CENSUS

The Census (Scotland) Regulations 1980

Made - - - -	26th June 1980
Laid before Parliament	10th July 1980
Coming into Operation	31st July 1980

In exercise of the powers conferred upon me by sections 3(1) and 9(1) of the Census Act 1920(a) and of all other powers enabling me in that behalf, I hereby make the following regulations:—

Citation and commencement

1. These regulations may be cited as the Census (Scotland) Regulations 1980 and shall come into operation on 31st July 1980.

Interpretation and extent

2.—(1) In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires—

“the Act” means the Census Act 1920;

“assistant census officer” means an officer appointed under regulation 5(1)(b);

“the census” means the census directed to be taken by the Census Order 1980(b) (hereinafter referred to as “the Census Order”);

“census day” means 5th April 1981;

“census district” means a district so referred to in regulation 3;

“census liaison officer” means an officer appointed under regulation 4;

“census night” means the night of 5th to 6th April 1981;

“census officer” means an officer appointed under regulation 5(1)(a);

“checking assistant” means an officer appointed under regulation 5(1)(b);

“enumeration district” means a district so referred to in regulation 3;

“enumerator” means an officer appointed as such under regulation 5(1)(c);

“officer” means any person employed for the purpose of the census;

“prescribed person” means a person required by the Census Order to make a return;

“Registrar General” means the Registrar General of Births, Deaths and Marriages for Scotland.

(a) 1920 c. 41.

(b) S.I. 1980/702.

(2) Any reference in these regulations to a numbered regulation or schedule shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be construed as a reference to the regulation or schedule bearing that number in these regulations, and any reference in a regulation to a numbered paragraph is a reference to the paragraph bearing that number in that regulation.

(3) These regulations extend to Scotland only.

Census districts and enumeration districts

3. For the purpose of the census, the Registrar General shall divide Scotland into census districts and shall divide each census district into enumeration districts unless he determines that a census district shall comprise only one enumeration district.

Appointment of census liaison officers

4. For the purpose of the census, the Registrar General may appoint census liaison officers who shall perform the duties assigned to them by virtue of the Act and these regulations.

Appointment of other officers

5.—(1) For the purpose of the census, the Registrar General may—

- (a) appoint, or authorise a census liaison officer to appoint, a census officer for each census district;
- (b) appoint, or authorise a census officer to appoint, such numbers of assistant census officers and checking assistants for each census district as the Registrar General may determine;
- (c) appoint, or authorise a census officer or assistant census officer to appoint, an enumerator for each enumeration district and such other person as may be necessary in connection with the census.

(2) The officers appointed under this regulation shall perform the duties assigned to them by virtue of the Act and these regulations.

Instructions by the Registrar General

6.—(1) The Registrar General may give or may authorise a census liaison officer, census officer or assistant census officer to give to any officer appointed in accordance with regulation 4 or regulation 5 such instructions as the Registrar General considers appropriate for the performance by those officers of the duties assigned to them by virtue of the Act and these regulations, and any such instructions shall be complied with by the officer to whom they are given.

(2) The Registrar General may, where he considers it appropriate, require any officer to perform any of the functions required by these regulations to be performed by any other officer.

Undertaking

7. Every officer, and every person assisting any officer in the performance of his duties shall, before performing any duties, complete the form of undertaking set out in Schedule 1 faithfully to perform the duties imposed upon him by virtue of the Act and these regulations.

Forms of return

8. The form of return to be made by a prescribed person mentioned in column (1) of Schedule 2, or by any person making a return on behalf of a prescribed person in accordance with Article 5(4) of the Census Order, shall be the form set out in Schedule 3 which bears the identification particulars appropriate to the prescribed person shown in column (2) of Schedule 2, and any such person shall comply with the instructions contained in that form.

Provision of forms and other documents for enumerators

9. Every census officer shall enter in the enumeration record books provided by the Registrar General such particulars as the Registrar General may require, and shall, before census day, provide every enumerator appointed to act for an enumeration district within his census district with an enumeration record book, a sufficient number of forms of return and such other forms or documents as may be necessary for the purpose of the census.

Delivery of forms of return

10.—(1) The enumerator shall, within such period as may be specified by the Registrar General, deliver—

(a) to the head or joint heads or the person for the time being acting as head of each private household occupying a dwelling or part of a dwelling mentioned in Group I in Schedule 1 to the Census Order or, where there is no head, or there are no heads or there is no acting head of that private household, to a member of that household aged 16 years or over or, where such private household consists of one person, to that person, form H in Schedule 3;

(b) to the manager, chief resident officer or other person for the time being in charge of any premises mentioned in Groups II or III in Schedule 1 to the Census Order and to the commanding officer or other person for the time being in charge of the premises mentioned in Group IV in that Schedule, the number of forms L and I in Schedule 3 which the enumerator estimates is likely to be required.

