment of that age to take account of a national insurance or social security pension the tables should be used in conjunction with Table II(a) i.e. Table II(a) should be used for valuing that part of the compensation which ceases to be payable at 60 (65) and this table should be used for valuing the remainder. This table is not applicable for—

- (i) compounding an annual sum payable to a widow under regulation 22 of the regulations (Table III should be used);
- (ii) compounding annual retirement compensation which will not begin to be paid until some future date.

NOTE.—This table is for use in connection with regulation 22(5) for ascertaining the annual amount by which compensation to a widow is to be reduced in the circumstances described in that paragraph. If a reduction is required to be apportioned between compensation payable under regulations 22 and 23 the capital value of annual compensation to a widow should be ascertained by reference to Table III.

TABLE VI(a)

The capital value of each £100 of the total amount of long-term compensation, payable to age 60, in which the annual payments attract pensions increase from age 55, according to the outstanding period of long-term compensation.

NOTE.—This table is for use in connection with regulation 31(1) and (2) for compounding awards of long-term compensation under Part IV of the regulations. The total amount of the annual long-term compensation which is to be compounded must first be calculated, i.e. the amount which the person would receive on account of that compensation, or the part of it which is to be compounded, if it were paid until age 60. For each £100 so calculated, the lump sum payment will be the amount shown in the table according to the number of complete years in the period between the date of compounding and age 60.

The capital value of each £100 of the total amount of long-term compensation, payable to age 65, in which the annual payments attract pensions increase from age 55, according to the outstanding period of long-term compensation.

NOTE.—This table is for use in connection with regulation 31(1) and (2) for compounding awards of long-term compensation under Part IV of the regulations. The total amount of the annual long-term compensation which is to be compounded must first be calculated, i.e. the amount which the person would receive on account of that compensation, or the part of it which is to be compounded, if it were paid until age 65. For each £100 so calculated, the lump sum payment will be the amount shown in the table according to the number of complete years in the period between the date of compounding and age 65.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations.)

1. These Regulations provide for the payment of compensation to or in respect of persons who suffer loss of employment or loss or diminution of emoluments which is attributable to any provision of the Scottish Development Agency Act 1975.

2. Part I of the Regulations (with the Schedule) contains definitions. Part II specifies the persons to whom the Regulations apply and the grounds of entitlement to compensation.

3. The compensation payable is:

- (a) resettlement compensation for loss of employment (Part III);
- (b) long-term compensation for loss of employment or loss or diminution of emoluments (Part IV);
- (c) retirement compensation for loss of employment or loss or diminution of emoluments (Part V);
- (d) compensation to the widow, child or other dependant or to the personal representatives of a claimant who was a pensionable officer (Part V).

4. Resettlement compensation is payable in a lump sum to officers with at least 2 years' service in relevant employment. The qualifying conditions and factors to be considered are set out in Regulation 6 and the methods of calculation are set out in Regulations 7 and 8.

5. Long-term and retirement compensation is payable to officers with at least five years' service in relevant employment. The qualifying conditions and factors to be considered are set out in Regulations 10 and 11.

6. The method of calculating the amount of long-term compensation is laid down in Regulations 12 (loss of emoluments) and 13 (diminution of emoluments). The compensation is payable from the date determined under Regulation 14, but is not payable for any period in respect of which retirement compensation is payable. In the case of a non-pensionable officer, compensation not exceeding one half of the rate of long-term compensation may be paid beyond normal retiring age (Regulation 25).

7. Retirement compensation payable to a pensionable officer is based upon his accrued pension rights (Regulations 17 and 19) supplemented in the case of persons aged 40 or over at the date of the loss or diminution by the addition of notional years of service (Regulation 16). Retirement compensation is ordinarily payable from normal retiring age, but in certain circumstances is payable earlier (Regulation 18).

8. Compensation is payable to the widow, child or other dependant or to the personal representatives or trustees of a claimant who dies where such persons would have benefited under the relevant pension scheme (Regulations 22 to 24).

9. Part VI provides for long-term and retirement compensation to be reviewed and for awards to be varied in the light of changing circumstances (Regulation 30). It also contains provisions for the adjustment, suspension and compounding of compensation in certain circumstances.

10. Part VII contains provisions relating to the procedure for making claims and notifying decisions. A right is given to a claimant who is aggrieved by a decision on a compensation question or the failure of the Agency to notify its decision to refer the question for determination by a tribunal in accordance with the Industrial Tribunals (Labour Relations) (Scotland) Regulations 1974.
