CENSUS

The Census Regulations 1980

Made - - - - -	30th June 1980
Laid before Parliament	10th July 1980
Coming into Operation	31st July 1980

The Secretary of State for Social Services, in exercise of powers conferred by section 3(1) of the Census Act 1920(a) and now vested in him(b), and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following regulations:—

Citation and commencement

1. These regulations may be cited as the Census Regulations 1980 and shall come into operation on 31st July 1980.

Interpretation and extent

2.—(1) In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires—

“the Act” means the Census Act 1920;

“assistant census officer” means an officer appointed under regulation 5(1)(b);

“the census” means the census directed to be taken by the Census Order 1980(c) (hereinafter referred to as “the Census Order”);

“census day” means 5th April 1981;

“census district” means a district so referred to in regulation 3;

“census night” means the night of 5th to 6th April 1981;

“census officer” means an officer appointed under regulation 5(1)(a);

“census supervisor” means an officer appointed under regulation 4;

“enumeration district” means a district so referred to in regulation 3;

“enumerator” means an officer appointed as such under regulation 5(1)(c);

“officer” means any person employed for the purpose of the census;

“prescribed person” means a person required by the Census Order to make a return.

(a) 1920 c. 41.

(b) See The Secretary of State for Social Services Order 1968 (S.I. 1968/1699) Art. 2.

(c) S.I. 1980/702.

(2) Any reference in these regulations to a numbered regulation or schedule shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be construed as a reference to the regulation or schedule bearing that number in these regulations, and any reference in a regulation to a numbered paragraph is a reference to the paragraph bearing that number in that regulation.

(3) These regulations shall not extend to Scotland.

Census districts and Enumeration districts

3. For the purpose of the census, the Registrar General shall divide England and Wales into census districts and shall divide each census district into enumeration districts.

Appointment of Census Supervisors

4. For the purpose of the census, the Registrar General may appoint census supervisors who shall perform the duties assigned to them by virtue of the Act and these regulations.

Appointment of other officers

5.—(1) For the purpose of the census, the Registrar General may—

- (a) appoint, or authorise a census supervisor to appoint a census officer for each census district;
- (b) appoint, or authorise a census officer to appoint such number of assistant census officers for each census district as the Registrar General may determine;
- (c) appoint, or authorise a census officer or assistant census officer to appoint an enumerator for each enumeration district and such other person as may be necessary in connection with the census.

(2) The officers appointed under this regulation shall perform the duties assigned to them by virtue of the Act and these regulations.

Instructions by the Registrar General

6.—(1) The Registrar General may give or may authorise a census supervisor, census officer or assistant census officer to give to any officer appointed in accordance with regulation 4 or regulation 5 such instructions as the Registrar General considers appropriate for the performance by those officers of the duties assigned to them by virtue of the Act and these regulations, and any such instructions shall be complied with by the officer to whom they are given.

(2) The Registrar General may, where he considers it appropriate, require any officer to perform any of the functions required by these regulations to be performed by any other officer.

Undertaking

7. Every officer and every person assisting any officer in the performance of his duties shall, before performing any duties, complete the form of undertaking set out in Schedule 1 faithfully to perform the duties imposed upon him by virtue of the Act and these regulations.

Forms of return

8.—(1) The form of return to be made by a prescribed person mentioned in column (1) of Schedule 2, or by any person making a return on behalf of a prescribed person in accordance with Article 5(4) of the Census Order, shall be the form set out in Schedule 3 which bears the identification particulars appropriate to the prescribed person shown in column (2) of Schedule 2, and any such person shall comply with the instructions contained in that form.

(2) The Registrar General may cause any such form to be translated into Welsh and such translation may be used for the purpose of the census.

Provision of forms and other documents for enumerators

9. Every census officer shall enter in the enumeration books provided by the Registrar General such particulars as the Registrar General may require, and shall, before census day, provide every enumerator appointed to act for an enumeration district within his census district with an enumeration book, a sufficient number of forms of return and such other forms or documents as may be necessary for the purpose of the census.

Delivery of forms of return

10.—(1) The enumerator shall, within such period as may be specified by the Registrar General, deliver—

(a) to the head or joint heads or the person for the time being acting as head of each private household occupying a dwelling or part of a dwelling mentioned in Group I in Schedule 1 to the Census Order or, where there is no head, or there are no heads or there is no acting head of that private household, to a member of that household aged 16 years or over or, where such private household consists of one person, to that person, form H in Schedule 3, or if the dwelling or the part of the dwelling is situate in Wales, form W in Schedule 3;

(b) to the manager, chief resident officer or other person for the time being in charge of any premises mentioned in Groups II or III in Schedule 1 to the Census Order and to the commanding officer or other person for the time being in charge of the premises mentioned in Group IV in that Schedule, the number of forms L and I, or in Wales, form Iw in Schedule 3 which the enumerator estimates is likely to be required.