(2) The obligation placed by this regulation on the enumerator to deliver a form of return shall be satisfied—

(a) if he hands it to the appropriate person mentioned in paragraph (1) or to some responsible person claiming to act on behalf of that person, or

(b) if, where no such appropriate or responsible person is available, he leaves it at the dwelling or premises where persons are to be enumerated.

(3) The Registrar General shall make such arrangements as he thinks fit for the delivery of—

(a) forms I and S or N in Schedule 3, as may be appropriate to the case in accordance with Schedule 2, to the captain, master or other person for the time being in charge of any vessel, ship or fishing boat mentioned in Group V in Schedule 1 to the Census Order and to the commanding officer or other person for the time being in charge of any vessel mentioned in Group IV in that Schedule;

(b) form I in Schedule 3 to every person mentioned in Group VI in Schedule 1 to the Census Order.

(4) The person to whom forms are delivered in accordance with paragraph (1)(b) or paragraph (3)(a) shall deliver a form I to every prescribed person on the premises, vessel, ship or fishing boat who appears to him to be capable of completing the form.

(5) Where the manager or other person in charge of premises mentioned in Group II in Schedule 1 to the Census Order has arranged for the return with respect to a person himself incapable of making that return to be made by a relative or other person accompanying him, he shall deliver for that purpose a form I to the relative or other person.

Particulars to be obtained by enumerators

11. The enumerator shall, when delivering form H in Schedule 3 in accordance with regulation (10)(1)(a), complete the panel headed "To be completed by the enumerator and amended, if necessary, by the person(s) signing this form".

Individual returns

12.—(1) For the purpose of Article 5(3) of the Census Order (any person wishing to make an individual return with respect to himself shall satisfy prescribed conditions) a person may make an individual return if he is aged 16 years or over on census day and if he complies with the procedure prescribed in the following paragraphs of this regulation.

(2) A person claiming to make an individual return ("the applicant") or a person acting on his behalf may request the enumerator to supply him with a separate form of return, but if the applicant cannot for any reason obtain such a form from the enumerator, he or a person acting on his behalf may apply to the census officer for a separate form of return.

(3) The enumerator or census officer, as the case may be, shall issue to the applicant, or the person acting on his behalf, form I in Schedule 3 and an envelope.

(4) The applicant may place the completed form of return in the envelope provided for collection by the enumerator, and the enumerator may open the envelope for the purpose of examining the form of return in accordance with his duty under regulation 14(2) or, if so requested by the applicant, the enumerator shall pass the sealed envelope to the census officer who shall deal with the envelope in accordance with regulation 13(2).

Sealed envelopes for returns from private households

13.—(1) The enumerator shall, at the request of any person required by Article 5(1) or (2) of the Census Order to make a return, provide that person with an envelope in which the completed form of return may be sealed for collection by the enumerator.

(2) The enumerator shall not himself open any sealed envelope provided for collection in accordance with the preceding paragraph, but shall instead pass the envelope to the census officer, who shall open the envelope and either himself examine the form or require an assistant census officer to examine the form in order that the person examining it may be satisfied that the entries thereon are properly and sufficiently made.

Collection of returns

14.—(1) Where under regulation 10(4) forms I have been delivered to persons mentioned in Article 5(4) of the Census Order, the person responsible for delivering the forms shall collect the completed forms on the day after census day or as soon thereafter as is reasonably practicable.

(2) The enumerator shall on the day after census day, or as soon thereafter as is reasonably practicable, collect all forms of return delivered by him and all separate forms of return issued in accordance with regulation 12 to persons within his enumeration district, and shall subject to regulations 12(4) and 13, examine each return and satisfy himself that the entries thereon are properly and sufficiently made, and shall make all such inquiries as are reasonably necessary for that purpose.

(3) The Registrar General shall make such arrangements as he thinks fit for the collection of completed forms of return made by persons on vessels, ships and fishing boats mentioned in Groups IV and V in Schedule 1 to the Census Order and by persons in places mentioned in Group VI in that Schedule.

Further duties of enumerators and census officers

15.—(1) The enumerator shall, within such period as may be specified by the Registrar General—

- (a) enter in the enumeration record book and in any forms of return collected by him such particulars as the Registrar General may require; and
- (b) deliver to the census officer the enumeration record book and all returns collected by him.

(2) The census officer shall, within such period as may be specified by the Registrar General, send all completed enumeration record books relating to enumeration districts within his census district, together with the returns delivered to him by enumerators or assistant census officers, to the Registrar General.

