Except where otherwise provided, the terms of the Guarantee Payments of Employment Protection Act 1975 shall apply.

Qualifications

 - (c) is not a temporary employee (i.e. a person with a fixed term contract of employment of 12 weeks or less).

Guaranteed Week Benefit

3. Weekly earnings are guaranteed, subject to the conditions laid down in this Agreement, at 100% of the figure obtained by multiplying the basic time rate per hour, and, where appropriate, the shift differential, by the number of hours of the contracted week. - (c) Where circumstances arise outside the control of Management and employees of such a nature as to make payment under this Agreement impracticable, then benefit will not be payable.

5. Re-arrangement of Hours

- (a) The Unions and their members will co-operate in the immediate re-arrangement of working hours where such re-arrangement would enable production to be maintained or increased up to the normal level. Where such co-operation is unreasonably withheld benefit will not be payable.
- (b)
 - (i) The pay arising from re-arranged hours shall be the basis for comparison in determining the amount, if any, of Benefit due for the week in which such re-arranged hours are worked, save that bonus, overtime premium and other plus payments shall be disregarded if and where paid during such re-arranged hours.
 - (ii) The normal overtime provisions shall apply where re-arranged hours are worked in respect of hours in excess of the normal number of contracted hours for the day or shift if a week-day or in respect of all hours normally qualifying for premium time at a week-end. Where appropriate shift differential will be paid.

Miscellaneous Provisions

Where a holiday or holidays falls or fall in a contracted week during which Guaranteed Week Benefit would otherwise be payable, the contracted hours for that week shall be reduced by the number of hours normally worked on the day or days of such holiday

Where an employee is absent from work on account of certified sickness, injury, disciplinary suspension or holiday during which Guaranteed Week Benefit would otherwise be payable, the contracted hours for that week shall be reduced by the number of hours involved.

Benefit for that part of the contracted week that the employee is available to work will be paid only if the reason for the absence is recognised as valid by the Management. In the absence of such a reason the employee will forfeit Benefit for that week.

- (c) Deductions

Normal deductions as made from wages shall be made from the Guaranteed Week Benefit.

- (d) Sectional Application

(e) Future Legislation

Payments made under this Agreement shall be offset against any payments required to be made under future legislation designed for the same or similar purpose as this Agreement.

7. Interpretation

Any dispute arising from this Agreement shall be dealt with under the Recognition and Procedure Agreements between the parties to this Agreement. Any employee may refer a complaint concerning guaranteed remuneration to which the employee is entitled under this Agreement to an industrial tribunal.

8. Duration

This Agreement will be effective from date of registration and may be terminated by either party on giving no less than six months notice in writing to the other party. Should this Agreement be terminated, the parties agree that the terms of Guarantee Payments as provided in sections 22 to 28 of the Employment Protection Act 1975 shall immediately apply.