(2) The obligation placed by this regulation on the enumerator to deliver a form of return shall be satisfied—

(a) if he hands it to the appropriate person mentioned in paragraph (1) or to some responsible person claiming to act on behalf of that person, or

(b) if, where no such appropriate or responsible person is available, he leaves it at the dwelling or premises where persons are to be enumerated.

(3) The Registrar General shall make such arrangements as he thinks fit for the delivery of—

(a) forms S, N, I or Iw in Schedule 3, as may be appropriate to the case in accordance with Schedule 2, to the captain, master or other person for the time being in charge of any vessel, ship or fishing boat mentioned in Group V in Schedule 1 to the Census Order and to the commanding officer or other person for the time being in charge of any vessel mentioned in Group IV in that Schedule;

(b) form I or in Wales Iw in Schedule 3 to every person mentioned in Group VI in Schedule 1 to the Census Order.

(4) The person to whom forms are delivered in accordance with paragraph (1)(b) or paragraph (3)(a) shall deliver a form I, or as the case may be Iw, to every prescribed person on the premises, vessel, ship or fishing boat who appears to him to be capable of completing the form.

(5) Where the manager or other person in charge of the premises mentioned in Group II in Schedule 1 to the Census Order has arranged for the return with respect to a person himself incapable of making that return to be made by a relative or other person accompanying him, he shall deliver for that purpose a form I, or as the case may be form Iw, to the relative or other person.

Particulars to be obtained by enumerators

11. The enumerator shall, when delivering form H or W in Schedule 3 in accordance with regulation 10(1)(a), complete the panel headed "To be completed by the Enumerator and amended, if necessary, by the person(s) signing this form."

Individual returns

12.—(1) For the purpose of Article 5(3) of the Census Order (any person wishing to make an individual return with respect to himself shall satisfy prescribed conditions) a person may make an individual return if he is aged 16 years or over on census day and if he complies with the procedure prescribed in the following paragraphs of this regulation.

(2) A person claiming to make an individual return ("the applicant") or a person acting on his behalf may request the enumerator to supply him with a separate form of return, but if the applicant cannot for any reason obtain such a form from the enumerator, he or a person acting on his behalf may apply to the census officer for a separate form of return.

(3) The enumerator or census officer, as the case may be, shall issue to the applicant, or the person acting on his behalf, the appropriate form I or Iw in Schedule 3 and an envelope.

(4) The applicant may place the completed form of return in the envelope provided for collection by the enumerator, and the enumerator may open the envelope for the purpose of examining the form of return in accordance with his duty under regulation 14(2) or, if so requested by the applicant the enumerator shall pass the sealed envelope to the census officer who shall deal with the envelope in accordance with regulation 13(2).

Sealed envelopes for returns from private households

13.—(1) The enumerator shall, at the request of any person required by Article 5(1) or (2) of the Census Order to make a return, provide that person with an envelope in which the completed form of return may be sealed for collection by the enumerator.

(2) The enumerator shall not himself open any sealed envelope provided for collection in accordance with the preceding paragraph, but shall instead pass the envelope to the census officer, who shall open the envelope and either himself examine the form or require an assistant census officer to examine the form in order that the person examining it may be satisfied that the entries thereon are properly and sufficiently made.

Collection of returns

14.—(1) Where under regulation 10(4) forms I or Iw have been delivered to persons mentioned in Article 5(4) of the Census Order, the person responsible for delivering the forms shall collect the completed forms on the day after census day or as soon thereafter as is reasonably practicable.

(2) The enumerator shall on the day after census day, or as soon thereafter as is reasonably practicable, collect all forms of return delivered by him and all separate forms of return issued in accordance with regulation 12 to persons within his enumeration district, and shall subject to regulations 12(4) and 13, examine each return and satisfy himself that the entries thereon are properly and sufficiently made, and shall make all such inquiries as are reasonably necessary for that purpose.

(3) The Registrar General shall make such arrangements as he thinks fit for the collection of completed forms of return made by persons on vessels, ships and fishing boats mentioned in Groups IV and V in Schedule 1 to the Census Order and by persons in places mentioned in Group VI in that Schedule.

Further duties of enumerators and census officers

15.—(1) The enumerator shall within such period as may be specified by the Registrar General—

(a) enter in the enumeration book and in any forms of return collected by him such particulars as the Registrar General may require; and

(b) deliver to the census officer the enumeration book and all returns collected by him.

(2) The census officer shall, within such period as may be specified by the Registrar General send all completed enumeration books relating to enumeration districts within his census district, together with the returns delivered to him by enumerators or assistant census officers, to the Registrar General.