Information to be provided by persons in charge of premises etc

16.—(1) In the case of any premises, vessel, ship or fishing boat specified in Group II, III or V of Schedule 1 to the Census Order, the manager, chief resident officer or other person for the time being in charge of the premises or the captain, master or other person for the time being in charge of the vessel, ship or fishing boat, and in the case of any premises or vessel specified in Group IV the commanding officer or other person for the time being in charge of the premises or vessel, shall enter on every return made in accordance with Article 5(4) of the Census Order by or with respect to any person in the premises or vessel, ship or fishing boat, the name and address of the premises or as the case may be the name of the vessel, ship or fishing boat.

(2) In the case of any vessel mentioned in column (1) of Group IV of Schedule 1 to the Census Order, the commanding officer or other person for the time being in charge of that vessel shall enter on every return made in accordance with Article 5(5) of the Census Order the name of that vessel.

Replacement of census liaison officer, census officer, assistant census officer, checking assistant or enumerator

17.—(1) Where in the opinion of the Registrar General any census liaison officer is unable to perform his duties in connection with the census, the Registrar General may appoint a suitable person in his place to perform those duties.

(2) Where in the opinion of the Registrar General or of the census liaison officer, any census officer is unable to perform his duties in connection with the census, the Registrar General or the census liaison officer may appoint a suitable person in his place to perform those duties.

(3) Where in the opinion of the census officer any assistant census officer, checking assistant or enumerator is unable to perform his duties in connection with the census, the census officer may appoint a suitable person in his place to perform those duties.

Giving of information

18.—(1) Every prescribed person shall give to the enumerator such information as he may reasonably require for the performance of his duties under these regulations, and every other person in respect of whom it is the duty of a prescribed person to make a return shall give to that prescribed person such information as he may reasonably require for that purpose.

(2) Otherwise than for purposes in connection with the Act or in accordance with these regulations no person shall use, publish or communicate to any person any information given under the Census Order and these regulations.

Safe custody of forms and documents

19. Any person having the custody, whether on his own behalf or on behalf of any other person, of any forms of return, enumeration record books or other documents containing confidential information relating to a census shall keep such forms, books and other documents in such manner as to prevent any unauthorised person having access thereto.

Revocation

20. The Census (Scotland) Regulations 1970(a) are hereby revoked.

SCHEDULE 3

Forms of Return for 1981 Census

IN STRICT CONFIDENCE

Form H
for private households

1981 Census Scotland

To the Head, Joint Heads or Acting Head of the Household

Please complete this form and have it ready for collection by the enumerator who will call on Monday, 6 April or soon after that day. If you need help in answering any of the questions, do not hesitate to ask the enumerator or to use the "Freefone" service mentioned below. The enumerator has to ensure that you have completed the form and you should give him any further information he may need for this purpose.

The form is used only for compiling statistics and when you have completed it in accordance with the instructions, it will be treated as CONFIDENTIAL and no information about named individuals will be passed by the Census Office to any other Government Department or any other authority or person. If anyone employed in taking the Census improperly discloses information you provide, he will be liable to prosecution. Similarly, you must not disclose information which anyone (for example, a visitor or boarder) gives you to enable you to complete the form.

The legal obligation to fill in the whole form rests on YOU, but each person who has to be included is required to give you the information you need. However, if anyone aged 16 or over does not wish to give you his or her personal information, the enumerator or local Census Officer should be asked for an individual form and official envelope in which to return it. Then you need answer only questions 1a, 3 and 4 for that person. If the person leaves his completed form with you for collection, pass the envelope unopened to the enumerator.

Completion of this form is compulsory under the Census Act 1920 and there are penalties of up to £50 for failing to comply with the requirements described above or for giving false information.

When you have completed the form, please sign the declaration at the foot of the last page.

Questions 9-12 are for all persons aged 16 or over (born before 6 April 1965).

9 Whether working, retired, housewife etc. last week

Please tick all the boxes appropriate to the person's activity last week.
A job (box 1 and box 2) means any type of work for pay or profit but not unpaid work. It includes:
 casual or temporary work
 work on a person's own account
 work in a family business
 part-time work, even if only for a few hours
A part-time job (box 2) is a job in which the hours worked, excluding any overtime, are usually 30 hours or less per week.
 Tick box 1 or box 2, as appropriate, if the person had a job but was not at work for all or part of the week because he or she was on holiday
 temporarily laid off
 on strike
 sick
 Tick box 1 if the job was normally full-time but was interrupted for any reason during the week.
 Do not count as a full-time student a person in a paid occupation in which training is also given, such as a student nurse, an apprentice or a management trainee.
 For a full-time student tick box 9 as well as any other appropriate boxes.

