EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations.)

These Regulations are made in consequence of the Social Security Benefits Up-rating Order 1980. They specify circumstances in which the rate of benefit which is awarded before the date from which altered rates become payable is not automatically altered by virtue of paragraph 2 of Schedule 14 to the Social Security Act 1975. They apply the provisions of regulation 5 of the Social Security Benefit (Persons Abroad) Regulations 1975 (which relates to persons who are absent from and not ordinarily resident in Great Britain when the weekly rate of certain benefits is increased) to the increases of benefit provided by virtue of the up-rating order. They amend the Social Security (Unemployment, Sickness and Invalidity Benefit) Regulations 1975, the Social Security (Non-Contributory Invalidity Pension) Regulations 1975 and the Social Security (Industrial Injuries) (Benefit) Regulations 1975 so as to raise to £15 a week or £780 a year, as the case may be, the earnings limits in respect of work which a person in receipt of incapacity benefit to which those regulations apply may do in certain circumstances.
