The Milk (Northern Ireland) (No. 2) Order 1980

Made	- - -	19th December 1980
Laid before Parliament		23rd December 1980
Coming into Operation		1st January 1981

The Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food and the Secretary of State, acting jointly in exercise of the powers conferred on them by sections 6 and 7 of the Emergency Laws (Re-enactments and Repeals) Act 1964(a), and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, hereby make the following Order:—

Citation, commencement and extent

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Milk (Northern Ireland) (No. 2) Order 1980 and shall come into operation on 1st January 1981.

(2) This Order shall apply only to Northern Ireland.

Interpretation

2. In this Order unless the context otherwise requires—

“catering business” means the business or undertaking of an inn, public house, hotel, restaurant, café, tea shop, buffet, coffee-stall or any place of refreshment open to the public, or of a club, boarding house, apartment house, refreshment contractor, staff dining room or canteen, or of any school feeding centre, school premises or other educational establishment where milk is provided for pupils; and “caterer” shall be construed accordingly;

“dairy” means the premises where the milk is to be subjected to heat treatment;

“the Department” means the Department of Agriculture for Northern Ireland;

“farm bottled milk” means milk in respect of which the designation “farm bottled milk” is lawfully used pursuant to the Milk Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1963(b);

“heat treatment” means any heat treatment of milk whereby the milk becomes pasteurised milk;

“human consumption” does not include use in the preparation of food for sale for human consumption;

(a) 1964 c.60; section 6 is continued in force by the Milk (Extension of Period of Control of Maximum Prices) Orders 1969, 1974 and 1979 – S.I. 1969/1058, 1974/2139 and 1979/1602.

(b) S.R. & O. (N.I.) 1963 No. 44, amended by S.R. & O. (N.I.) 1973 No. 30.

“milk” means liquid cows’ milk but does not include separated milk, skimmed milk, condensed milk or evaporated milk;

“normal delivery terms” means terms incorporated in a contract, made for a period of at least twelve months, notwithstanding any provision regarding premature termination, and under which terms the milk is delivered daily by the vendor to the purchaser’s dairy in bulk tankers and without undue variations of quantity from day to day;

“pasteurised milk” means milk in respect of which the designation “pasteurised milk” is lawfully used pursuant to the Milk Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1963;

“price” means the actual price paid for milk after taking into consideration any discounts or allowances or rebates made in relation to that milk, but does not include any levy charged by the seller for publicity for milk and other related services in respect of milk;

“sale by retail” means any sale to a person buying otherwise than for the purpose of resale and includes any sale to a person for the purposes of his catering business or a sale for export (other than for use as ships’ stores) to any place outside the United Kingdom;

“sell” includes offer or agree to sell or expose for sale.

Maximum prices and exemptions

3.—(1) No person shall sell by retail any milk at a price exceeding the maximum price specified in relation thereto in Schedule 1 to this Order:

Provided that where any milk is sold—

- (a) in a quantity of one-third of a pint or half a pint or a multiple of half a pint, or
- (b) in a quantity measured in millilitres which is less than a litre or is a multiple of 500 millilitres, and the maximum price thereof in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this article would include an odd fraction of a penny, other than one-half of a penny, that maximum price shall be increased to the next higher half of a penny if the said fraction is less than one-half or to the next higher whole penny if the said fraction is greater than one-half.

(2) No person shall sell any raw milk for heat treatment and resale for human consumption at a price exceeding the maximum price applicable in accordance with the provisions of Schedule 2 to this Order.

(3) No person shall, in connection with the sale or disposition or proposed sale or disposition of any milk in relation to which in accordance with the provisions of paragraphs (1) and (2) of this article a maximum price applies, enter or offer to enter into any artificial transaction or make or demand any unreasonable charge.

(4) The provisions of paragraph (1) of this article shall not apply as respects any supply of milk (a) by a caterer in the course of his catering business, or (b) from any automatic vending machine.

Licences or authorisations

4.—(1) The provisions of this Order are subject to any licence or authorisation which may be granted under this Order by the Department.

(2) Every person holding a licence or authorisation granted under this Order shall comply with every condition imposed by such licence or authorisation.

(3) Every licence or authorisation granted under this Order is and shall remain the property of the Department; and the licensee or any person in possession of any such licence or authorisation shall, if requested to do so by or on behalf of the Department, produce or deliver it to such person or to a person of such class or description, and within such time, as may be specified in the request.

Revocation

5. The Milk (Northern Ireland) Order 1980(a), the Milk (Northern Ireland) (Amendment) Order 1980(b) and the Milk (Northern Ireland) (Amendment) (No. 2) Order 1980(c) are hereby revoked:

Provided that unless the contrary intention appears any licence or authorisation granted under the Milk (Northern Ireland) Order 1980, or having effect by virtue thereof, and subsisting immediately before the coming into operation of this Order, shall continue to have effect as though granted by the Department under the corresponding provision of this Order.

In Witness whereof the Official Seal of the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food is hereunto affixed on 19th December 1980.

(L.S.)

Peter Walker,
Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food.

18th December 1980.

Humphrey Atkins,
Secretary of State.