Please answer the following questions which relate to your household's accommodation.

16 Tenure

How do you and your household occupy your accommodation?

Please tick the appropriate box.

1 As an owner-occupier (including purchase by mortgage)

By renting, rent free or by lease:

2 from a local authority (council or New Town) or from the Scottish Special Housing Association (SSHA)

3 from a housing association other than the SSHA or from a charitable trust

4 with a job, shop, farm or other business

5 furnished from a private landlord, company or other organisation

6 unfurnished from a private landlord, company or other organisation

In some other way:

Please give details

If the accommodation is occupied by lease originally granted for 20 years or more, tick box 1 'As owner occupiers'.

If the accommodation is a tied house, or other accommodation provided in connection with the employment of a member of your household on the condition that its tenure is to be given up on leaving the employment, tick box 4 whether rent is paid or not. In the case of a tenancy originally granted by virtue of employment, but extended although the employment has now ceased, tick box 4 if no rent is paid (by yourself or anyone else) but tick box 5 or 6 if rent is paid.

17 Rooms

a How many rooms in your household's accommodation are dining rooms, living rooms or bedrooms? Count spare rooms if they could be used for these purposes.

_____ room(s)

b Is cooking generally done in one of the rooms entered in 'a' above?

Yes No

c Have you any room used for cooking but not included in 'a' above?

1 Yes 2 No

Rooms divided by curtains or portable screens count as one, those divided by a fixed or sliding partition count as two.

Rooms used solely for business, professional or trade purposes should be excluded.

18 Household amenities

Has your household the use of the following amenities on these premises?

Please tick the appropriate boxes

a A fixed bath or shower permanently connected to a water supply and a waste pipe

1 Yes - for use only by this household

2 Yes - for use also by another household

3 No fixed bath or shower

b a flush toilet (WC) with entrance inside the dwelling (exclude any on common stair or landing)

1 Yes - for use only by this household

2 Yes - for use also by another household

3 No inside flush toilet (WC)

c a flush toilet (WC) with entrance outside the dwelling (include any on common stair or landing)

1 Yes - for use only by this household

2 Yes - for use also by another household

3 No outside flush toilet (WC)

19 Shared access

Does your household share the use of any hall, passage, landing or staircase with any other household?

1 Does not share

2 Shares only for entry to own household's accommodation

3 Shares for movement between the rooms of the household's accommodation, that is dining rooms, living rooms and bedrooms shown at question 17a.

20 Cars and vans

Please tick the appropriate box to indicate the number of cars and vans normally available for use by you or members of your household (other than visitors).

0 None 2 Two

1 One 3 Three or more

Include any car or van provided by employers if normally available for use by you or members of your household, but exclude vans used solely for the carriage of goods.

Questions 9-12 are for a person aged 16 or over (born before 6 April 1965)

9 Whether working, retired, housewife etc. last week

Please tick all the boxes appropriate to your activity last week.
 A job (box 1 and box 2) means any type of work for pay or profit but not unpaid work. It includes
 casual or temporary work
 work on your own account
 work in a family business
 part-time work, even if only for a few hours
 A part-time job (box 2) is a job in which the hours worked, excluding any overtime, are usually 30 hours or less per week.
 Tick box 1 or box 2, as appropriate, if you had a job last week but were not at work for all or part of the week because you were
 on holiday
 temporarily laid off
 on strike
 sick
 Tick box 1 if the job was normally full-time but was interrupted for any reason during the week.
 Do not consider yourself as a full-time student if you are in a paid occupation in which training is also given, such as a student nurse, an apprentice or a management trainee.
 If you are a full-time student tick box 9 as well as any other appropriate boxes.

- 1 In a full-time job at any time last week
- 2 In a part-time job at any time last week
- 3 Waiting to take up a job already accepted
- 4 Seeking work
- 5 Prevented by temporary sickness from seeking work
- 6 Permanently sick or disabled
- 7 Housewife
- 8 Wholly retired from employment
- 9 At school or a full-time student at an educational establishment not provided by an employer
- 10 Other, please specify

Questions about present or previous employment

If you were in a job last week (boxes 1 or 2 at Question 9 ticked), please answer Questions 10-14 in respect of your main job last week.
 If you are wholly retired (box 8 at Question 9 ticked), or out of work (boxes 3, 4 or 5 ticked) or are permanently sick or disabled (box 6 ticked), please answer Questions 10-12 in respect of your last full-time job, if any. Leave Questions 13 and 14 blank and go on to Question 15.
 If you are not included above or have not had a previous job, please write 'not applicable' at Question 10, leave Questions 11-14 blank and go on to Question 15.

