7.—(1) A direction subsisting immediately prior to the date of transfer that any interest or dividends accruing in respect of any security in respect of which compensation stock is to be issued shall be paid to any person shall continue to have effect after such date of transfer as a direction that interest on the compensation stock is to be so paid unless such direction is revoked before the issue of the compensation stock by the transfer of the rights thereto or otherwise.

(2) Where a warrant for interest on compensation stock is despatched by post in accordance with any such direction as is described in paragraph (1) of this Regulation, the posting of the warrant to the address given in the direction shall be a good discharge to the Bank of England for such interest.