Information to be provided by persons in charge of premises etc.

16.—(1) In the case of any premises, vessel, ship or fishing boat specified in Group II, III or V of Schedule 1 to the Census Order, the manager, chief resident officer or other person for the time being in charge of the premises or the captain, master or other person for the time being in charge of the vessel, ship or fishing boat, and in the case of any premises or vessel specified in Group IV the commanding officer or other person for the time being in charge of the premises or vessel, shall enter on every return made in accordance with Article 5(4) of the Census Order by or with respect to any person in the premises or vessel, ship or fishing boat, the name and address of the premises or as the case may be the name of the vessel, ship or fishing boat.

(2) In the case of any vessel mentioned in column (1) of Group IV of Schedule 1 to the Census Order, the commanding officer or other person for the time being in charge of that vessel, shall enter on every return made in accordance with Article 5(5) of the Census Order the name of that vessel.

Replacement of census supervisor, census officer, assistant census officer or enumerator

17.—(1) Where in the opinion of the Registrar General any census supervisor is unable to perform his duties in connection with the census, the Registrar General may appoint a suitable person in his place to perform those duties.

(2) Where in the opinion of the Registrar General or of the census supervisor, any census officer is unable to perform his duties in connection with the census, the Registrar General or the census supervisor may appoint a suitable person in his place to perform those duties.

(3) Where in the opinion of the census officer any assistant census officer or enumerator is unable to perform his duties in connection with the census, the census officer may appoint a suitable person in his place to perform those duties.

Giving of information

18.—(1) Every prescribed person shall give to the enumerator such information as he may reasonably require for the performance of his duties under these regulations, and every other person in respect of whom it is the duty of a prescribed person to make a return shall give to that prescribed person such information as he may reasonably require for that purpose.

(2) Otherwise than for purposes in connection with the Act or in accordance with these regulations no person shall use, publish or communicate to any person any information given under the Census Order and these regulations.

Safe custody of forms and documents

19. Any person having the custody, whether on his own behalf or on behalf of any other person, of any forms of return, enumeration books or other documents containing confidential information relating to a census shall keep such forms, books and other documents in such manner as to prevent any unauthorised person having access thereto.

Revocation

20. The Census Regulations 1970(a) are hereby revoked.

1981 Census England/Wales

L Form for Communal Establishments

(Hotels, Boarding Houses, Hospitals, Schools, Institutions and HM Forces' Establishments, etc)

To the Manager, Chief Resident Officer, Commanding Officer or other person in charge:

The census depends on the co-operation of those taking part in it and you have certain legal obligations for the enumeration of the people in your establishment. The instructions opposite tell you how to carry out the enumeration and should be followed carefully.

The Individual forms with which you have been supplied are for the returns to be made by each person in the establishment. To assist you in issuing and collecting them, spaces have been provided overleaf for listing the people who spend the night of 5/6 April at this establishment.

This census is being held in accordance with a decision made by Parliament. You have a legal obligation to list the names of the people in your establishment, to distribute forms to them and collect the forms on completion, to see that forms are completed for people who are incapable of completing them for themselves, and to give the Enumerator the information he needs to carry out his instructions.

The replies given will be treated in STRICT CONFIDENCE. They will be used to produce statistics but names and addresses will NOT be fed into the census computer. After the census, the forms will be locked away for 100 years before they are passed to the Public Record Office.

Instructions

Listing of names

List the names of all people present, that is: everyone who spends Census night 5/6 April 1981 in this establishment; and everyone who arrives in this establishment on Monday 6 April before the forms are collected and who has not been included as present on a Census form elsewhere.

Do not list the names of any non-resident staff/personnel who happen to be on duty in your premises on Census night.

The Enumerator will supply further forms if you need them.

You may start drawing up the list in advance of Census day, but before collection by the Enumerator you must bring it up to date.

Distribution of Individual forms ('I' forms in England; 'Iw' forms in Wales)

An Individual form is required to be completed for each person listed; where a person is incapable of making a return, you must arrange for a form to be completed on his or her behalf.

Before you issue each form, enter the name of the establishment in the appropriate panel on the form (a rubber stamp may be used).

Please issue an envelope to any person who wishes to make their return under sealed cover.

Collection of the forms

Please fill in and sign the panel below and have all the completed forms ready for collection by the Enumerator who will call on Monday 6 April or shortly thereafter.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations.)

The regulations provide for the appointment of officers and for the detailed arrangements necessary for the conduct of the census directed to be taken by the Census Order 1980. The forms of return to be completed in accordance with the provisions of the Order are prescribed by the regulations and set out in Schedule 3. The regulations also make provision in respect of the giving and use of information and for the safe custody of forms and documents.
