Section 5 of the Milk (Special Designations) Act 1949, as read with the Transfer of Functions (Ministry of Food) Order 1955, enables the Secretary of State, after consulting such representative organisations as appear to him substantially to represent the interests concerned, to order that Section 1(1) of the 1949 Act, which requires the use of a special designation for retail sales of milk, shall come into operation in any area of Scotland in which it is not then in operation.