10 Name and nature of business of employer (if self-employed, your business)

a Please give the name of your employer.
 Members of the Armed Forces, civil servants and local government officials should see the notes at the foot of this page before answering questions 10-12.
 If you are employed solely in private domestic service write DOMESTIC SERVICE.
 b Please describe clearly what your employer makes or does. If self-employed please describe what you make or do.
 General terms such as 'manufacturer', 'merchant', 'agent', 'dealer', 'engineering' are not enough and further details should be given.

a Name of employer _____

 b Nature of business _____

11 Occupation

a Please give full and precise details of your occupation.
 If your job is known in the trade or industry by a special name, use that name.
 Precise terms should be used, for example, 'radio mechanic', 'chartered electrical engineer', 'jig and tool fitter', 'toolroom foreman', rather than general terms such as 'mechanic', 'engineer', 'fitter' or 'foreman'.
 b Please describe the actual work done.

a Occupation _____

 b Description of work _____

12 Employment status

Please tick the appropriate box.
 Box 3 should be ticked if you have management or supervisory responsibility for other employees. If you are employed as a quality control inspector and concerned only with the technical quality of a product you should tick box 2.

Form L for Communal and Forces establishments

1981 Census Scotland

To the Manager, Chief Resident Officer, Commanding Officer or other person in charge:

The Census depends on the co-operation of those taking part in it and you have certain legal obligations for the enumeration of the people in your establishment. The instructions overleaf tell you how to carry out the enumeration and should be followed carefully. If you need help, please ask the enumerator or telephone Freephone 8485 and speak to a member of the Census Headquarters staff. Freephone is available from 8.30 am to 8 pm, Monday to Friday, between 30 March and 10 April and between 2 and 8 pm on Sunday 5 April.

The Forms I with which you have been supplied are for the individual returns to be made by each person in the establishment. To assist you in issuing and collecting them, spaces have been provided on this form for listing the people who spend the night of 5-6 April at this address.

Please complete this form and have it and the completed Forms I ready for collection by the enumerator who will call on Monday 6 April or soon after that day.

Legal obligations

You have a legal obligation to list the names of the people in your establishment, to distribute the Forms I and collect them on completion, to see that forms are completed for persons who are incapable of completing them for themselves, to give the information asked for in Section B of this form, and to give the enumerator the information he needs to carry out his instructions.

There is a penalty of up to £50 for refusing to distribute or fill in a Census form or refusing to give information for that purpose, or for giving false information.

The information leaflets issued with this form provide more details about the Census; if anyone in your establishment requests more detailed information, please let him or her see one of these.

Confidentiality

The information given on a Census form will be treated as CONFIDENTIAL and used only for compiling statistics. No information about named individuals will be passed by the Census Office to any other Government Department or any other authority or person unless needed for proceedings under the Census Act related to refusal of information, false statements etc. If anyone employed in taking the Census improperly discloses information, he will be liable to prosecution.

You must not use the information given on the completed Forms I or disclose it to anyone other than the enumerator. If you do, you will be liable to prosecution and, on conviction, may be fined up to £50.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THIS FORM, DISTRIBUTING AND COLLECTING FORMS I

1 Listing of names

List on the next page(s) the names of all persons present, that is:

everyone who spends the night of 5-6 April 1981 in this establishment and everyone who arrives on Monday 6 April before the forms have been collected and who has not been included as present on a Census form elsewhere.

Do not include non-resident personnel or members of staff who happen to be present on duty on Census night.

You may start drawing up the lists in advance of Census day, but before they are collected, you should bring them up to date by:

(a) deleting from them the names of those who did not after all spend Census night in the establishment, or any persons who died before midnight 5 April 1981

and

(b) adding the names of any new arrivals, or children born before midnight 5 April 1981.

Should you require further Forms L to complete the listing, the enumerator will supply them.

2 Distribution of individual Forms I

Each person listed in accordance with the first paragraph above is required to complete a Form I.

Where, however, a person is incapable of completing the form himself or herself, please arrange to have it completed on his or her behalf. In hotels and boarding houses the form in respect of such a person, or a child, may be completed by an accompanying friend or relative.

Before you issue each Form I enter the name and address of the establishment in the appropriate panel on the form. A rubber stamp may be used.

If any person aged 16 or over expresses the wish to return a completed Form I to the enumerator under sealed cover, please issue one of the envelopes supplied to you for that purpose.

3 Collection of forms

Please assemble all the completed forms, fill in and sign the panel on the front page and have the forms ready for collection by the enumerator on Monday 6 April or shortly thereafter.
