SCHEDULE 2

MATERIAL PROVISIONS OF THE COLLECTIVE AGREEMENT

Agreement as to Short-time Working or Lay-off

(1) In this Agreement short time working is defined as a working week in which less than five days are worked and a lay-off is defined as a period of five or more consecutive normal working days on which no work is available for employees.

(2) The Company will seek to avoid redundancy, lay off or short time working in any period during which it becomes necessary to reduce production capacity by first allowing normal wastage to reduce numbers of employees.

(3) Should normal wastage be insufficient to reduce numbers of employees to the required levels, the Company will shorten the working week or lay off employees. The Company will provide the Stewards with such information as to numbers of employees required and steps taken or about to be taken to achieve these numbers as is reasonable in the circumstances. The Company will give to the Stewards one weeks notice of its intention to operate short time working or lay-off.

(a) (4) (a) The Company will expect the remaining employees to work flexibly so as to maintain a balanced work force.

whether	(i) by accepting a lower grade of work and/or	(ii) by accepting a change of shift
or	(iii) by accepting either (i) or (ii) above on a rota basis.

(b) The Company will first endeavour to achieve the necessary balance by requesting employees to volunteer for changes before making any selection of employees as in paragraph (6).

(5) In every case where an employee is required to make a change as in paragraph (4) such that the basic rate of pay and/or shift allowance where appropriate for that employee is reduced then the previous higher basic rate of pay will be maintained for a period of not more than six consecutive weeks commencing with the first day of the change.

(6) Selection of employees for these changes, other than voluntary changes, will be on the basis that the employee having the shortest period of continuous service in the higher grade will be the first to be required to change to the lower grade.

(7) Payment for any day lost through short time working or lay off will be made to those employees who would normally have worked that day up to a maximum of five working days

- (ii) The employee had not refused to accept reasonable alternative employment on the day for which payment is claimed.
- (iii) The day for which payment is claimed has not been lost as a result of industrial action at any establishment of either the Company or the Group.

(8) Payment for any day lost as set out in paragraph (7) will be the amount which would have been due to the employee for eight hours basic rate including shift allowance where appropriate had that day been worked.

(9) Any employee coming within the terms of this Agreement who considers that he or she has been unfairly treated by reason of a decision taken under this Agreement has a right of appeal in accordance with the Company's Grievance Procedure. In addition the employee has in every case the right to present a case to an industrial tribunal that the Company has failed to make a payment, or part of a payment, to which the employee is entitled under this Agreement.

(10) Nothing in this Agreement shall prevent the Company from arranging the Closure of the Factory as part of the Annual Holiday entitlement in accordance with existing Holiday Regulations.
